MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

preciated on Broadway and other streets not affected by this trouble. I appreciate the hardships you gentlemen have undergone, and will hold a conference with the Corporation Counsel as suggested."

The views given on this and the preceding page show better than anything else could the protracted nature of the sufferings of the Elm st property-owners. The views from our issue of Oct. 1, 1898, show a condition of affairs that had then been long prevailing, and those of to-day show how the evils then complained of have continued and intensified by time.

In the Legislature.

STILL ON THE MORTGAGE TAX BILL—LIEN LAW AMENDMENTS—LABOR DEMANDS REVIVED—AMENDMENTS OF THE TENEMENT HOUSE LAW.

The measures that are giving most concern to the administration are the Stranahan Mortgage Tax bill and the Krum Corporation Tax bill. As to the first conferences are being held as to the amendments that ought to be made in it before reporting it to the two houses. An amendment to allow mortgages standing March 1st to come in will undoubtedly be inserted, if for no other reason than because the income from the bill would be much larger than if they were excluded. It is also probable that something will be done to meet the objections to the measure coming from short mortgage interests; and, it is possible, too, that the State may find itself compelled to share the proceeds of the bill with the localities contributing the income in order to carry the bill at all. Up to this time the bill has been protected by the hands of its friends; now it must, as bills generally do at some time or other, pass through the hands of its enemies, who will, if they can, materially change its features.

The Krum bill is opposed on the ground that it is a protective measure, in favor of home corporations and against those belonging to other States doing business in this State. Mr. Lawson Purdy, who appeared against the bill before the Joint Committee on Taxation and Retrenchment on Tuesday, said after the hearing to meet the surprise expressed that so little opposition had developed before the Committee: "The corporations were convinced that there was no use of their making appearance, as there was little prospect of their influencing the committees. Besides, they have found a way by which, if the bill passes, they can avoid the unfair burdens which it seeks to put upon them. They will organize subsidiary corporations to do their business in New York State, and then they can be taxed only for the property of these subsidiary corporations. Some of them are already preparing to take this step."

A bill of considerable importance to building and realty interests is that of Mr. Egan's, now in the Assembly, to amend the lien law by adding to section 21, Building Loan Contract, the following: "A borrower under a building loan contract shall not be entitled to any payment provided to be made thereunder, unless when he applies to the lender therfor he shall present to such lender receipts for payment for all work and labor done and performed and material furnished in the construction of the building or buildings described in the contract, or releases from all claims and demands by all contractors or sub-contractors who shall have done work or performed labor in connection with the construction of such building or buildings, or who shall have furnished material for the erection thereof, since the last preceding payment on account of such loan, together with the affidavit of such borrower that there are no other claims or demands for work or labor done or performed or material furnished in the erection of such building or buildings since the last payment on the loan, and that he makes such affidavit for the purpose of inducing the lender to make the payment applied for. Any payments made in violation of this provision shall be void as against liens filed subsequent thereto, for work done or material furnished since payment of the last proceeding installment of the loan. When pursuant to the terms of a building loan contract the building or buildings in course of construction upon the premises mentioned in such contract shall have reached the stage where the borrower would be entitled to the payment of an installment of the loan, but for the filing of liens or other claims justifying the lender, under the terms of the contract, in withholding payment of such installment, and the lender shall therefore withhold such payment, such lender shall not be discharged from liability for the payment of such installment, but upon demand of any person who shall have filed a lien against the borrower and the premises described in the contract for work or labor or for material furnished since payment of the last installment of the loan, he shall deposit the amount of such installment with the clerk of the county in whose office such building loan contract is filed and the clerk shall give him a receipt therefor stating therein that the sum is deposited on account of the installment of the loan designated by the owner. Thereupon the said lender shall be discharged from any further liability on account of such installment and such deposit with the clerk shall have the same effect as though the installment represented by the deposit were paid to the borrower. Upon proceedings to foreclose any lien filed against the borrower and the premises mentioned in the building loan contract the installment or installments of the loan deposited by the lender with the clerk as herein provided, shall be apportioned pro rata for work and labor done and performed and material furnished in the erection of the building or buildings mentioned in the building loan contract, since the payment to the borrower of the last proceeding installment of the loan, among all persons who have filed notices of lien for the amount due therefor. Should no proceedings be instituted to foreclose a lien under which such installment might be distributed as herein provided within one year after such installment is deposited with the clerk, the court shall, upon proof of that fact, direct the amount so deposited to be refunded and repaid to the person by whom the same was deposited.

The bill also adds to section 23, Enforcement of Mechinics' Liens, these words: "If it shall appear to the court in any action or proceeding to enforce or foreclose a mechanic's lien specified in this article that the amount claimed in the notice of lien exceeds the amount actually due to the person or persons filing such notice of lien, when the same was filed, the court shall direct judgment dismissing the proceeding or action with costs, and the lien shall be discharged."

Other interesting bills are these:

IN THE SENATE.

Senator Hennessy's, to reduce the interest on assessments in arrears from 7 to 5 per cent.

Senator Elsberg's, to amend section 24 of the Statutory Constitution law by adding the following words: "Where a contract by its terms requires the payment of money or the performance of a condition on a public holiday, such payment may be made or condition performed on the next business day succeeding such holiday, with the same force and effect as if made or performed in accordance with the terms of the contract."

Senator Plunkitt's (defeated last year), to extend the public docks on the Hudson River, from 350 to 750 ft. north and south of 96th st.

IN THE ASSEMBLY.

Mr. Adams, to permit the erection of 3-sty frame tenements outside the fire limits of New York City.

Mr. Moran's, to reduce the legal rate of interest from 6 to 5%.

Mr. McInerney's, authorizing the city to deed to abutting owners land condemned for street improvements, which improvements have been abandoned for 20 years or more.

Mr. Ash's, to exempt from all the provisions of the Tenement House Act, except those relating to fire escapes, houses located in the counties of Kings and Queens not more than three stories in height, and occupied or arranged to be occupied by no more than six families; and from all provisions 3-sty and basement high-stoop dwellings in the same counties that have been converted into tenements.

Who Will Pay the Tax?

Inquiry has been made of the Record and Guide as to where the burden of the tax will fall in the event of the Stranahan bill to tax mortgages one-half of one per cent on being recorded, is passed. In answer the number and value of the mortgages filed last year in each of the three boroughs of Manhattan, Brooklyn and Bronx are given below. In reading these figures it has to be remembered that the total value of the mortgages annually filed in the state is estimated by the authorities at Albany at $600,000,000 and that the total given below of $353,025,870 of New York Ciy mortgages does not include any that were recorded in Queens and Richmond counties in the year to which the figures belong. These figures are:

Year 1901.	No. of mortgages.	Amount
Manhattan	11,053	$264,625,327
The Bronx	3,839	20,063,589
Brooklyn	12,500	68,336,954
Total for three boroughs	27,392	$353,025,870

A Tenement Owner's Complaint.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Dear Sir: Will you kindly advise me on what percentage, or how the assessors fix the valuation of tenement house property for the purpose of taxation? There is certainly no question about it, that the most of tenement property, which is owned by practically poor men, is much over-valued by taxation, and I think that most owners will bear me out in this statement.

When a speculator or builder buys and builds upon a certain lot or lots of ground, he erects thereon as cheaply as possible, and when finished, he secures the largest mortgages possible and most certainly tries to get as large rents as he can, and then asks a fancy price for the whole to sell. It is then, as I understand it, that the assessor places the valuation, when everything is at its highest value.

How many tenement house-owners that have bought property within the last ten years, would gladly sell out for one-third less than what they paid, or in some cases, one-half. The reason being, that the longer you own the property, the less rents you can get and the more taxes and other expenses you are under. You might say, why don't they complain; well, as I happen to be one of the many, I will explain my reason for keeping quiet.

A buys a lot to build a tenement on to sell; pays $10,000 for the lot, builds the house for $15,000; when ready to sell, asks $30,000 for the same. A secures a loan on the property for $20,000, at 5%, and shows you a full house with a rental of $3,000 per year; price, $30,000. This, to many a poor man who has worked half his life, looks like a good investment, and sure enough at the time it is. He, B, buys for $30,000, and finds that the tax valuation is $18,000, which looks to him as about right; now, in nine cases out of ten, the same house in five years will not rent for $2,000, and if he trys to sell, could not get the price of the mortgage. He does not care to have this known, fearing that the holder of the mortgage, knowing the true state of affairs, would make him reduce the amount of the mortgage one-half, so he keeps going along, paying the high rate of interest, the high rate of taxes, until he is finally driven to the wall and loses all.

Any owner of property of the above character knows that with a valuation on his property of $18,000, he cannot make ends meet. As, for example, a house now brings in a rental when full of $1,500,

His taxes are	$360
Water tax	60
Repairs, &c	200
Vacancies	300
		$920
$20,000 mortgage, at 5%		1,000
		$1,920

This is true, and in many cases worse than I make it, and the wonder is why the owner does not say something about it, but he doesn't. In placing the valuation on tenement property I often wondered if they take into consideration the amount of money they bring in a year, which I feel is the only just way to value the same.

There are also many owners that do not like to sell their property, no matter how little it nets them a year, but this is no reason why their property should be overtaxed; some one must own the poor property, as well as the good, just as a poor horse has an owner as well as the good one, and both have to get care and attention.

Now that the tax books are open for inspection, I trust that you will encourage the owners of tenement house property to try and have the value reduced, and that you will give them your support.

A POOR TENEMENT OWNER.

The Mortgage Tax Bill.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Dear Sir: Again our legislators at Albany are framing a mortgage tax bill. Think of it! A bill to tax an obligation and indebtedness!

This matter has been so thoroughly threshed over that it may well be said that anything new in the premises will be a work of supererogation. However, it seems it is necessary to keep pointing out these old truths, in order to prevent an injustice. Who will pay this tax? The eminent members of the committee on taxation and retrenchment will say that the mortgagee will pay the tax. We practical men know that the borrower and not the lender will pay. We also know that a tax of this kind is really against real estate. Call it a real estate tax, not a mortgage tax.

The logical Senator Stranahan in framing this bill, has said, I believe, that the consequences will be that more money will be devoted to mortgage investments. There is no dearth of money for investment in mortgages on real estate property, nor would there ever be any were it not for the idiotic attempts of these rural financiers to force the onus of the support of the State upon cities. Every good mortgage is always promptly taken up and the large loaning institutions of the State have millions on hand for investment in desirable securities of this class. We don't want any more money for investment in mortgages; what we do want is a total exemption of mortgages from taxation.

From the brokers' standpoint, the present bill is the most objectionable that could possibly be passed. Every broker knows the difficulty experienced when the national government imposed, what was really a moderate tax, upon mortgages for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the Spanish War. This difficulty would be accentuated one hundred times by this bill.

It has been said that this present bill is one of the least objectionable of any that have ever been proposed. I contend that it is, and will prove to be, if it is passed, the most pernicious. It is hardly necessary to state that no tax should be placed upon mortgages. It is a double tax; this condenses and epitomizes every argument that can be uttered on the subject.

Should the Republican Legislature pass this bill, it will mean, in my estimation, the deathblow to Republican supremacy in the State. Respectfully yours,

JOHN FINCK.

L. J. Phillips & Co. will sell at auction Tuesday, February 4th, No. 269 West 10th st, and No. 129 Charles st. Particulars will be found in our business pages. The auctioneers' address is No. 158 Broadway.

THE PEYTON ESTATE SALE.

The sale announced by the Executors and Trustees of the Estate of Josephine L. Peyton for February 18th, is the most important auction announcement of the year so far, and as the sale is to be absolute should show whether there is a demand for investment properties offered in the auction room. The properties are well located, and, as they are nearly all avenue parcels, they are the very best kind for investment purposes. One, No. 363 5th av, just north of 34th st, is in a neighborhood that has been advancing very rapidly for the past year, and is a particularly desirable speculative parcel. The other avenue parcels are all in live business neighborhoods and investors will do well to examine those in which they are interested. In addition to the Manhattan offerings there are a number of parcels to be sold in choice locations in the Bronx. James L. Wells, who has hitherto been the auctioneer for the Peyton estate, and whose efforts have always proved successful, will be the auctioneer on February 18th, and will, without doubt, make another display of his usual skill and success on such occasions. Book maps, terms of sale, etc., may be had of Sylvester Pope and William L. Condit, executors and trustees, No. 56 Pine st; Abram I. Elkus, attorney for executors, No. 56 Pine st, and James L. Wells, auctioneer, No. 141 Broadway.

The auction took place at a time when a great speculation in vacant lots was in progress, and many of the plots struck down to bidders at the public sale had to be taken back later through foreclosure proceedings. Lucilia Coulson, a relative of the present Lord Byron, is heir to the Lucius Chittenden estate. The buyer of the property sold yesterday is a wealthy investor, whose name the brokers declined to make public. His purchase includes a plot extending from 189th to 192d st and running from Boulevard Lafayette to the United States bulkhead line on the Hudson, exclusive of the railroad property on the bank of the river; a plot, 50x200, on the west side of Broadway at 188th st; eight lots on New av, twenty-seven lots on the east side of Fort Washington av, opposite Fort Tryon; a plot, 50x120, on the west side of Broadway, near Sherman av, and a plot of seventy lots extending from 194th to 197th st, and running from Boulevard Lafayette to the United States bulkhead line, excluding the railroad tracks.

OUT OF TOWN.

Bryan L. Kennelly, through J. J. Adams, has made a bid of $300,000 for the Empire City trotting track. A certified check for $30,000 deposit, with Mr. Kennelly's bid, was placed in the hands of Judge Keogh. This is understood to dispose of the sale to Frank S. Farrell for $218,000. So soon as the last-mentioned sale was made, proceedings were begun to set it aside, because of the inadequacy of the bid, and the Court required the moving parties to prove that a substantially better bid could be obtained, which Mr. Kennelly's offer now does.

A New Real Estate Trust Co.

Announcement is made of the incorporation of The McVickar Real Estate Trust Co., with a capital and surplus of $1,000,000. Gaillard is Vice-President, and E. D. McGreal, Treasurer, while among a number of influential stockholders are the Central Real Estate Bond and Trust Co. and the Century Real Estate Co.

Real Estate Notes.

The revival of reports of the sale of a strip through St. John's College grounds to the Manhattan Railway Co., show that the negotiations which have been on for nearly a year are nearer completion.

The New York steam plant, at 59th st and East River, must go, according to Bridge Commissioner Lindenthal. One of the cantilevers of the Blackwell's Island Bridge will be directly over the site of the plant.

The Broadway Tabernacle site, at the northeast corner of Broadway and 34th st, can be leased on a ground rent for a long term of years. Herbert A. Sherman is the broker, and it is said the ground rent is $80,000 a year.

District Attorney William Travers Jerome has leased for a term of four years the house, No. 8 Rutgers st, where he intends to have his home during his term of office, and where it is also his intention to establish a sort of sub-office of the District Attorney's office.

Charles Hibson, agent and broker, is now in possession of attractive offices in the reconstructed southeast corner of Lexington av and 34th st, which building was modernized according to Mr. Hibson's ideas, and is scoring a great success. The two lower stories are occupied as stores, and the other two by bachelor apartments.

J. S. Parker writes us that the National Realty Co. is the buyer of the northeast corner of Broadway and 12th st, reported sold in our last issue to Jennie S. Parker. A number of the leases on the buildings have, however, been assigned to Jennie S. Parker. J. S. Parker also states that the price paid for the plot was $650,000.

James E. Callan, of No. 807 East 177th st, negotiated the sales of a 2-sty frame dwelling on the southwest corner Crotona av and 180th st, for A. A. Wimmer, and a lot 25x100 on the south side of Tremont av, 122 feet east of Prospect av, titles to which recently changed hands.

G. B. Sheppard, secretary West End Association, has made a summary of the revised charter for the use of the members of his Association. It is a painstaking piece of work and will prove very useful to those who require bare facts of interest to property-owners; and, by reason of the careful references to sections, etc., to others also.

David T. Kennedy has completed nine high-class American basement houses, on the south side of 114th st, between Broadway and Amsterdam av. They vary in width from 18.9 to 20 ft., and are from 52 to 59 ft. deep, exclusive of extensions, which are 10x13 ft. and three stories high. These houses are worthy of inspection by intending buyers.

A. W. Miller & Co. is the name of a new firm of experienced and successful workers in realty and insurance circles. The senior partner, A. W. Miller, has for 30 years made the Central West Side the scene of his work, and the junior partner, J. P. Kissling, his son-in-law, is an able co-worker. The firm's newly-fitted and handsomely furnished offices are centrally located at 898 Eighth av, near 53d st.

Stephen F. Hill, of 31 Nassau st, Bank of Commerce Building, makes a specialty of mortgage loans and appraising. He has one million dollars to loan in sums to suit on business property at 4 per cent. interest, with reasonable charges. Mr. Hill would like also to receive applications for loans on private houses, apartment and flat houses. His facilities for quick work are good. Telephone 3502 Cortlandt calls Mr. Hill.

President of Borough Cantor and Building Superintendent Stewart made a trip last Sunday to the Riverside Viaduct, which continues the driveway north of Claremont. 135th st, the north boundary of the viaduct, was found impassable, and Mr. Cantor intends asking to have said street opened and graded to give access from the end of the viaduct to Broadway. At the same time the bill at Albany provided for the extension of 135th st, westerly from Edgecombe av, should be hurried along and passed.

Some sites in this city seem destined always to be occupied by leaders of fashion or business. For instance, Nos. 18 to 22 West 20th and 23 West 19th st, the former Bradley Martin residence, is now covered by an 11-sty fireproof store and loft building of the best construction and plan, which is now ready for occupancy, and is sure to be quickly filled by tenants of the best class. John Davis, of No. 7 Pine st, has charge of the property.

As an indication of the difference in public feeling between New York and Chicago about the erection of "sky-scrapers," it is interesting to note that the city council of the latter city have blocked temporarily the construction of eight of those buildings. The principal opposition to their erection came from property-owners in outlying districts, who have opposed it on the ground that it tended to congest trade in one district instead of distributing it throughout the city.

Sales of realty and kindred shares were made at auction this week as follows: 50 shares George A. Fuller Construction, preferred, $100 each, 101; 10 shares Central Realty Bond and Trust, $100 each, 566; 10 shares, New York Realty, $100 each, 156; 80 shares Century Realty, $100 each, 100; 10 shares Central Realty Bond and Trust, $100 each, 566; 10 shares Title Guarantee and Trust, $100 each, 596. Following the auction about 300 shares of New York Realty were sold "on the curb," advancing the price to 155, or 15 points from last previous quotation. The next day, however, the attempt to market some stock caused a big break. The first sale was made at 148 and the price fell to 143½ after an early rally to 150.

The city of Paris has financed its new underground road in a manner that will make its operations more profitable to the municipality than the subway can be to New York for many years to come. It is already receiving ten per cent on the money which it spent in building the tunnel. As an indication of the world-wide tendency toward the municipal ownership of such undertakings, it is worthy of note that Vienna has just issued a loan of 285,000,000 crowns, part of which is to be used for the purchase of the street cars, used in that city.

The Title Insurance Company of New York.

On Tuesday of last week Mr. Edgar J. Levey was elected president, and John D. Crimmins and Charles T. Barney, vice-presidents, of the Title Insurance Company of New York. Other officers elected include Cyril H. Burdett, secretary, and Henry R. Steele, treasurer. Ex-Judge Abraham R. Lawrence is counsel of the company, and the Executive Committee includes Wm. F. Havemeyer, Charles T. Barney, John D. Crimmins, James A. Deering, William E. Harmon, Charles W. Morse and George Zabriskie, all leaders in the realty and financial world. The Board of Directors, in addition to the foregoing, includes such influential men as Ashbel P. Fitch, Wm. H. Gelshenen, Theodore F. Jackson, Edward N. Burghard, Theodore F. Miller, Francis K. Pendleton, Edward C. Schaefer, Henry W. Taft, Casimir Tag and John I. Waterbury.

The company's offices are conveniently located at 149 Broadway, corner of Liberty st, Singer Building, and they are ready to examine and insure titles to real estate on sales and loans with the utmost celerity and accuracy, for fixed and moderate charges. They also loan money on bond and mortgage at reasonable rates. Their capital and surplus is $1,500,000. Mr. Edgar J. Levey, president of the company, is well known as the former very efficient and capable Deputy Comptroller, and it is no exaggeration to say that the city is a looser by his retirement from the position he so ably filled for some ten years. He is an indefatigible and able worker. The secretary, Mr. Cyril H. Burdett, is a careful and painstaking official with long experience in title insurance matters, and the treasurer, Mr. Henry R. Steele, has had much experience in real estate and law work.

The decisions of the Supreme Court, Appellate Division, of both Manhattan and Brooklyn, declaring the necessity and feasibility of the Rapid Transit Commission's plans for extending the underground railroad from Manhattan to the City Hall in this borough, remove the little doubt that may have existed of the approach of this relief to our transit facilities. The Commission will now proceed to secure a contractor, and it is expected that this will be done at the beginning of March, and there is little doubt who he will be. Consequently, realty can now accommodate itself physically and economically to the certainty of this most valuable and desired improvement. It is one of the things that ought to be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible, for in it and the Delancey st bridge, as recent events have proven, form the only solution to the ever-growing difficulty of dealing with the traffic of the one overburdened transpontine connection of the two boroughs.

The school needs of the borough is another matter that ought to be pushed vigorously; because, depending as the borough does so largely on immigration for its growth and development, an efficient school system is absolutely necessary to that movement, because new families will not come here, if they fear that they cannot obtain proper education for their children. It appears that this fear has some ground for existence. At a meeting of the Board of Estimate this week there was a hearing in reference to a $2,000,000 bond issue to pay for school sites and buildings in the borough. There were said to be eight times as many children in half-day classes in Brooklyn as in any other borough, and appropriations to the amount of $1,700,000 were declared to be still due the Brooklyn schools. The Mayor offered a resolution requesting the Board of Education to furnish the Board of Estimate before March 1 with a list of schools where there are part-time classes and of those in need of repairs.

The Manufacturers' Association, the Title Guarantee Company, a number of Boards of Trade in this borough, and representatives of several banks will hold a joint meeting for the purpose of discussing the best way to bring about a modification of the present Tenement House Law. The date for holding the meeting has not been decided on, but those interested in the movement say that no time will be lost in getting all of the large financial interests of Brooklyn together. The Greenpoint Board of Trade has already appointed a committee, the Secretary of which is William P. Jones.

The growing of business in the shopping district is evidenced by a movement now on foot to establish a new bank in the neighborhood of Fulton st and Flatbush av, with a capital of $200,000 and a surplus of $50,000. Among the subscribers to the stock are: Otto Wissner, B. Latimer, John F. James, F. W. Woolworth, Max Lang, John Hutchings, George Dredger, Alexander McDonald, George Fisher, James K. Atkinson, George Hoffman, Donald F. Ayres, Samuel Walker and Cyrus W. V. Washburn.

The World of Building

Material Market.

The features of this market this week are the advances in prices of bar-iron with the probability of a rise following consequently in bolts and nuts; the increased disorganization of the glass trade; and the hardening in wires and nails. Copper prices weakened again, but there is said to be good buying on the decline. All forms of manufactured iron continue in great demand, with so little prospect of satisfactory deliveries on new orders that inquiries are going to foreign makers, and it is even said an order for billets delivered in Youngstown was placed in Germany this week, at a meeting held in New York Thursday, manufacturers of sheet copper decided to cut their prices from 18 to 16 cents per pound. This move has been anticipated for several days, and was made to correspond more closely to the current quotations for the raw product.

Lumber.—With the arrival of spring a marked revival of this market is expected. It is also believed that as far as the wholesale market is concerned, the ruling prices of to-day will be the lowest prices of the year. Recent developments in the hardwood, hemlock, cypress and yellow pine trades give assurance that such will be the case. Hardwood stocks are very light at the sources of supply quartered oak particularly. Yellow pine is very firm and advancing; the demand is heavy. In North Carolina pine there is a strong market, with prices firm. Spruce lumber is quiet, but very firm. Hemlock is scarce and demand is good. The following brief table shows the hemlock product of Michigan and Wisconsin from 1897 to 1901, inclusive:

Year	Total feet.	Year.	Total feet
1901	1,264,943,000	1898	$848,740,000
1900	1,166,288,000	1897	462,220,000
1899	866,410,000

It will be seen that within four years the grand total has jumped from 462,000,000 to 1,265,000,000 feet. That is to say, it has nearly been multiplied by three.

Lath.—The moderate offerings of Eastern spruce lath have found buyers at $3.25, and at the close the market was reported bare of stocks.

Brick, Lime and Cement.—Only a limited amount of business has been transacted in the market for common Hudson River brick. Sellers have fairly full supplies on hand, but they have not been forcing sales and prices have not changed from $5.75@ $6.50. Lime has held steady, demand, however, has been limited. Demand for cement has been on a moderate scale only, but prices have been without change.

Hardware.—The general market has continued to show a good undertone, and the volume of business transacted reached fairly full proportions, there being a steady run of new orders, and in most instances prices have been well-maintained. Here and there, however, the influence of outside competition is being felt, and in such cases some irregularity in prices has developed. The stiffening in the nail and wire market is having an excellent effect on the trade in general.

Nails.—This market is represented by the following quotations: Small lots from store, $2.25 to $2.30; carloads on dock, $2.25. Another meeting of the wire nail and wire manufacturers will be held on February 1, in Chicago. It would not be surprising if, at this meeting, another advance of $1 or $2 a ton should be made. It is claimed the scarcity of steel and the high prices charged for it justify higher prices on both nails and wire. For the season the demand for cut nails is considered satisfactory. General quotations are as follows: Carload lots on dock, $2.18; less than carload lots on dock, $2.23; from store, $2.25.

Plumbers' Supplies.—Copper prices have declined a shade further. While last week the nominal quotation was 11⅛c., the price quoted late this week was 11c. flat. Electrolytic is quoted 10⅞c. and casting 10¾c. While in some quarters it is said that these prices are being shaded slightly, it is also held that a fair business in prompt delivery is being transacted at these figures. The market is open, however, and the large producers are following up inquiries very closely. There really are no established market figures. There was a further advance in prices on spot pig tin yesterday, notwithstanding the recent large arrivals and lack of important business. The consuming demand is light at present and speculative interest is wholly lacking. The closing quotations in this market were 24c. bid and 24.50c. asked for spot and January. Pig lead is very dull and uninteresting. Prices are unchanged, the American Smelting and Refining Co. selling on a basis of 4c. for desilverized. Spelter is dull and prices have declined, quotation being 4.27½c. It is generally conceded that the latest attempt to consolidate the important spelter producers has proved a failure. Tin plate is entirely unchanged. The American Tin Plate Co. are quoting for delivery until July 1, on a basis of $4.19 per box of standard 100-lb. cakes. Many plants begun last year are nearing completion, and these will increase the company's capacity. Experiments, looking to a reduction of the cost of production are being made. The demand for sheet zinc is of normal proportions. Jobbers quote 600-lb. cask lots at 6¾c. and smaller quantities at 7¼c. per lb. The tone of the black and galvanized sheet market is strong. It is not thought likely that prices will be any higher than they are at present, as so many independent mills have come into the market recently. These new concerns are actively seeking business, and the competition created will naturally serve to discourage any marking up of prices. Jobbers' prices are firm and unchanged, No. 27 common steel sheets in small lots being quoted at about 4c. to 4.05c., and galvanized sheets at 65 per cent to 67½ per cent off the list.

Linseed Oil.—Since the business for forward delivery reported at the end of last week the market has been very quiet. The outside crushers as a rule do not seem at all anxious to sell futures, and if they quote these at all they name figures that are practically prohibitive. Spot oil appears to be rather scarce, but as there is comparatively little demand at present there is enough to go around, and while the tone of the market is firm prices remain as heretofore quoted.

Paints and Colors.—There is reported to be a fairly active demand for dry lead, but the market is still unsettled by competition. For the older brands 4½c. less the usual discounts is quoted, but newer brands are selling at ¼c. less. Lead in oil is also selling exceptionally well for this time of the year, but also at irregular prices, resulting from competition. For the season business in dry colors is very good, though it is principally for future deliveries. The market has a steady tone and prices are unchanged.

Glass.—The market has remained in a demoralized condition during the week. If, as many dealers believe, an understanding is reached betwen the jobbers and manufacturers at a meeting being held at the Waldorf-Astoria this week, the trade will in all probability be in a better condition in a very short time. The Washington Window Glass Factory, at Ithaca, N. Y., closed permanently last week; unprofitable business is given as cause.

Glass.—A meeting of the National Window Glass Jobbers' Association was held Thursday afternoon at the Waldorf-Astoria, for the purpose of putting the window glass business on a firmer basis, and offsetting the demoralization of the market which has been the result of competition between manufacturers. At this meeting the jobbers agreed to withdraw all prices which had been quoted to institute new prices, being advances on those current at the present time, and to increase these prices as rapidly as can be done until the price of glass conforms nearer to its cost of manufacture. It is said that the advance in the wages of the employes of the American Window Glass Co. was a clever piece of strategy on the part of the combine, and has brought confusion to the ranks of the independents.

The Herdje Decision.

J. Charles Weschler, of Weschler & Burstein, counsel for George Herdje in his case against the Building Department, decision in which by the Appellate Division, in Brooklyn, was given in the editorial columns of the Record and Guide last week, was asked how that decision could be taken to sustain the provisions of the Tenement House Act applying to tenements existing at the time of the passage of the act, when those provisions were not directly called up in the case. Mr. Weschler said:

The decision of the case of City of New York against Herdje passes upon the question whether the "tenement house act" was or was not a reasonable exercise of the policy power of the State. And, although the question as to the effect of the law upon "tenement houses existing at the time of the passage of the act was not directly at issue, yet the section of the Kelsey amendment under consideration was attacked upon the ground that these provisions were unreasonable; and that, since they interfered with vested rights and impaired the obligations of contracts, these provisions were unconstitutional.

The court decides that conceding that the obligation of a contract was destroyed, yet nevertheless the act was constitutional and valid, inasmuch as it was an exercise of the police power, and that the Legislature had properly passed the act, since "tenement houses as a known and distinct class are recognized and defined by law, that they are apt to be ill-ventilated, unclean and packed full of inmates, and to become centres or radiating points of contagious diseases, and that as such they might be the proper subject of sanitary regulation in the interests of public health."

The court further says that the sanction for these apparent trespasses upon private rights is found in the principle that every man's liberty and property is to some extent subject to the general welfare. And in conclusion on this point Judge Jenks says: "I think that such legislation was in the exercise of the police power, in the interest of the public health, morals and safety, as involved in the use of property for which the owners exact compensation, and that, therefore, neither the fact that the defendant had received the permit, not that he had made a contract for the construction of the building relieved him from this exercise of an act of sovereignty."

It is uncertain to what extent the court would go in upholding the law as regards the "existing tenement house provisions," because that would involve an expenditure, not in building, but in changing the construction. The only other case upon this point decided under the new law was the Signell case, where Judge O'Gorman held that the cost of bringing buildings to conform with the new law was of such an amount that the court would hold the provisions invalid.

Among these are docks for New York city, the retaining walls and subway of the Speedway and prominent buildings in which Sandcement forms the foundations carrying their immense loads.

THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

The first business meeting of the new Board of Examiners took place in the office of Superintendent Stewart, kindly loaned for the purpose. The board decided to meet each Tuesday as formerly for the consideration of appeals. The Chairman was authorized to secure offices for the board, and news having been received of the death of Edwin Dobbs, of the Mechanics' and Traders' Exchange, the following were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, that we learn with profound sorrow of the death of our late associate, Mr. Edwin Dobbs, who has for so many years served the city with conscientious regard for a duty he was so well qualified by education and experience to discharge. We shall miss his kindly face and companionship in our deliberations, not less than his wise counsel and helpful co-operation.

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, and that a copy be transmitted to his family.

Mr. Dobbs was a member of the board continuously since its organization in 1871. It is understood that Wm. C. Smith, builder, of No. 34 Watts st, son of Haviland Smith, once president of the Mechanics' and Traders' Exchange, will be Mr. Dobbs' successor on the Board of Examiners.

A CHANGE IN AN OLD CONCERN.

We are in receipt of the following communication which speaks for itself:

"Having succeeded to the business known to the trade as the House Trim Department of Bradley & Currier Co., heretofore conducted at 119 and 121 West 23d street, New York, we have taken over the entire manufacturing plant thoroughly equipped with all modern appliances for the production of fine cabinet work for house interiors, also their stock in trade and good will of the business.

"This business was established in 1867 by Edwin A. Bradley and George C. Currier, and has been continuously under their management until the present time. They now retire after a most successful business career covering a period of thirty-five years.

"The future management will be in the hands of men who have been actively associated with them for many years in conducting the business."

SUPERVISION OF FIRE-ESCAPES.

Geo. L. Rives, the Corporation Counsel, has rendered an opinion to Superintendent of Buildings Calder, in reference to the powers of the Superintendent regarding fire-escapes. Mr. Calder asked Mr. Rives what the right of the Bureau of Buildings was "to construe the location and character of fire-escapes on tenement-houses now existing, less than four stories in height, and containing not more than four families." Mr. Rives, in his opinion, says: "The Bureau of Buildings have no power, nor is it their duty to construe the location and character of fire-escapes on tenement houses now existing, and the Superintendent of Buildings is not charged with the enforcement of the provisions of the section (31) of the Tenement-House Act." This means, it may be presumed, that the duty in question lies with the Tenement-House Department.

APARTMENT HOUSE "CENTRALS."

By Ernest Flagg, Architect.

In these days of the almost universal use of the telephone it is remarkable that in the preparations of designs for great hotels, apartment houses, and business structures, practically no attention appears to be paid to the provision of suitable locations for the central telephone exchange and for the telephone booths for the use of the general public. It would be easy to mention scores of the finest buildings in New York, and in other great cities in which the telephones are stowed away in obscure corners, frequently inaccessible, dark, and ill-ventilated, to the great inconvenience of those who have occasion frequently to use them.

Apparently in the designing of the structures no thought has been given to the important detail of providing telephone accommodations, and on their completion almost any unoccupied corner has been regarded as good enough for the purpose. Even in some of the office and apartment buildings most recently erected, in which every suite of rooms is equipped with a telephone, no adequate accommodations are provided for the public telephone office. Such offices should be provided for in the plans, and care should be taken so to locate them that they shall be easy of access, well lighted and ventilated, and shall present no difficulties in making the necessary wire connections. Attention to these details of construction will generally result in a considerable ultimate saving of expense and trouble, and will add materially to the convenience of tenants and others.

BUILDING STATISTICS FOR 1901.

In point of history during the first year of the twentieth century the building industry contributed its quota. In nearly every instance, in the cities enumerated in the table below, the year 1901 was a record-breaker in the way of building operations. From every part of the United States comes word that architects and contractors are exceedingly busy and that the opening days of 1902 presage a year of unprecedented activity. Analyzing the appended table of statistics, specially compiled for Construction News, the following facts are displayed: During 1901 the sum of $241,379,764 was expended for 48,725 new structures in thirteen cities, as against $138,885,820 in 1900 for 37,064 structures—an increase of 11,661 permits and of $102,493,440 in their cost, or a general increase of 74 per cent. The most notable increase was that of St. Paul. The figures in that city show that its percentage of gain was 259. The lowest percentage of increase was experienced by Allegheny—15. New York readily leads the column, with a total of $116,800,595 for 1901, as against $64,949,723 in 1900. Chicago is second, as usual, and Philadelphia gains third position. The figures in detail follow:

UNPROFITABLE REAL ESTATE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A party died, leaving by will a house and lot to a friend for her lifetime, then to go to her friend's son. Neither mother or son want the property. The taxes are so high there is no way to get enough out of it to pay them, and even to make necessary repairs thereon. How can a clear title be given for the property by mother and son?

Answer.—Mother and son can join in a deed to any one desiring to purchase. If there are any incumbrances on the property the amount can be deducted from the purchase money.—Law Editor.

BROKERS' COMMISSIONS.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

I have a matter on which lawyers don't seem to agree and would like you to answer the following question: A client of mine leases a piece of property in the City of New York for a term of ten years, with the privilege to buy the said property at any time within the first five years; the five years have not elapsed yet and my client buys the property at the price mentioned in the lease. Am I entitled to commission on the sale of the property? I was paid my regular commission on the ten years' lease.

Answer.—Whether you are entitled to a commission on the sale of the property depends upon the terms of your employment. If you were simply employed to find a tenant for the property and had nothing to do with the negotiations as to its sale, and it was not through your efforts that the tenant exercised his option to buy, I do not think you are entitled to a commission on the sale.—Law Editor.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Will you kindly settle the following question in dispute between the broker and seller? It is as follows: "A sold a house for B, on which at the time of signing contract for such sale there was a deposit of $200 paid. At the time set for closing title the purchaser requested a postponement, which was granted, in fact, several adjournments have been given. At the expiration of the last the purchaser decided to forfeit said deposit, as he could not fulfill the obligations of said contract. B claims that A is not entitled to a commission on the ground that the title was never passed, and consequently no sale was effected. A claims that he is. That when he made out contracts and had them signed and deposit accepted, that his work was done, and that the sale was made as far as he was concerned. Which is right?"

Answer.—A is entitled to his commission. The broker's commission is earned when he produces a customer able, ready and willing to make the purchase. He is not to blame if the purchaser does not complete. B may sue the purchaser for his failure to complete, but he cannot waive the payment of the commission. —Law Editor.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

If A, who is an authorized real estate broker, receives a piece of property from B, who is the owner, to dispose of for a certain figure. A gives the property to C, who is another broker, and who claimed he had a customer for it. C takes his customer and shows him the property and then reports back to A with the name of the intended purchaser and the address. A in the meantime had introduced C to B and told him (B) that he had a customer for his property and gave him (B) the name and address of the customer. B takes the name and the address and goes and sees the intended purchaser and makes contract. B refuses to pay the commission on the grounds that A never spoke to the customer personally, but found him out through C. Kindly leave me know if A or C has the right to commence action for the recovery of said commission.

Answer: A has a right to recover the commission. He was employed by B and through his efforts the purchaser was found and the sale effected.—Law Editor.

MECHANICS' LIEN.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE

We took a contract to furnish the window frames for three (3) houses for the sum of $150. After furnishing twelve cellar frames, and while the remainder were in course of construction, a party who was furnishing lumber put a lien on. We followed suit the next day, which left the party who was doing the mason work, cellar walls, etc., with about six hundred dollars invested and no show for his money, as the builder had misrepresented, and instead of owning the property free and clear, as he said, he had only paid one dollar, and was buying it (the lots) on contract. The mason finally purchased the lots for $900 cash, and they stand in his name. He then paid the lumber people enough to make them good, they removing what lumber was unused and satisfying their lien. He then came to us and said he would make a contract with us to take the frames we had made for the first party if we would reduce our bid to $140 and take off the lien. This we did, and our contract with him reads as follows:

"August 10, 1901.

"I hereby agree to pay you the net sum of one hundred forty dollars ($140.00) for the balance of window frame for three houses on ————, 125 ft. north of ————; I to pay for same out of first payment from loan on same property, to be placed by me as soon as possible. All frames are to be as per plans drawn by ————, architect."

(Signed), ———— ————.

What we want to know is whether we can lien this job, as he has not commenced to build, and has not yet obtained a loan. He gave us to understand verbally that he would commence at once, which would have been last August. If you could advise us whether a lien would be holding under this contract or whether he could wait indefinitely before building and then avoid paying our claim we would feel under obligation.

Answer.—If you delivered the frames to the present owner on Aug. 10th, you cannot now file a lien, as more than 90 days have elapsed. A lien must be filed within 90 days from the final furnishing of any materials. If you have not furnished to him any of the goods he contracted for, you cannot have a lien, as the furnishing has not been commenced. If you have furnished some of them you can file a valid lien.—Law Editor.

Legal Decisions.

Real estate agent—he is concluded by charges in accounts rendered—he cannot thereafter recover a further sum—he must account for the difference between the amounts charged and paid for insurance and for janitor's services. A real estate agent, appointed to take charge of apartment houses, without any special agreement as to compensation, who renders to his principal monthly statements, in which he credits himself with a 5 per cent. commission upon the gross amount collected as compensation for his services, is not entitled to recover, upon quantum meruit, a further sum upon the ground that the 5 per cent only represented his charge for renting the property and collecting the rents and did not include services rendered by him in connection with the making of repairs, placing of insurance, hiring janitors and other employees or for purchasing supplies. Semble, that the real estate agent must account to his principal for any profit he may have made in insuring the apartment houses and in employing janitors therefor. (Carruthers v. Diefendorf, 66 App. Div., 31.)

Legal holiday—construction of agreement. A party who agrees that, in case he exercises his right to return certain securities and receive back their purchase price, he will do so on the first day of January of a year named, is not excused from making the tender and demand on that day because of its being a legal holiday. The legislature has not attempted to interfere with the transaction of business on a holiday other than Sunday. Except to the limited extent specified in the statutes, viz., by allowing payment of negotiable instruments maturing on a holiday to be made on the day following and with respect to the transaction of business in public offices of the State and counties. Failure in such a case, to make tender and demand on the day named terminates the agreement, and its provisions can thereafter be enforced only by a meeting of the minds of the parties with respect to reviving the agreement, or by making a new one. A waiver of the time of performance cannot be predicated upon a subsequent tender and demand, which the other party asks time to consider, and on the following day declines. (Page v. Shainwald, Court of Appeals, Dec. 31, 1901, New York Law Journal, Jan. 9, 1902.)

Husband and wife—authority presumed in the former to continue a tenancy which began under a lease negotiated and signed by him in her name, she receiving the rent paid by the tenant to him. Where all the negotiations, terminating in a lease of certain premises for a year at the rate of $15 per month, payable monthly in advance, were made by the lessee with the lessor's husband, who, by the lessor's authority, signed the lease in her name, and the rent is paid monthly to the lessor's husband, and is by him paid over to the lessor, the lessee, in the absence of any notice that the husband's authority has been revoked, is entitled to presume that the agency continues, and an arrangement made between the lessee and the lessor's husband, by which it is agreed that after the expiration of the lease the tenancy shall be changed into one from month to month, is binding upon the lessor, notwithstanding the fact that the latter testifies that she never directed her husband to make the new agreement and did not know of its execution. Johnson v. Ehrman Brewing Co., 66 App. Div., 103.)

Assumption of a mortgage by a grantee—its payment and discharge of record by the grantor does not entitle him to sue the grantee. Where the grantee in a deed assumes and agrees to pay a mortgage subject to which the conveyance is made, the land is the primary fund for the payment of the mortgage debt, and as between the grantor and the grantee the liability of the latter is that of indemnitor or surety only. If, therefore, the grantor pays the mortgage debt and procures the mortgage to be discharged of record without first requiring the mortgagee to resort to the land, he cannot maintain an action against the grantee to recover the amount so expended by him. (Keller v. Lee, 66 App. Div., 184.)

Trade fixtures—when the tenant's right thereto must be exercised. The right of a tenant to remove trade fixtures, placed by him upon the demised premises, must be exercised before the expiration of the term or before he gives up possession. (Van Vleck v. White, 66 App. Div., 14.)

Vendor and purchaser—marketable title—party wall on adjoining lot. A purchaser is not justified in refusing to carry out his contract for the purchase of a lot described by metes and bounds, together with the house thereon, because the party wall on one side is, for a portion of its length, wholly on the adjoining lot, where it appears that the contract was made after his personal inspection of the premises, and the condition of affairs, if not known to him, was his own fault; that the party wall was not maintained under a perpetual covenant running with the land, but was to last only so long as the building and the wall should endure, and that owing to the fact that both lots were formerly owned by the same person who had erected houses thereon and had created thereby a servitude imposed upon the adjoining lot, the purchaser had a clear and indisputable right to rest the beams of his house in the wall during its existence. (Schaefer v. Blumenthal, 169 N. Y. Rep., 221.)

Contract vendee—mantel, gas grate and fixtures placed on the property by him and not paid for—they cannot be removed after the contract vendor regains possession. A vendee in possession under a contract for the sale of a house, without the knowledge or consent of the vendor, entered into a contract with a firm, by which the latter sold, and agreed to place, in position in the house, a mantel, gas grate and the necessary fixtures, under a contract which provided that the title to such personal property should remain in the firm until fully paid for. The room was prepared for the reception of the mantel, gas grate and fixtures by removing a section of the baseboard the width of the mantel, by removing a section of the floor the size of the hearth, and by removing a register used for heating the room, which occupied the place where the mantel was to stand. The mantel was fastened to the wall with four screws, and a bed of cement was made three inches below the level of the floor, into which the hearth was set; the gas grate was screwed to the gas pipe which had connected with the register which had been removed, and after the work was completed the room was repapered. Held, that as between the vendors of the chattels and the vendor of the house, the chattels became a part of the realty and that the vendor of the house, upon regaining possession thereof after the vendee had defaulted, was not obliged to pay for the chattels or to submit to their removal. (Andrews v. Powers, 66 App. Div., 216.)

CONVEYANCES.

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

5th.—The figures in each conveyance, thus, 2:482, denote that the property is in section 2 block 482.

6th.—It should also be noted in section and block numbers, the instrument as filed is strictly followed.

7th.—The letters R. S. mean Revenue Stamp, as R. S. $8.00 means Revenue Stamp $8.00.

Tax on Conveyances executed prior to July 1st, 1901, on $100 to $500, 50c., and for each additional $500 or fraction thereof, 50c.; on Conveyances executed on and after July 1st, 1901, 25c., where consideration exceeds $2,500 and is not more than $3,000, and 25c. for each additional $500 or fraction thereof.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

The first date is the date the mortgage is drawn, the second the date of filing; when both dates are the same, only one is given.

Subscribers will find mortgages in this list with the wrong block number attached. The block number we give is taken from the instrument as filed.

Mortgages against Bronx property will be found altogether at the foot of this list.

January 17, 18, 20, 21, 22 and 23.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

The Attention of Architects, Builders, Owners and Managers of Hotels and Apartment Houses is called to the New York Telephone Company's

Private Branch Exchange System.

By means of a Private Branch Exchange city and long distance telephone service, as well as an interior service, are available to every apartment, at very moderate cost. Most people depend so much now-a-days on the telephone service that a Private Branch Exchange, connecting with the New York Telephone System, is practically a necessity in the Modern Apartment House or Hotel.

Vol. LXIX. FEBRUARY 1, 1902. No. 1768

The Index to Volume LXVIII of the Record and Guide, covering the period between July 1 and December 31, 1901, is now ready for delivery. Price, $1. This Index in its enlarged form is now recognized as indispensable to every one engaged or interested in real estate and building operations. It covers all transactions—deeds, mortgages, leases, auction sales, building plans filed, etc. Orders for the Index should be sent at once to the office of publication, 14 and 16 Vesey St.

INTEREST in the stock market is kept alive by the continued announcement of new deals; but it is still a professional interest. This is shown by the fact that the market has on the whole this week been weakest on the days when transactions were largest and by the poor response that is made to direct appeals, such as the United States Steel report may be considered to be, to the confidence of the outsider. The gratifying feature of this report is the encouraging view it gives of the condition of trade generally. We know that if the iron trade has a certain prospect of full employment for a year to come, other lines of industry cannot be depressed, because the activity of the first comes from that of the latter. If any further testimony was needed of the satisfactory nature of general conditions of business throughout the country, it could be found in the returns of railroad earnings, which keep up with marvellous persistence. It might be argued from these things that security values ought to go up, but when we consider that phase of the question we are met by the immense, and even mad, discounting of the future that took place last year, and the fact that the securities of the new organizations are still on trial and have yet to prove, if they ever can, that the liberal addition of water they contain was justified by their dividend-earning ability on a continuous stretch of years.

ABROAD money is everywhere easy, and the cheerfulness noted in previous weeks continues. Still it should be borne in mind that too confident views of the industrial situation are discouraged by the best opinion in banking circles, which confirm our view that what we are seeing is simply a reaction pointing a period in the general decline. Capital, without which commercial and industrial movements cannot be sustained, is leaving them to participate in the low-rate government loans. Regarding this matter, the Chairman of the Union Bank of London, an accepted authority, when addressing his shareholders recently, said: "It must not be forgotten how largely foreign capital has been attracted by various government issues—a fact which must have an important bearing on the future of our money market, and which goes some way to explain the comparatively easy conditions lately prevailing. Other causes have contributed to this comparative ease. There is no doubt that a reaction has occurred, and is still proceeding, not only in this country, but practically over the whole of Europe, from the great commercial and industrial activity which had prevailed during the closing years of the last century; there has been a smaller home demand for money owing to lessened trade and a check to speculative enterprise; monetary and commercial affairs have been unsettled in Germany, in Russia, and to some extent in France; industries which had suddenly sprung up and developed rapidly suffered severely, and confidence was to some extent shaken, with the usual result that capital, to which active trade had given profitable employment, returned to the monetary centres."

IT is not often that we can endorse an application to the Legislature for the amendment of the Mechanics' Lien Law, because the requests contained in such applications are generally so wild and one-sided. There is an application, however, now before the Legislature that we can approve and recommend for adoption. This is contained in Assembly Bill No. 85, introduced by Mr. Wilson, and its object is to provide for the identification and location on the property of goods supplied to buildings under what are known as contracts for conditional sale; that is, contracts providing that title to the goods shall not pass to the vendee until the stipulated payments have been made. At present it is not always possible for the purchaser of a building or the loaner of money secured by a mortgage on a building to ascertain whether any of the furnishings and fittings have been supplied under conditional sale contracts, even when he knows the name of the builder, and never when he does not. As a consequence, it has occurred that buyers and loaners of money have, after purchase was made or the loan effected, found themselves obliged to pay for goods they had previously thought went with the property. To overcome this evil, Assembly Bill No 85 proposes that the conditional sale contracts shall identify the building for which the goods conditionally sold shall be supplied, and that the contracts shall further be indexed under that property so that in the event of a search their existence may be disclosed. This is a fair and simple requirement to which no one ought to object. The seller of the goods will still have his conditional sale contract, and in a proper case can take away his goods if he is not paid for them; but, at the same time, the intending purchaser of property or loaner of money will have protection, because he will be able by a search to find out what fixtures and fittings pass with the title and what do not.

A Matter of Looks.

THE better public opinion of New York will demand from the new administration the establishment of a new policy in relation to all questions of public aesthetic decorum, and there is every reason to believe that the administration will respond to the demand. The consolidation of the various Boroughs into the Greater New York has greatly stimulated the municipal pride of the whole city, and has aroused attention to the fact that the arrangement and the furniture of New York streets do not properly symbolize the metropolitan importance of the city or the prevailing standards of aesthetic propriety. New Yorkers would like to take pride, not merely in the commercial and financial leadership of their city in American economic life, but also in the generosity and the beauty of its public works. This wish, which will doubtless increase with years, can unfortunately be gratified only to a limited extent and in particular ways, for the street plan of central Manhattan is inconvenient, ugly and almost entirely lacking in handsome, well-proportioned and well-arranged avenues and squares. Moreover, the ugliness and inconvenience of this plan are irremediable, because of the prohibitory expense of radical changes. It is probable, indeed, that eventually some alterations of plan will become necessary, owing to the congestion of traffic, both in Greeley and Longacre squares; but it is not customary in New York to anticipate the need of such improvements. They will wait until the condition of things becomes intolerable. These local changes, however, cannot do anything to ameliorate the impression, which New York makes, and will continue to make as a city, in which energy predominates over form—a city whose appearance suggests power, wealth, and a kind of careless efficiency, but only a niggardly public spirit.

But while New York can never obtain either a grandeur or comeliness of appearance commensurate with its economic importance and the better aesthetic standards of its citizens, an enormous deal can be undertaken in small ways, and a certain amount in large ways to improve the appearance of the city. So far as Manhattan is concerned, the best that can be done is to improve the street furniture. In this important business the new administration is already showing an excellent spirit. President Cantor is conferring with representatives of the Municipal Art Society as to the designs of lamp posts, and it may be hoped that within the coming year the city will be provided with convenient and well-designed electric light and gas posts and lights. This, however, is only one thing among many. All the street signs, over which the municipality has any control, should be made to conform to certain standards. Small changes could be made in the arrangement, and the plan of some of the squares, for the purpose both of improving their good looks and convenience; public buildings of all kinds should be generously planned, and their design placed in the hands of good architects; and an effort should be made to increase the amount and enhance the quality of our public sculpture. Work cannot be pushed along all these lines at once; but the great thing is to get the municipal government committed to a policy of spending public money for the purpose of furthering better standards of aesthetic decency and propriety. Application is to be made to the Board of Estimate to appropriate annually the $50,000 which a recent law permits it to spend for such purposes; and the application should, and probably will be granted. It is only a small beginning, but the appetite for the appropriate embellishment of the squares and streets will grow with its satisfaction.

There is no reason, however, why the good work need stop at this point. We can understand that the present administration, coming as it did into office under pledges to cure certain definite abuses, should not desire, in the beginning to venture into any large expenditures not sanctioned by the practices of the past; but it could stimulate the creation of the better New York of the future merely by placing before the public an adequate plan, which could be carried out as public opinion and the public purse warranted. The suggestion has recently been made, apropos of the comprehensive street and park plan, recently designed for Washington, that a similar plan should be designed for New York. The suggestion is well worth the consideration of the present administration. Of recent years desirable improvements have been made in a much more generous spirit than formerly, but they are made without any reference to a general scheme, which would embrace both Manhattan and the Bronx. Some such scheme should be laid down in the beginning; and it should be laid down for the benefit of the whole city, and with an eye to good looks as well as convenience. The difficulty in the past has always been that such improvements tended to burden property-owners with assessments, which made unpleasant inroads into the value of their property; and it would be only fair, in case a plan was adopted which provided for a larger proportion of space devoted to squares and parks than was strictly necessary, that a bigger share of the cost than at present should be paid out of the city Treasury. Unless such an entirely just re-distribution of expense were provided for, no comprehensive and generous scheme of street and park improvements in the northern part of the city would have any chance of adoption. The matter should receive earnest and early attention, else it will be too late.

The Real Estate Situation

The sales reported during the past week have been numerous and well distributed throughout the whole city. The real estate market, while not losing any of the strength along certain lines which has been characteristic of it during the past year, is undoubtedly broadening. There are signs of a recrudescence of activity both in the East Side tenement house district and on the West Side. The builders and building loan operators who have been loaded up with unsold apartment houses are slowly getting rid of them, and every week plans are announced which look toward a considerable renewal of building in the spring. It is improbable that the activity on the West Side will be anything unusual, for conditions thereabouts, while improving, are still unsatisfactory; but there will undoubtedly be a good deal of apartment house and apartment hotel building, particularly in those sections in which fireproof construction will pay. For the matter of that, it may be confidently expected that within a few years fireproof construction will become as general on the West Side, as it now is in the central part of the city further south. The subway and the improvement of the service of the Manhattan Railway will make that neighborhood as central as Fiftieth street now is. Little by little the cheaper residences will be torn down and apartment houses substituted for them. It seems curious to have to chronicle the erection of a row of West Side dwellings as an unusual event, but the plans filed for three dwellings on Seventy-seventh street during the past week are the first in more than nine months. Moreover, since they are to cost $40,000 apiece, they belong to that expensive class of residences which are in excellent demand at present, but which can be erected in only a few streets on the West Side. While there is a fair inquiry for cheaper residences west of the Park, the great demand for that class of building continues to fasten itself to the region east of the Park, particularly in the Sixties. Unless we are very much mistaken, the present practice of reconstructing the old high-stoop brownstone dwellings of that quarter will spread as far east as Lexington avenue, and prices will become commensurately high. Finally, it should be added that there are signs also of a renewal of building on Washington Heights, and it is probable that even during the coming summer the improvement of that section at a more rapid rate than hitherto will begin.

Market Characteristics.

Wherever business has an immediate effect upon real estate, there is no lack of activity. This is true of all those sections of the city in which there is any chance for much expansion. The sale of the southwest corner of Eighteenth street and Fifth avenue during the week makes it probable that large parcels on four Fifth avenue corners, between Fourteenth and Twenty-first streets, will be in the course of improvement at different times in the present year; and this is no wonder, considering the rapid rate at which recent buildings have been rented. The side streets in the same neighborhood will be correspondingly active. It is noticeable that the wholesale houses renting lofts in this section belong to an ever-increasing variety of trades. The neighborhood will soon be undistinguishable from any other wholesale district, save that the buildings will be more uniformly tall and modern, and that there will be a larger infusion of retail trade. But the effect of business on building is not restricted to the vicinity above defined. There are a large number of new factories, lofts and warehouses being planned for the West Side of the city along the line of Hudson street and Eighth avenue, and in time these will have an excellent reaction upon tenement house property in those parts. What is needed is the growth of local business enterprises, and as they grow tenement house values on the West Side should approximate to those on the East Side.

One of the most interesting local movements at present taking place is that on Seventh avenue south of Forty-second street. Every week five or six sales of property in this district are reported. In 1900 only twenty-eight transfers were recorded for real estate on that avenue between Fourteenth and Forty-second streets, while during 1901 the number jumped up to seventy. Thus a thoroughfare which has been dead for years, and which has been overshadowed by Sixth avenue to the east and Eighth avenue to the west, has suddenly been aroused into activity and prominence; and it becomes an important matter to trace both the causes and consequences of the movement. Recently, of course, the proposed terminus of the Pennsylvania Road at Seventh avenue and Thirty-second street has had everything to do with the sales and the advancing prices in that immediate vicinity. Not only have many purchases been made by the Stuyvesant Real Estate Company, but property hard-by has jumped up at a lively rate. A corner opposite the proposed terminus which formerly was held at $100,000, is now considered worth more than the $250,000 which has been offered for it. Naturally, however, these values obtain only along the few blocks immediately affected by the possible terminal traffic. But other parts of the avenue have also been doing well, although not so well as the streets above mentioned; and the interest in this part of the avenue is due to a number of causes, of which the Pennsylvania R. R. is only one. Among these causes the two most important are the recent introduction of electric trolley transit on the avenue and the asphalt pavement laid at the same time. Both of these improvements have tended to increase traffic and to give the avenue the appearance of activity and movement in the place of its former comparative lifelessness. Doubtless in a few years it will be ablaze with electric light and a competitor both with Eighth and Sixth avenues for the business and the amusements of the neighborhood. Indeed, from Forty-second street, south at least to Thirtieth street, it promises to become a very important street indeed, and to compete with Broadway as offering sites for hotels and places of amusement. The Hotel Navarre has been a great popular and financial success, and is certain, in the course of time, to be frequently copied. The traffic from Long Acre Square down to the Pennsylvania terminus will be very heavy, and most of it will be by way of Seventh avenue. South of

The Movement on Seventh Ave.

Thirtieth street it is more likely to take on the characteristics of Eighth avenue than Broadway, but even here there may be a certain amount of expansion from the retail and wholesale section further east. Moreover, should any other tunnel be built into New York by New Jersey railroads, it would probably be obliged to find a terminus somewhere on Seventh avenue further south. These last are remote possibilities, but they are worth considering. Altogether the whole avenue, from Forty-second street south, deserves and will receive close attention.

THE counsel of the Board of Rapid Transit Commissioners are at present engaged in drawing up the contract under which the new Brooklyn tunnel will be constructed and leased, and in performing this task it is to be hoped that they will frame the conditions of the contract in such a way that the city will get a better bargain than it did in the case of the Manhattan tunnel. The Record and Guide has never sympathized with the condemnation which has been visited upon the Commission because of the terms of the existing contract. The Commission had tried to get better terms, and had failed. There was practically no effective competition. Responsible capitalists refused to invest their money in the enterprise unless they received large returns, and finally it was imperative that the tunnel should be constructed without any more delay than was absolutely necessary. The result was that the Subway Construction Company has unquestionably taken over the tunnel at a bargain. It is authoritatively stated that it will make a profit of $8,000,000 on the construction contract alone, and the ultimate profits on the lease will not only be very large, but are so confidently expected to be by the officers and stockholders of the company. These expectations are matters of common knowledge, and they should stimulate a more effective competition for the opportunity of constructing and operating the Brooklyn tunnel. At least two existing corporations will have a considerable interest in controlling this new subway, viz.: the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company and the Subway Construction Company; and this circumstance should enable the Commission to obtain a better bargain. Even in the event of a combination of possible bidders, the Commission should stipulate for better terms. The great trouble with the existing contract is that no matter how large the traffic on the subway becomes the profit to the city cannot, during the next seventy-five years, exceed 1 per cent. per annum on the cost of construction. No other subway should be leased upon terms which did not enable the city to get a fair share of all net receipts over a certain percentage on the private capital invested. It would be better for the city to build and operate the new tunnel itself than to turn it over to a private corporation, which would simply use the city's credit to make large profits for itself.

IN this connection it is interesting to note the terms which the municipality of Paris was able to secure from the company that operates the new subway in that city. The franchise runs for thirty-five years, but at any time within seven years from the date of construction the city may acquire the lines. The company must pay the city two cents for every first-class ticket and one cent for every second-class ticket sold, with the added provision that when the annual passenger traffic exceeds 140,000,000 persons this sum shall be increased, reaching at the highest figure 2.1 cents for each first-class and 1.1 cent for each second-class ticket. As the concession fixes the rate for a first-class ticket at five cents and for a second-class ticket at three cents, it will be seen that more than one-third of the gross receipts will go to the municipality. Thus Paris not only obtained a three-cent fare for second-class passengers, but has secured an arrangement which makes the profits of the city increase at the same ratio as those of the operating company. If New York could have made as good an arrangement in case of the subway now being constructed, it would stand to get very much larger returns than it does at present. The four tracks of the subway, with trains running under promised conditions, should within a couple of years be able to develop a traffic of 125,000,000 paying passengers per annum, which, on the Paris terms, would give the city six instead of only four and a half per cent. on the outlay. Eventually, of course, the traffic would be much larger. We have not been able to obtain the precise income returns of the Paris subway, but notes have appeared in the Paris papers recently stating that the city was under its contract receiving already 10 per cent. upon its outlay. That New York did not secure equally good terms was due to the scale of remuneration which American private capital invested in municipal enterprises has always insisted upon receiving; but, hereafter, if capitalists will not reduce their terms, the city should seriously consider the possibility of going ahead on its own account. If the Rapid Transit Commission does not manage to secure better terms on the Brooklyn tunnel contract than it did on the subway contract, it will partially forfeit the public confidence, which it has earned and now possesses.

THE Builders' League of this city has sent a bill up to Albany to secure for themselves the privilege of appointing a member of the Board of Examiners and to provide that appeals from the decisions of the Superintendent of Buildings may be made when the amount involved is $500 or more. The principle upon which the Board of Examiners is constructed being that of representation of interested organizations, the Builders' League, as a large and live association of men connected with the building trades, ought to be represented on the board, and it hardly seems possible that any opposition can arise to this part of their proposition. As to the proposed qualification of appeals from the decisions of the Superintendent of Buildings to the Board of Examiners, the value of this is not quite clear. At present the law is somewhat ambiguous on this point. It says that appeals may be taken when the amount involved in such decisions exceeds the sum of $1,000. It is not clear if this means the amount involved in the whole work or in that particular on which the decision, from which appeal is desired, is given. The League proposition lessens the qualification, but does not remove the ambiguity. The Board of Examiners, acting on what they know to have been the intention of the framers of the law, which was merely to exclude frivilous appeals or appeals on trifles, has accepted the more generous reading of the law; and it would be better, if any change of phraseology is to be made at all at this time, that it be made in this spirit. The case would be met if the provision were made to read that appeals may be taken from the decision of such superintendent where the total cost of the alteration or new building shall exceed the sum of $1,000.

Improvement of Washington Heights.

PROCEEDINGS TO BE REVIVED AND PUSHED TO COMPLETION.

It will be remembered that the Topographical Bureau prepared an amended map, or layout, of all of Manhattan Island north of 155th st, except that part lying between the Harlem River Ship Canal and Spuyten Duyvil Creek, known as Marble Hill, the laying out of which was suspended until the changes in the location of the N. Y. C. & H. R. R. R. tracks there were determined. That map was made the subject of a hearing before the Board of Public Improvements on Dec. 4th last, when it was laid over. Since then nothing has been heard of the matter. The improvements laid down on the map were given in detail in the issue of the Record and Guide of Nov. 23, 1901. They include the opening of sixty-odd streets, two bridges, and five parks.

Meantime the principal property-owners have not been idle. They are united in what is known as the Fort Washington Ridge Road Association, whose officers are: Bernard Loth, President; Jonas M. Libbey, Vice-President; Wm. H. Fischer, Treasurer; and A. Buchman, of Buchman & Fox, architects, Secretary. These gentlemen, with Hugh N. Camp, are the working committee of the association. They have recently retained Benno Lewinson, whose experience as a condemnation commissioner, and especially his work as chairman in pushing important proceedings to rapid completion, recommended him to their attention, as counsel to represent them in the proceedings which must be begun sooner or later to develop the section in which their property is located. Mr. Lewinson is to secure the initiation of proceedings at as early a date as is possible, and to use his best endeavors to get them completed as soon thereafter as possible. Mr. Lewinson gave to a representative of the Record and Guide an interesting statement of the course it was proposed to pursue, which was substantially as follows:

This matter is now in the hands of what is called the Local Board for High Bridge, which consists of the President of the Borough and all the Aldermen from the Twenty-third and Thirty-first Assembly Districts. I will have a conference with President Cantor at the first opportunity to ask him to call a meeting of that board, when we will ask them to approve the plan prepared by the Topographical Bureau. I think one or another of the property owners will seek to have some modifications made. The clients whom I represent, and who own about 70 per cent. of the land involved, are perfectly willing to make every possible concession in the way of altering the proposed lines that may be within reason, so that the property owners who will have to bear the burden of these improvements will go before the board with an agreed demand for the opening of these streets. The last map prepared by the Topographical Bureau will be the basis of that application. We hope that the new Local Board of High Bridge will agree without much delay upon this scheme.

Not only are the property owners prepared to bear the burden of the expense of these proceedings beyond the amounts they will be awarded, but I believe that a very considerable proportion of the proposed new streets will be ceded. These gentlemen intend not only to cede what they themselves control, but will endeavor to induce others to do the same. One difficulty in this matter is that cession can only be made of a length of one entire block, and the objection of the owner of one 25-foot lot in a block would prevent the cession of that block. I intend, however, where a cession cannot be reached, to expedite proceedings and to save time and considerable expense, to endeavor, under another provision of the charter, to come to an understanding with the city as to the value of the property to be taken by condemnation wherever we can do that legally. I think that a great deal of property will be acquired, partly by cession, which will be without proceedings at all, and partly by such an understanding with the city.

Where we can neither cede nor agree with the city as to values, condemnation proceedings will have to go on; but I see no possible reason why these proceedings should not be terminated, in any case, within six months of their commencement. The charter so provides. Heretofore that provision has been a dead letter, because the courts would, on ex parte applications and without any special reason, grant, almost as a matter of course, repeated and continual extensions. But in the amended charter notice of application for such extensions must be given to every party who has appeared, which means in some of these proceedings a large number of property owners and their lawyers; and the application is required to be based upon affidavits giving sufficient and satisfactory reasons why proceedings have not been terminated within the six months. The charter further provides that unless extensions are granted upon such notice, and for good reason, the commissioners in any particular case shall forfeit all their compensation. I think the average commissioner will be very careful not to risk the loss of his compensation for the labor of six months on the possibility of the refusal of such extension; so that the effect will probably be that the commissioners themselves will assist the Corporation Counsel in forcing these proceedings to speedy results.

Broker's Commission.

WHEN TENANT EXERCISES OPTION FOR RENEWAL OF A LEASE?

In the issue of the Record and Guide for December 14, 1901, page 822, appeared the following question: "Will you kindly give me the authority on which you base your opinion, expressed in the Record and Guide of March 28, 1901, under the heading, "Broker's Commission on Renewal of Lease?" If there are any cases sustaining your opinion, will you kindly let me know where they are reported?"

This query was answered as follows: I find no reported cases in which the question whether in such contingency the broker is entitled to commission has been litigated. My authority is the fact that the broker was employed in the first instance; he effected the contract, containing the option, and when the lessee exercised the option the broker had already effected a lease for ten years. The custom of the trade, as I am informed, is that such commission shall be paid." A similar query appeared in the issue of December 21, page 865.

On the 18th of January, a representative of William J. Roome called upon the Law Editor and said that Mr. Roome, who propounded the first query spoken of, had brought suit in the Municipal Court for the additional commission against a customer whose tenant had exercised his option for a renewal of a lease, and that Mr. Roome's attorneys were unable to find any reported decision exactly in point. The case had been tried before Justice Penfield, but his decision had not been rendered. It has not been rendered at the present writing.

One of the last opinions written by the late lamented Justice McAdam, at the Appellate Term, held in the City of New York in December last, and just published, seems to be in point, and to sustain the Law Editor. The case is Hess v. Martin, reported in 36 Misc., 541. In this case plaintiff claimed that he had a verbal lease of certain premises for one year, with the privilege of a second year if he wanted it. The action was to recover $500 damage for the breach of the agreement to give the plaintiff the lease for the second year. In his opinion, Justice McAdam says: "We have no hesitation in holding that a lease for one year, with the privilege of another year if the tenant wants it, is a hiring for more than one year, and void under the statute unless in writing. Laws of 1896, Chap. 547, Sec. 207. Under such a hiring all that would be required to continue the term for two years would be an election on the part of the tenant to accept the privilege expressed by notice to the landlord, or by a mere continuation of possession by the tenant, after the expiration of the first year, as, if the two years had been a continuous well-defined term in the first instance. Manifestly, such an interest in real estate is for a term exceeding one year, and a writing is essential to the grant. Holzderber v. Forrestal, 13 Daly, 34; Prial v. Entwistle, 10 id. 398. Thus, where the lease gives the lessee option to remain as tenant for another term, as where a lease is for ten years, with a provision that the lessee "may, if he desires to do so, remain for ten years more," the lease is, if the tenant so elects, a good lease for twenty years. Ranlet v. Cook, 44 N. H. 512; Chretien v. Doney, 1 N. Y. 419; Bogan v. Wright, 22 Misc. Rep. 95, and kindred cases."

In the Legislature.

THE AMENDED MORTGAGE TAX BILL—A RUMORED REVIVAL OF THE WEST STREET GRAB BILL—INCREASED SALARIES AND PENSIONS—EXTENSION OF THE DOCK IMPROVEMENT.

The Stranahan mortgage tax bill was reported to the Senate amended on the lines suggested by the Mortgage Exemption Committee, that is, to allow mortgages executed prior to March 1st to pay the tax of ½ of 1%, and thereby become exempt from personal property tax; to make rebate of the tax paid on temporary short-term mortgages on the filing of and payment of the tax on the permanent mortgage; to allow the owners of bonds issued under corporate mortgages to pay a pro rata tax on their bonds to secure their exemption from personal property tax. As was pointed out in these columns before, these amendments do not meet all the objections to the bill, and its sponsors are by no means rid of all anxiety on its account. The Krum bill to tax corporations was reported, amended in so many features as to be unrecognizable by those who had not followed its course through the Committee.

The administration tax bills have so occupied attention that the promoters of other important measures have held them back, but it is probable now that non-administrative matters of general importance will have the floor. It is even whispered that a new attempt is about to be made to give the promoters of the New York and New Jersey bridge scheme the franchise they desire for building an elevated belt railroad around New York City. Some say that this year the bill will be a success, because it will provide for substantial payment to the city for the franchise, but it seems hardly possible that the Legislature can in any way be induced to grant this valuable franchise to the Bridge Company, especially since their bridge scheme has been blown into the region of impossibilities by the determination of the Pennsylvania R. R. Co. to enter Manhattan by tunnels, and the almost certainty that any other railroad interest that may hereafter enter it will do so by the same agency. What is said to be the Pennsylvania R. R. bill to secure the right to connect the Long Island R. R. with Manhattan and Jersey City by the route already made public, and to establish terminals in Manhattan, was introduced into the Senate by Senator Stranahan on Wednesday. The most novel and interesting features of the bill are, one providing for a further tunnel, one between Long Island and Mott Haven, to connect with the New England system of railroads, and another to get around the charter provision that limits the life of a franchise the city authorities may grant to 25 years. This provision is:

Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore in this section contained, the Board of Aldermen is hereby authorized in its discretion to grant to any railroad corporation now or hereafter incorporated for the purpose so declared in its articles of association, of constructing and operating a tunnel railroad or railroads in the city of New York, to be connected with the railroad or railroads of any corporation or corporations now existing or hereafter organized, whether under the laws of the State of New York or of an adjoining State, and thereby form a continuous line for the carriage of passengers and property between a point or points within and a point or points without the city of New York, a franchise right or consent either with or without limitation as to period of enjoyment, for the construction and operation, under any lands, streets, avenues, waters, rivers, parkways, highways or public places, in the city of New York, of such tunnel, railroad or railroads, with all necessary sidings, platforms, stations, facilities for access to the surface and other appurtenances, and with the right to emerge to the surface upon private lands at the termini.

The Builders' League of New York sent up a bill which was introduced into the Senate by Senator Slater, and into the Assembly by Mr. Seymour, to secure for the League a representative on the Board of Examiners, and to allow appeals from the decision of the Superintendent of Buildings, where the amount involved is $500, instead of $1,000, as now provided by the law.

Among the measures introduced which may be classed as those of extravagance, is one by Mr. J. E. Smith to increase the salary of the Chairman of the Board of Aldermen from $5,000 to $6,000 a year; that of the Chairman of the Finance Committee from $2,500 to $3,000, and that of the Aldermen from $1,000 to $2,000 each. Another, Assembly bill No. 321, seeks to provide pensions for all civil service employees of State and cities who have reached the age of 60 years, and have served continuously for 25 years, and for those disabled by sickness.

Other bills concerning real property and building interests are:

IN THE SENATE.

Senator Dowling's, giving the Commissioner of Labor supervision of elevators and elevator shafts in factories, and providing that in factories and mercantile establishments: "All elevator cabs or cars, whether used for freight or passengers, shall be provided with some attachment or guard fastened to the floor or tread, underneath the door or opening in the cab or car, to prevent accidents to persons while attempting to enter or leave the car before it becomes level with the floor. All elevator wells built after the passage of this act, shall be so constructed that that part of the inside surface of the well that comes in front of the opening or door of the cab or car shall be flush with the cab or car. All freight elevators shall have attached to the bottom of the car opposite the open sides of the elevator shaft, a number of ropes, chains or other devices hanging downward, not less than 7 feet long, nor more than 4 inches apart, to act as a danger signal to warn people of the approach of the elevator. All of the foregoing constructions, work and devices shall be approved by the Commissioner of Labor."

Senator Elsberg's, proposing an amendment of Section 93 (Filing and Entry), Chap. 418 of the Laws of 1897, to provide that the registers shall keep alphabetical lists of the premises in which mortgaged chattels are contained.

Senator Hennessy's, to provide, at a cost of not more than $300,000, for land and buildings, a hospital in the Bronx.

Senator Hennessy's, to require the city to pay a full days' pay to laborers employed for part of a day.

Senator Hennessy's, giving the Supreme Court power to determine whether the assessment for regulating, grading, curbing and flagging Pelham av, from Webster av to Southern Boulevard, confirmed Dec. 20, 1900, exceeds the amount lawfully assessable under the enabling act.

Senator Hennessy's, extending the power of the Department of Taxes and Assessments to remit or reduce a tax, and removing the limit of time within which any remission or reduction of taxes upon real estate or individuals or corporations must now be made.

Senator Mills', apportioning the cost of improving White Plains av, from Morris Park av to the city limits of Mount Vernon, forty per cent. on the property benefited and sixty per cent. on the city at large.

IN THE ASSEMBLY.

Mr. Burns', to compel all subway companies to place on all manhole covers an automatic safety valve to prevent the accumulation and explosion of gas in manholes.

Mr. Wolf's, providing that "the walls of all buildings in New York City shall, below the surface of the ground, be built of stone or brick laid in cement mortar, and the backing-up of all stone ashlar shall also be laid-up with cement mortar or cement and lime mortar; when brick or stone are used in all other walls they shall be laid in lime or cement mortar. The brick used in all walls of buildings shall be good, hard, well-burnt brick, and no second-hand brick, or bricks previously laid in mortar, shall be used for any wall or pier below the level of the curb, nor in any building which shall be more than twenty-five feet higher than the level of the curb."

The Dock Department have confided to Assemblyman Kelsey a bill to enable them to proceed with the extension of the dock system in Manhattan, from Bloomfield to 23d st. It is claimed, and on good ground, that this work is imperatively needed by the growth of the Atlantic trade and the increase in number and dimensions of the ships engaged in that trade.

A New Long Island-Hoboken Tunnel.

On Tuesday, the Union Terminal Co., of New York, was incorporated at Albany, with a capital of $100,000, to build what would be practically an underground belt line on Manhattan Island, for the convenience of the New York Central and the railroads now terminating in Jersey City and Hoboken. The directors of this ambitious enterprise are: Francis H. Leggett, wholesale grocer; Frederick P. Voorhees, Roy Stone, engineer; Charles F. Smillie, Louis L. Stanton, William C. Cox, M. E. Robinson, Appleton D. Palmer and John A. Stewart, not the President of the United States Trust Co. but a U. S. Marshal. The route laid down for the tunnel begins beneath the intersection of Varick and Montrose avs, Brooklyn, and runs westerly, underground and under the East River, to and under 14th st, Manhattan, and under the Hudson River to a point on the boundary lines of the States of New York and New Jersey, due west from the west end of the centre line of 14th st, Manhattan. It there connects with a railway to be built under the authority of the State of New Jersey, continuing westerly in the same general direction to suitable connections with the various railroads entering Jersey City and Hoboken, with branches from 14th st and Broadway, under Broadway, Madison square and Madison av to 42d st to the Grand Central Depot, and from 14th st southward under Hudson st, College place and Greenwich st, to Battery place, to and around Bowling Green.

Railroad Company Not Liable

The Court of Appeals have decided that the New York & Harlem R. R. Co. are not liable for damages to easements on Park av, caused by the elevation of their tracks in that thoroughfare. This decision was given in the case of Gustav R. Fries v. New York & Harlem R. R. Plaintiff is the owner of a 3-sty frame building on Park av, southwest corner of 129th st. After the tracks on Park av were elevated he brought suit for trespass on his light and air easements in the Supreme Court, where he was awarded $5,500 damages. This judgment was sustained by the Appellate Division, but is now reversed and a new trial ordered by the Court of Appeals. Summarized, the rulings of the court of last resort in this case are: A steam surface railroad company that has lawfully operated its road for many years in a cut below the surface of a city street, and, in accordance with the direction and requirements of a legislative enactment to improve the thoroughfare, elevates its tracks and carries them on a steel viaduct above the surface of the street, is not liable to an abutting property-owner with no title in the street for injury to his easements of light and air caused by the change. When the State, in the exercise of its sovereign power, commands through legislative enactment the carrying out of a public improvement by changing the grade of a street and, for that purpose requires a railroad company, lawfully in the street, to elevate its tracks, the company is not liable for the consequential injury of obeying the mandate of the statute.

Fire Requirements in High Buildings.

THE LEGALITY OF THE DEPARTMENT RULES AND REGULATIONS QUESTIONED.

A case of importance to the owners of tall buildings, and of wide interest in fire insurance circles, was decided adversely to the city last Tuesday morning in a test suit, which came up before Civil Justice Roesch, in the Second District Municipal Court.

Not long ago, Henry Corn, who owns a 12-sty building at No. 598 Broadway, was notified by Commissioner John J. Scannell of what he would have to do in order to comply with the law regarding the providing of means for the protection of the building against fires. In the letter he sent to Mr. Corn he demanded that the building be fitted out with hose, buckets, fire extinguishers, etc. It also mentioned a three-inch standpipe from cellar to top with a two-way three-inch standard Fire Department Siamese connection with valves and a two-and-a-half-inch outlet and a passenger elevator which should be ready for use by the Fire Department at all hours of the day or night, including Sundays and holidays. Mr. Corn prepared to resist these demands, but before court could render decision the Corporation Counsel withdrew that case, as he felt it was not a proper one wherein to test the law.

The law officers of the city then concentrated their fire against Weil & Mayer, the owners of the 12-sty fireproof buildings running from Nos. 580 to 590 Broadway, in the action to recover a penalty then pending. The trial of this case was begun before Judge Hoffman in the Second District Court in December last, but that case was abandoned owing to the technicalities raised, and a new trial of the same case was had last Tuesday before Judge Roesch, Arthur F. Cosby appearing for the city, and Henry W. Unger for the property-owners.

It was claimed on behalf of the owners that, not alone was the law unconstitutional, but even if the Commissioner had the power to make any such regulation, he did not exercise it in a legal way, and that all of the regulations heretofore made by the Fire Department were void, because they were not entered upon the records of the Fire Department as an official regulation of the Fire Commissioner, and have never been published in the City Record, the official organ of the city.

Ex-Secretary Augustus T. Docharty, of the Fire Department, and Sol. J. Rosenthal, Chief Clerk to Fire Chief Croker, were called with the records of the Fire Department and other witnesses were produced, to show that the methods pursued to make and promulgate the ordinance were those which had prevailed for the last thirty-five years in the Department, but Judge Roesch held that the custom of the Fire Department did not meet the requirements of the City Charter, and that the proceedings of the Fire Department in this class of cases were irregular and void.

Hundreds of judgments have already been recovered against owners in this class of cases, and a large number of orders issued by the Fire Department have been allowed to remain in abeyance on, to await the outcome of this test case.

It is not known whether the Fire Commissioner will appeal the case, or will pass regulations which he will enter on his minutes and publish in the form required by law.

A Lower East Side Elevator Apartment.

The new activity on Grand st, east of the Bowery, has resulted in the erection of many large flats. Foremost in the list is the Columbia, on the southwest corner of Grand and Chrystie sts, a 7-sty structure, 50x75. It is arranged for four families per floor; three 6 and one 5-room suites, each with bath. The Columbia also contains four stores and a Turkish bath establishment, in the basement, wihch cost $15,000, and is rented for 10 years, at $2,100 per annum. The Columbia contains an "A, B, C" electric elevator, is steam-heated, has hardwood trim and open plumbing, with tiled bath rooms. All but three apartments are tenanted by East Side business people, who find it pays to live near their stores. The rents range from $35 to $50 per month. The Columbia is said to bring the best return per sq. ft. of any lower East Side parcel; an aggregate of $23,000; the stores renting for $10,000. Levy Bros., real estate experts, of 392 Grand st, built and own the Columbia.

The Effect of the New Tenement House Law on Flats.

In our last but one issue we published an article from the pen of Mr. Lawrence Veiller, of the Tenement House Department, upon the new law, giving a general view of the operations of the law, and a detailed consideration of the most important tenements erected under it. In the following article Mr. Veiller applies the same method of detailed examination to a number of typical examples of flat-building under the new law—flats being defined as consisting of at least four or five rooms and a bath. A succeeding issue of the Record and Guide will give a similar examination of the case of apartment houses.

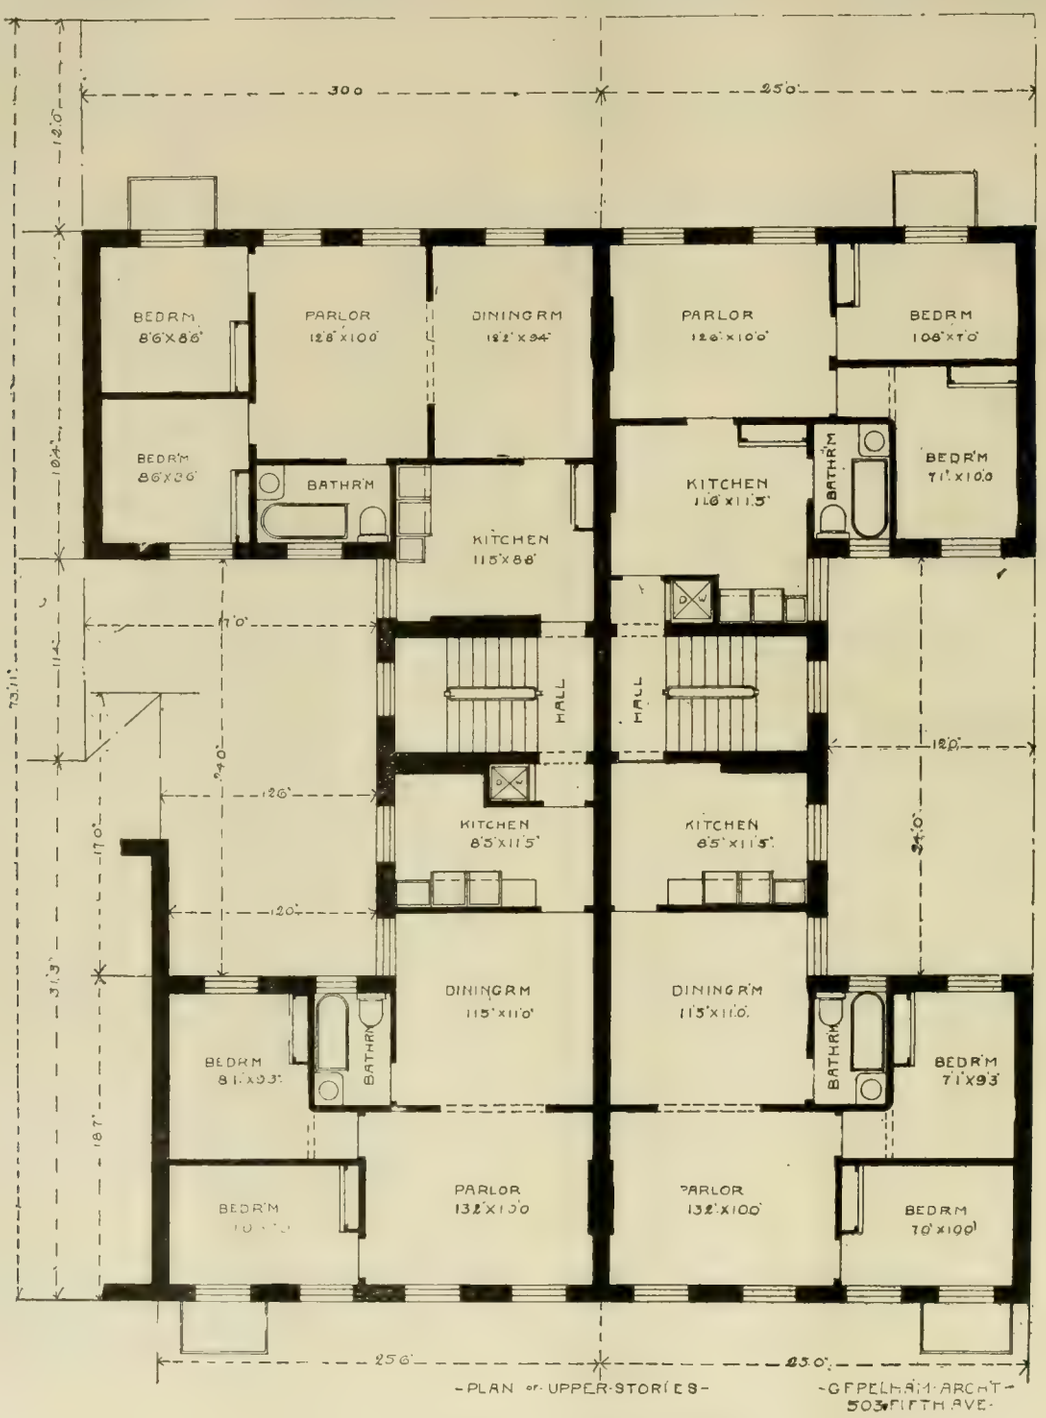

FIG. 1. NOS. 233-5 EAST 113TH STREET.

The first plan on this list is one of a number filed by Mr. George F. Pelham, architect, of 503 5th avenue. It is for two buildings located at 233-235 East 113th street, and situated on rather shallow lots, the lots being but 74 ft. deep instead of 100 ft deep as usual; one lot is 25 ft. wide, and the other is irregular, being 25 ft. 6 ins. wide in front, and 30 ft. wide at the rear. The houses are what is popularly known as flats, and each house is arranged for two families on each floor—one in front and one in the back. There are no stores, the entrance floor being arranged like the upper floors, except for the space taken from the rooms necessary for the entrance hall.

As will be seen from the accompanying plan (Fig. No. 1), the architect has made use of the inner court situated on the lot line as best adapted to his purpose. Such a court under the new law must be at least 12 ft. wide and 24 ft. long for a building 60 ft. high. As this building is to be five stories high, and not over 57 ft., the architect has accordingly planned his courts of such a size. It will be at once seen that a court of this kind gives adequate light to all the rooms opening upon it, and by means of a passageway in the cellar, communicating directly with the street, and provided with open iron gates at each end, a constant circulation of air in the court is assured, so that all rooms are well ventilated, as well as being well lighted.

The stairs are located at one side, about half-way back from the street, and no space is wasted in long narrow common hallways, but instead, the stairs and halls are compact, thus throwing more space into the apartments and increasing the amount of rentable floor area; notwithstanding this, the halls and stairs are ample in width, each being 3 ft. wide, the minimum prescribed by the new law; they are also splendidly lighted and ventilated, having at each floor a window 3 ft. wide opening directly on the large inner court, as well as being provided in the roof with a ventilating skylight of an adequate size.

Notwithstanding the unusual shallowness of the lots, the architect has managed to get in one house ten rooms and two baths on each floor, and in the other house nine rooms and two baths, although the building is only 62 ft. deep. The front flat in each case consists of five rooms and bath, a parlor with two windows on the street, 13 ft. 2 ins. wide by 10 ft. long, a dining-room directly back of the parlor, and opening into it with a double doorway 6 ft. wide between; this room is 11 ft. and 5 ins. wide by 11 ft. long, and has a window 3 ft. 6 ins. wide opening on the large court. Adjoining the parlor, and with two windows on the street, is an attractive bedroom 7 ft. long by 10 ft. wide, containing a built-in wardrobe; back of this is another bedroom 7 ft. 1 in. wide by 9 ft. 3 ins. long, opening on the large court, and distant 24 ft. from the opposite window. Between this bedroom and the dining-room is a bath room of an adequate size, containing a bath tub, water-closet and wash basin, and having a window opening on the large court. Back of the dining-room is the kitchen, 8 ft. 5 ins. long by 11 ft. 5 ins. wide, containing a range, two stationary wash tubs and a sink, and having a window over 3 ft. wide, opening on the large inner court. The dumb-waiter is in each house located off the public halls, so as to be accessible to both families, and is, of course, enclosed in a fireproof shaft. Back of the house is a yard 12 ft. deep, and extending across the entire width of the lot, this being the minimum depth prescribed by the new law.

As will be seen from the above description, and from the accompanying plan, this building is intended for occupancy by the higher grade of mechanic or clerk, who cannot afford to keep a servant or to pay for an elevator, but who can pay from

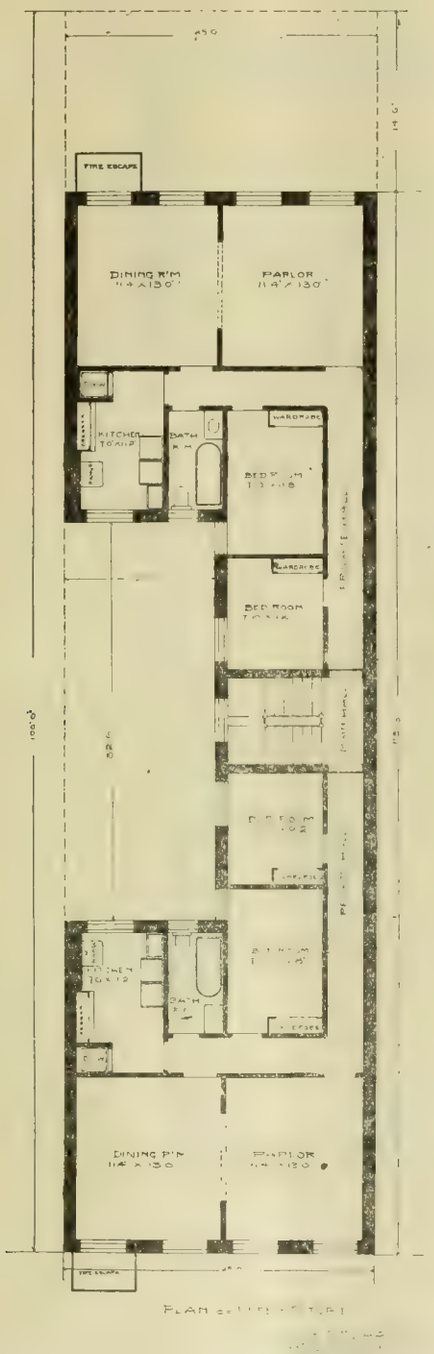

FIG. 2. A 5-STORY FLAT ON THE NORTH SIDE OF 139TH STREET, 75 EAST OF LENOX AVENUE.

$25 to $35 a month, and who desires to have light and air, privacy, reasonable security from fire, and a fair amount of modern conveniences. In this building the first floor over the cellar will be constructed entirely fireproof, without any openings to the cellar, excepting the fireproof dumb-waiter shaft, and the cellar stairs will be located outside of the building. In addition, the entire stairs and halls will be constructed fireproof, and will be enclosed with brick walls, and, except on the entrance floor, will be shut off by fireproof self-closing doors from all non-fireproof parts of the building. Fire escapes with connecting stairs will be provided both front and rear.

The plan shown in Fig. 2 illustrates even better what can be accomplished under the new law on an ordinary city lot, 25 ft. wide by 100 ft. deep. This is also one of Mr. Pelham's plans, and is for a 5-story flat now being erected on the north side of 139th street, 75 ft. east of Lenox avenue. There are two families on a floor, one front and one back, each having five rooms and bath. As in the previous case, the architect has used the inner court on the lot line as best adapted to his purpose, only he has in this case made it 12 ft. wide by 32 ft. 6 ins. long. Each flat contains a parlor and dining-room, each 11 ft. 4 ins. wide by 13 ft. long, opening into each other, and both on the street, and each having two windows. The kitchen is directly back of the dining-room, and contains a range, two stationary wash tubs, a sink, a dresser and dumb-waiter, with a large window opening on the inner court, and distant 32 ft. from the opposite window. Between the kitchen and the first bedroom is the bath room, with a window on the large court, and next to the bath room is a bedroom 7 ft. 10 ins. by 11 ft. 8 ins., also with a window on the large court and containing a built-in wardrobe; back of this is another bedroom 7 ft. 10 ins. by 9 ft. 2 ins., with a similar window. A private hall 3 ft. wide gives access to every room in the apartment. The rear flat is exactly the same as the front one, while behind the building is a yard 14½ ft. deep by 25 ft. wide, being 2½ ft. deeper than the minimum laid down in the law.

It is of great interest to compare this plan of a two-family flat built on a 25-ft. lot under the new law (as shown in Fig. 2) with a similar type of house built under the old law (as shown in Fig. 3). Both houses are arranged for two families on a floor with five rooms and bath for each family.

Taking up the two plans in detail, we find the parlors in the two houses about the same—both are located on the street and have two good-sized windows. In the new-law house the parlor is a few inches smaller than in the old-law house, but otherwise is the same. Comparing the two dining-rooms, we find considerable difference, although the dining-room in the new-law house is a few inches smaller than in the old-law house, yet it is a much more desirable room. It has two windows opening on the street, instead of one window opening on an air-shaft 28 ins. wide, it is located next to the parlor and communicates with it so that the two rooms can be thrown together in case of a social entertainment, whereas in the old-law house it is located 29 ft. distant, and can only be reached from the parlor by passing through both the bedrooms or by going out into the public hall of the building, a method of planning extremely inconvenient and undesirable.

The kitchen in the new-law house, while somewhat smaller than in the other, possesses the advantage of being immediately adjoining the dining-room, while in the old-law house it is some 10 ft. away, being separated by a bath room. The wide by 6 ft. 1 in. long. In the new-law house, the bedrooms get their light and air from a large court 12 ft. wide by 32½ ft. long. In the first case the bedroom windows are directly opposite, only 6 ft. away from each other; in the new-law house there can be no window within 12 ft. of the bedrooms. In the first case there is no privacy whatever, the first bedroom being next to the parlor and having no door between, but only an archway, and both bedrooms being continually used as a passageway between the parlor, and the dining-room, kitchen and bath rooms, as has been pointed out; in the new-law house there bath rooms in the two houses are about the same size, and both are provided with the same fixtures; in the new-law house, however, the bath room immediately adjoins one bedroom, and is but 20 ft. from the second bedroom, while in the old-law house it is 20 ft. distant from the first bedroom and 40 ft. distant from the second one; and with a far more serious disadvantage, viz.: that to get to the bath room, one must either pass through the dining-room or go out into the public hall, and to get to it from the second bedroom, one must pass both through the first bedroom and also through the dining-room. In the new-law house, the bath room is reached through a private hall without having to pass through any room. In the old-law house the bath room opens on an air-shaft 28 ins. wide, and there may be another window opposite it, and within 5 ft. of it; in the new-law house the bath room opens on a court 12 ft. wide by 32 ft. 6 ins. long, and the nearest window opposite is 32 ft. distant.

The greatest difference, however, is seen when we compare the bedrooms. In both houses the bedrooms contain the same amount of floor area. In the old-law house, however, the bedrooms get their light and air from a small air-shaft 4 ft. 9 ins. is complete and absolute privacy. In the old-law house, if it were desired to rent one room to a lodger or boarder, it would be necessary for the lodger to pass through the family's bedroom to reach the water-closet; in the new-law house, a bedroom can be rented out to a lodger and still have absolute privacy maintained.

Leaving the rooms and considering the public halls, we find in the old-law house, a dark public hall, without any means of light or ventilation except the roof skylight; in the new-law house we find a public hall flooded with light and air having a window 3 ft. wide opening on a large court 12 ft. wide by 32½ ft. long.

In the new-law house the public halls and stairs occupy 77 sq. ft. of floor area; in the old-law house, 156 sq. ft., or just twice as much, which is pure waste. As regards protection from fire, the new-law house possesses great advantages over the other; the stairs are entirely fireproof and are enclosed on all sides with brick walls and shut off from all the non-fireproof portions of the building by fireproof self-closing doors at each story, and the stair window opening on the court is of wire-the openings in the partitions are provided with ordinary doors, glass in a fireproof frame, while the floors of the public halls are constructed of iron beams with fireproof filling; in the old-law house, the stairs are not enclosed with brick walls, but with ordinary wooden stud partitions filled in between the studs with mineral wool, and covered over with plaster boards, while so that if the fire should reach the hall it would at once and with great rapidity spread out in all directions, especially as the stairs in the old-law house are of wood, as are the floors of the public halls. In the old-law house the small air-shafts lighted and ventilated, the public halls are well lighted and ventilated, while protection in case of fire is secured to the very highest degree, short of absolute fireproof construction. In the old-law house, the rooms are badly arranged, privacy is destroyed, only four rooms out of ten are adequately lighted and ventilated, the public halls are dark and unventilated, while the danger from fire is at the maximum.

On the other hand, the new-law house costs a little more to build than the other. Its only disadvantage, however, is that only one family on each floor has an outlook on the street, while in would in case of fire act as a flue, causing the fire to spread rapidly from floor to floor; in the new-law house there are no such shafts, and, therefore, no such danger.

The cost of building the two houses is about the same, although a little more for the new-law house, there being 16½ running feet more of exterior walls in the latter case than in the former. There is, of course, also the additional expense of the fireproof stairs and entrance hall enclosed by brick walls, as well as the cost of an additional dumb-waiter and fire escape. Otherwise the cost is the same.

A comparison of the amount of floor space in the apartments shows that in the new-law house there is 40 sq. ft. more floor space on each floor than in the old-law house, and this, notwithstanding the fact that the new-law house occupies 3 per cent. less of the lot than the old-law house (the former occupying 69 9-10% of the lot and the latter 72 6-10%).

To sum up the relative advantages and disadvantages of the two plans: We find the new-law house far superior in every respect. It provides more rentable floor area, the rooms are more conveniently arranged, privacy is secured, every room is well the other house both families have this outlook. This means, of course, that the rear apartments will bring a lower rental than the front apartments. To what extent this is a detriment from a commercial point of view, experience only will prove. The fact that shrewd investors and speculators are willing to erect such houses would seem to indicate that the disadvantage is chiefly a theoretical one.

A somewhat similar type of flat built under the new law, is that shown in Fig. 4, and now being built at 6 and 10 Barrow street. Here the lot is of an irregular size, being 57 ft. 2½ ins. wide and 91 ft. deep. The plan adopted is very similar in arrangement to those shown in Figs. 1 and 2. There are two inner courts on the lot line, each 13 ft. wide by 32½ ft. long, and each is widened at one end by an offset, making the courts at these points 16 ft. wide. The building is arranged for four families on a floor—the two front flats containing six rooms and bath, while one rear apartment contains five rooms and bath, and the other four rooms and bath. The front apartments each have large private halls giving access to every room, and the rear apartments have somewhat shorter private halls, giving access to half the rooms. The rooms are all of a generous size, the six-room flats consisting of a parlor, 13 ft. by 12 ft., a dining-room 11 ft. by 14 ft., a kitchen 8 ft. by 11 ft., a bath room and three bedrooms of a good size. In the five-room flat there are two bedrooms instead of three, and in the four-room flat only one bedroom. The stairs and public halls are each 4 ft. 6 ins. wide, and the entrance hall is 5¼ ft. in width. There are no stores on the ground floor, but four apartments similar to those on the upper stories, except that there is one less room, owing to the extra space taken by the entrance hall. The building is five stories high and contains twenty apartments and 104 rooms. Seventy per cent. of the lot is occupied.

It happens that a plan for this identical lot was filed in the Building Department under the old law by another architect, so that we thus have a splendid opportunity of comparing the results obtained under the old law and under the new one, in the most direct and concrete way. Fig. 4 shows the new-law plan, and Fig. 4½ the old-law plan.

It requires but a glance to see how immeasurably superior the new-law house is to the old-law one, but a closer study reveals many interesting facts. Unfortunately, the kind of house planned differs in two cases, the old-law plan being for two 5-story tenements, arranged in three-room and four-room apartments, while the new-law plan is for one 5-story flat, with the apartments arranged in flats, of six rooms and bath, five rooms and bath, and four rooms and bath; nevertheless, it is possible to make many interesting comparisons.

In the new-law house, every room is splendidly lighted and ventilated; in the old-law house only eight rooms out of the twenty-six on each floor, are adequately lighted and ventilated, the remaining rooms getting their light and ventilation from small, narrow, dark air-shafts which are a distinct evil in themselves, most of the shafts being but 3 ft. wide, and some of them being as small as 3 ft. by 10 ft., and entirely enclosed on all four sides. In the new-law house there are no air-shafts, but two large courts, each 13 ft. wide by 32½ ft. long, and every room opens either on the street or yard or on one of these large courts.

Notwithstanding the fact that the new-law house occupies but 70 per cent. of the lot, while the old one occupies 75 per cent. of the lot, there is but 50 sq. ft. more of floor space on each floor in the rooms of the old-law house than in the new-law house, there being 2,474 sq. ft. of floor space on each floor in the first case, and 2,424 sq. ft. of floor space in the latter. If in estimating the amount of rentable floor area on each floor, we include the bath rooms and private halls (which is perfectly admissible), we find that there is actually 257 sq. ft. more of rentable floor area on each floor in the new-law house than in the old-law one, and this, notwithstanding the tremendous improvement in the light and ventilation of the house.

The reason for this somewhat startling fact is not difficult to find; in the one case the building has been planned scientifically, concentrating the light and air in large courts; in the other case the building has been planned unwisely and the light and air space has been cut up into little narrow strips and scattered all over the lot.

There are not so many rooms obtained on each floor in the new-law plan as in the old one, but that is not because of the law, but is due to the fact that a different kind of house has been planned with larger rooms; the amount of rentable floor area is greater in the new-law house than in the old-law one, as has been shown above.

The new-law house is also cheaper to build than the old-law one, there being 413 running feet of exterior wall in the latter case, and but 332 ft. in the former, or 81 ft. less. There is also but one stairs in the new-law house, while there are two in the other. There is about the same amount of interior partition walls, both 12-in. and 8-in. in each case, there being a little less in the new-law house than in the old-law house.

In the old-law house there are long dark narrow public hallways, which have been in the past a source of many social and moral evils, one of these halls is 62 ft. long and the other 40 ft. long; in the new-law house these long dark passageways have been abolished.

In the old-law house, in order to reach the water-closet in every apartment except one, it is necessary to pass through the bedrooms, and in many cases through the two bedrooms, thus completely destroying privacy; in the new-law house, a private hall gives access to every room and complete privacy is secured.

Widening the Roadway of Fifth Avenue.

President Cantor, of Manhattan, is interesting himself in the plan suggested some time ago for the widening of 5th av by moving back the curb line. He said, however, that he would make no active move in the matter until John D. Crimmins, who is away from town, and who first suggested this method of relieving the crowded traffic conditions of the avenue, returned. Mr. Cantor has received from Stevenson Towle, a consulting engineer, a map drawn by him providing for the widening of the thoroughfare, between 40th and 42d sts, by taking 8 feet from the sidewalk of the Public Library property on the west side of the avenue, and cutting off the corner at 42d st with a curve of 15 feet radius. Mr. Towle suggests that if the experiment is satisfactory the section between 14th and 23d sts should be widened next, to be followed at intervals by the widening of other parts of the carriageway as far north as 59th st. The Corporation Counsel will be asked for an opinion upon the legal questions involved.

There are a number of bills in the Legislature of particular interest to the realty world of this borough, as well as the measures affecting all the boroughs, which are described in the article on another page dealing with the doings of the Legislature this week. Some of the purely Brooklyn bills introduced are:

Senator Marshall's, to improve Prospect av, Brooklyn, between the old city line and Ocean Parkway, the city bearing two-thirds and the property-owners benefited one-third of the cost. Mr. Remsen introduced the same bill into the Assembly.

Senator Fuller's, reducing from 25 to 15 feet the width of the courtyard on the Eastern Parkway and Douglass st. This bill is introduced at the request of property-owners, who assert that the Eastern Parkway will be built up with apartment houses instead of fine residences as was first supposed, and therefore a wide courtyard is not necessary. They say that Douglass st, having a trolley road upon it, is no longer a desirable residence street, and in consequence does not need a courtyard. The city paid the original property-owners' compensation for the courtyard restriction.

Senator Marshall's, to improve Prospect av, between known as Windsor terrace, in the 29th Ward, bounded by the old Flatbush line, Prospect Park, Fort Hamilton av and Greenwood Cemetery.

Senator Wagner's, protecting Central place from the erection thereon of any stable, store, storehouse, factory, wagon-house or shed.

Mr. Adams', providing for a five-cent fare for any continuous trip upon the elevated railroads of this borough.

Recovery of Half Commission.

Geo. D. Waring has recovered judgment against McChain & Hershfield for $260 and costs, being half-commission on the sale of No. 17 West 35th st, to the wife of Charles H. Neihaus, the sculptor. The case is one of considerable interest to real estate brokers, in showing what their responsibilities are in parallel circumstances. The facts, as stated in the brief of plaintiff's counsel, were that Mr. Waring got into communication with Mr. Neihaus, through the latter's advertisement for a house. He was referred to Mrs. Neihaus as having charge of the matter, and submitted a number of houses, none of which suited his client. The plaintiff advertised for a house with the requirements insisted upon by Mrs. Neihaus. To this Mr. Hershfield, of McChain & Hershfield, responded. He was told by plaintiff what kind of a house was wanted and for whom. He submitted a list, none of which suited. Later McChain & Hershfield advertised No. 17 West 35th st, for sale. Plaintiff called upon them and said he thought this house would suit Mrs. Neihaus. As a result Mrs. Neihaus inspected it on plaintiff's card, but did not purchase then because she thought it would cost more than her husband cared to pay. A week after she saw an advertisement of McChain & Hershfield's, offering several houses for sale. She called upon them and was shown a number, including No. 17

West 35th st. She told Mr. Hershfield of this house having already been brought to here notice by plaintiff. She finally purchased the property for $52,000. Plaintiff first became aware of the transaction by reading it in a newspaper. He immediately demanded half-commission, was refused, and brought suit with the result stated.

L. J. Phillips & Co. announce in our business pages the sale at auction on Tuesday next, of 269 West 10th st and No. 129 Charles st. The auctioneer will supply maps and information at No. 158 Broadway.

Wm. M. Ryan will conduct the sale, in partition, Wednesday, 19th inst., of the city block bounded by West, Laight, Washington and Hubert sts, and the brick buildings thereon, formerly used as the Appraiser's Stores. It seems almost unnecessary to point out the rapidly increasing values of parcels of the size and in such locations as this under the rapidly growing commerce of the country, which, of course, increases the pressure upon its centre in Manhattan Island. West st is destined to be the greatest shipping thoroughfare in the United States, if not in the world. It will certainly be before long the line of an important railway, either built by private or public capital, intended to serve the shipping interests thereon and land fronting upon it must become immensely valuable for either office or warehouse purposes. The advertisement of this sale, which will be found in our business pages, is, therefore, strongly recommended to the consideration of investors, who are also referred to the auctioneer, at No. 149 Broadway, for maps, terms, etc. A full description of the neighborhood in which this property is situated, with a statement of its advantages for business purposes, and some details as to the recent advance in values, will be found in our issue of December 21st last.

THE PEYTON ESTATE SALE.

The sale announced by the executors and trustees of the estate of Josephine L. Peyton for February 18th, is the most important auction announcement of the year so far, and as the sale is to be absolute should show whether there is a demand for investment properties offered in the auction room. The properties are well located, and, as they are nearly all avenue parcels, they are the very best kind for investment purposes. One, No. 363 5th av, just north of 34th st, is in a neighborhood that has been advancing very rapidly for the past year, and is a particularly desirable speculative parcel. The other parcels, including as they do, Nos, 130-132 Duane st, No. 2185 3d av, Nos. 155 and 881 6th av, Nos. 11, 149, 151 and 153 8th av, No. 342 9th av, Nos. 670 and 672 9th av, and other properties on the Boulevard, West 13th, 14th, 19th, 20th and East 59th sts, Barrow st, Bleecker st, Greenwich st, Horatio, Hudson, Renwick and Thompson sts, are all in live business neighborhoods and investors will do well to examine those in which they are interested. In addition to the Manhattan offerings there are a number of parcels to be sold in choice locations in the Bronx. James L. Wells, who has hitherto been the auctioneer for the Peyton estate, and whose efforts have always proved successful, will be the auctioneer on February 18th, and will, without doubt, make another display of his usual skill and success on such occasions. Book maps, terms of sale, etc., may be had of Sylvester Pope and William L. Condit, executors and trustees, No. 56 Pine st; Abram I. Elkus, attorney for executors, No. 56 Pine st, and James L. Wells, auctioneer, No. 141 Broadway.

The World of Building

Material Market.

The events of this month in the iron trade strongly suggest that the present unparalleled prosperity that trade, and by the same ruling, other lines of industry, are enjoying, is going to last not only through the first six months, but possibly through the whole of this year. In the finished iron and steel trades the same remarkable activity exists, and it is hard to find a concern that is not over-sold, and is not anywhere from three to six months behind on contracts. The jobbing trades have been buying heavily in anticipation of a further advance in prices of nails and wire at another meeting, which is to be held in Chicago early this month.

Copper prices have materially advanced during the week, and there has been an advance in lead and in some other items. Altogether the trades are getting themselves in a position to meet a continuation of the heavy demand in all directions, a continuation that is not without an element of surprise to many.

Copper prices rose again yesterday something like ¾ of a cent a pound, making 2½ cents rise this week. Quotations for electrolytic copper were 12⅜@12½c., and for casting 12¼c. It is predicted that the advance will continue until prices are somewhere around 14c. a pound, when, it is believed, the market will simmer down.

Lumber.—There is a good trade in almost all lines of lumber, with excellent demand and very firm prices. Hardwoods are in better demand than for some time past, especially the better grades. There are liberal supplies of lower grades of ash, oak and poplar, but prices are steady. Hemlock is in good request at full values. There is still a scarcity of dry stock. Spruce is very firm and in good demand, and prices show no weakness. Southern pine is in good inquiry, and prices are held firm. Demand for North Carolina pine is better than usual at this season of the year, and prices are stiff.

Lath.—Arrivals have been small and offerings necessarily light, prices have been quoted nominally unchanged and steady at $3.25@$3.50.

Brick, Lime and Cement.—There have been moderate offerings of brick, as manufacturers have good supplies on hand, but the volume of trade has not been large. Revised quotations are $5.25@$6.25 for common building brick. Eastern lime has continued to meet with only a limited sale, but prices have not changed from 82c. for common and 92c. for finishing. Business in cement has been quiet, the usual mid-winter dulness being experienced, but prices have held fairly steady at 75@95c. for Rosendale and $1.60@$1.90 for domestic Portland.

Nails.—The call for small lots of wire nails from store shows some improvement. The market is represented by the following quotations: Small lots from store, $2.25 to $2.30; carloads on dock, $2.25. The demand for cut nails in the New York market is moderate, the price of $2.25 from store being generally adhered to. Quotations are as follows: Carload lots on dock, $2.18; less than carload lots on dock, $2.23; from store, $2.25.

Linseed Oil.—There has been a sudden and unlooked-for change in the linseed oil situation which is thought to be due to manipulation to compel buying. In well-informed quarters it is not believed that the movement will be successful, because most of the large buyers have covered their wants for the next three months, and some are supplied for the first half of the year, while the policy of those who have not contracted is to buy from hand-to-mouth. At the close yesterday 62c. was an inside quotation on out-of-town brands, while city was quoted at 64c. by the American, and 63c. by the National.

Paints and Colors.—There is still a good business in both dry lead and lead ground in oil, chiefly for spring delivery, but the market is unsettled, notwithstanding the advance in pig lead. The demand for dry colors shows gradual improvement, but the market is still far from active, and no very material increase in the volume of business is expected much before the middle of the month.

Glass.—The window-glass market is still very much unsettled by disagreements between the different parties to the understanding upon which prices have been based for some time past. The Jobbers' Association have agreed upon the following discounts from the jobbers' list of January 21, 1901; 90 and 90 to 10 per cent. off. This price is only temporary, however.

Retrenchment in some of the city departments makes them want to do their own plumbing work. The latest to suggest such a thing is the Board of Education. The Dock, Police and Bridge departments already do some work, and unless the matter is brought to an issue there will be very little repair work for plumbers in the city departments.

The Logan horse stall system, which has been on the market for many years, is constructed on purely scientific and hygienic principles, and conduces largely to the health and comfort of the horse. These stalls can easily be adapted to both new and old stables, and have been recommended by the State Board of Health. Catalogues can be had on application to M. Logan, Broadway and 50th st.

The National Fireproofing Co. are about to establish a branch office in Indianapolis, Ind. Mr. Frank Kessing, formerly Manager of the New York office, will have charge of same. Mr. Kessing came to New York about four years ago and took charge of the Eastern office, and has been successful in building up a very large business. He has made hosts of friends, and the last two weeks have been one continual entertainment for him from builders and contractors both in New York City and Brooklyn, at his home and various clubs. His popularity extends to the Building Trades' Club, where he is a member of the House Committee, and was recently nominated one of the Board of Managers for the coming three years. It is confidently predicted that in organizing the business in the central West, that he will meet with the same success which has crowned his efforts here.

Architects now generally recognize the great advantages of using "Salasee" Plastering Fibre in the place of hair in lime mortar. Its use removes the objections caused by the injurious effects of lime on hair, which has caused many of them to use patent plaster; and those who have used "Salasee" are so pleased with the durability of the work resulting, that many prominent architects now specify its use. Durability means less costly outlay for future repairs, which appeals to owners. It has been used in so many prominent buildings of all kinds, apartment houses, hotels, hospitals, office buildings and private dwellings, all testifying to its merits; and the general belief that lime mortar, for many reasons, makes the most satisfactory work, promises its increased use in the future. "Salasee" has been used more in New York than elsewhere, because it has been more thoroughly introduced here, but testimonials from all parts of the country, show that it is appreciated wherever used, and that it is what many plasterers have stated, the best binding material for plastering mortar. "Salasee" was used in the following prominent buildings: Beth Israel Hospital; N. Y. Infant Asylum; apartment houses at Broadway, 85th and 86th sts, 93d and 112th sts; Riverside Drive, 83d and 94th sts; Madison av, 61st and 95th sts; 8th av, 50x121, and 129th st; West 124th, 140th and 182d sts; 116th st, corner St. Nicholas av; 7th av; 55th, 56th and 143d sts; and private residences, 855 and 967 5th av; 39 W. 86th st; 17 E. 54th st; 3 and 32 E. 51st st; 33 W. 56th st; 2 E. 67th st; 38 E. 39th st, and Riverside Drive and 106th st. Testimonials, samples, or any particulars desired may be obtained on application to Charles R. Weeks & Bro., 542 West 14th st, N. Y.

ELECTRICAL HEATING.

With electric heating fairly available one could plan a furnace, hot-air or steam, so as to do the regular work of winter heating and do it thoroughly well. A furnace, when driven too hard or not hard enough, is both troublesome to manage and inefficient. When proportioned to take care of moderate and uniform requirements it is both efficient and reliable. With a furnace properly proportioned for, say, eight rooms of a 16-room house, the saving during a winter run would probably provide a material balance to help offset the cost of electricity used irregularly in the other rooms. At ordinary prices electric heating would still be a luxury, but a very convenient and satisfactory one. Nothing else can put up a temperature on so short notice or hold it so steadily. In milder climates, where really cold days are rare, the occasional usefulness of electric heaters would still be greater and would obviate the necessity of other heating devices, or else supplement the simpler ones, like fireplaces, very efficiently. Electric heat is always ready to be turned on, gets to work quickly and is out for good when the switch is turned off. It is, of course, understood that for temporary or irregular heating the walls of a room should not be of low temperature when heat is needed, as otherwise some time will be required to raise the temperaure of these, during which period the occupant of the room will not derive much warmth from the heater unless exposed to its direct radiations.—Electrical World.

ALIEN'S RIGHT TO HOLD REAL ESTATE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

To settle a dispute, kindly say in your next issue if an alien can hold and transfer property in this State?

Answer.—He can hold and transfer personal property the same as a citizen. Sections 4 and 5 of the Real Property Law provide (Sec. 4), that an alien who has declared his intention of becoming a citizen, and who intends to remain a resident of the United States, may make a written deposition to such facts before any officer authorized to take an acknowledgment or proof of deeds to entitle them to be recorded within the State. This deposition may be filed in the office of the Secretary of State. (Sec. 5) An alien may for a term of 6 years after filing this deposition, take, hold, convey and devise real property.—Law Editor.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.—LATTER DIES.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A tenant, who rents small store by the month, is taken sick in the store; Police Department take tenant to hospital and lock up store, leaving tenant's goods there. Keys are taken to station house, tenant dies, and none of his relatives will claim goods or remove them. How can owner get possession of store; this month's rent is not fully paid?

Answer.—Upon the death of the tenant his executor or administrator becomes entitled to the lease, and the estate is liable for the rent. If there was a large amount involved and the estate was solvent, the regular course would be to make demand upon the executor or administrator for the rent, and if it was not paid to dispossess or sue for the rent. In case there was no will, and no administrator was appointed, the landlord might apply as a creditor to have an administrator appointed. In this case you might notify the public administrator of the circumstance. But as the next of kin, as you state, take no interest in the matter, I think you would run no risk to take possession of the store, and ask the public administrator to take possession of the goods. —Law Editor.

THREE CENTS A DAY FOR A COMPLETE SYSTEM OF REAL ESTATE RECORDS!

Ten dollars for a complete system and set of real estate records alphabetically arranged, printed and ready for as easy reference as a word in the dictionary, is an interesting proposition for everyone who has anything to do with real estate operations.

It is possible for every real estate man to equip his office with the most perfect and handiest system of real estate records at a nominal cost.

This service is supplied to all subscribers of "The Record & Guide Quarterly"—a publication issued every three months. The fourth number annually is an issue containing all the records for the entire year arranged alphabetically. The subscription price is ten dollars a year.

Those who are not subscribers should investigate the advantages of this publication. All other systems of records are needlessly cumbersome and unnecessarily expensive. Start the new year with "The Record & Guide Quarterly." The annual number for 1901 is about to be issued and we will send you this number with the following three quarterly numbers for ten dollars—less than three cents a day for a complete set of real estate records.

Drop a postal card to the offices of publication, Nos. 14, 16 Vesey Street, or telephone 3157 Cortlandt, and we will gladly show you the publication and explain to you its uses as a time saver and money maker.

CONVEYANCES.

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing a Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to their having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

5th.—The figures in each conveyance, thus, 2:482, denote that the property is in section 2 block 482.

6th.—It should also be noted in section and block numbers, the instrument as filed is strictly followed.

7th.—The letters R. S. mean Revenue Stamp, as R. S. $8.00 means Revenue Stamp $8.00.

Tax on Conveyances executed prior to July 1st, 1901, on $100 to $500, 50c., and for each additional $500 or fraction thereof, 50c.; on Conveyances executed on and after July 1st, 1901, 25c., where consideration exceeds $2,500 and is not more than $3,000, and 25c. for each additional $500 or fraction thereof.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

The first date is the date the mortgage is drawn, the second the date of filing; when both dates are the same, only one is given.

Subscribers will find Mortgages in this list with the wrong block number attached. The block number we give is taken from the instrument as filed.

Mortgages against Bronx property will be found altogether at the foot of this list.

Jan 24, 25, 27, 28, 29 and 30.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

The Attention of Architects, Builders, Owners and Managers of Hotels and Apartment Houses is called to the New York Telephone Company's

Private Branch Exchange System.

By means of a Private Branch Exchange city and long distance telephone service, as well as an interior service, are available to every apartment, at very moderate cost. Most people depend so much now-a-days on the telephone service that a Private Branch Exchange, connecting with the New York Telephone System, is practically a necessity in the Modern Apartment House or Hotel.

Appended quotations are based almost wholly upon prices obtained for goods from first hands. Yard rates necessarily range much higher owing to the expenses attending sorting out and grading cargo and even car lots, besides which must be added the cost of handling and carrying until consumers are ready to invest. Terms of sale also prove important factors, and altogether it is impossible to give a line of retail quotations thoroughly reliable in character.

Vol. LXIX. FEBRUARY 8, 1902. No. 1769.

A MORE confident feeling prevails in the Stock Exchange created by the news of the week, but it does not seem to be shared by outsiders, because commission business, while a little better than of late, is still very light. There is no diminution of cheerfulness elsewhere because whenever the merchant or the manufacturer is questioned regarding the conditions in his own line, he becomes most enthusiastic, when, however, the conversation is turned to Wall street, he cools off and has something to say about the possible improvement in the business of the country having been discounted too far ahead down there. There is a feeling too, as Mr. Whitney expressed it, that the railroads are doing their maximum business for this period and that the turn may come anytime. There is understood to be a great demand for investment issue, and surface appearances sustain that understanding, but it is whispered around that some of the recent offerings of bonds, which ought to have gone off easily if there had been such a tremendous demand for corporate investment issues as was supposed, were if not failures, then not very well taken. As a consequence a good deal of stuff is left upon underwriters' hands, which has to be worked off as opportunity occurs. Still for all that there is a very confident and affluent party in the Street, who believe in higher prices, and are willing to stake their money upon their belief. The logic of their position is doubtful to those who cannot understand how, if a dividend payer like U. S. Steel falls back upon the heads of its friends whenever lifted, a non-dividend payer like Southern Pacific, selling above 65, can be successfully advanced. These two issues are used for illustration, because it is with them that the confident party referred to have tried, and are trying to show that they are right.

EVIDENCE accumulates that the various departmental heads of the new administration are taking very seriously the pre-election pledges to reduce salaries and cut off sinecures. Register Ronner is making one of the most thoroughgoing attempts of all to cut off salaries, his saving aggregating already $22,802; and he promises to double the amount without decreasing the efficiency of the office. He expects, in fact, to pare down the annual appropriation from $165,000 to $110,000. If he can do this, he will have made a better record than any of his colleagues—and a Register should surely make good records. The offices under the control of the President of the Borough will be run with a reduction of appropriations amounting to at least twenty-five per cent. The sum to tal of all the savings will apparently amount to several million dollars, and should do something effectual to reduce the tax rate for the coming year.

A SECOND drop in the Bank of England's rate of discount in the course of a fortnight shows that Europe is now easy, so far as money is concerned, for some time to come. The causes of this have already been given in these columns. As to trade conditions they still enjoy the partial improvement that has been apparent since the opening of the year. Germany is managing to place a good deal of iron and steel abroad, as is shown by the following figures, taken from the foreign trade report of the Empire: The exports of old iron increased from 61,000 in 1900 to 153,000 tons in 1901; construction forms from 215,000 to 342,000 tons, bars from 172,000 to 329,000 tons; blooms and billets from 33,000 to 201,000 tons; wire from 94,000 to 154,000 tons; and plates and sheets from 167,000 to 255,000 tons. The iron and steel trades of Europe are further encouraged by expectations of orders from the United States. Some figures showing the tendency of late in shipping construction have come to hand, which, though not practically instructive to business circles, are still interesting. These figures reveal in the past fifty years a reduction in the number of ships on the British register, with an increase in the total tonnage. Thus in 1850 there were 25,984 vessels on the register, having a total net tonnage of 3,564,833, an average of 137 tons; in 1900 there were only 19,751 vessels, but the total net tonnage had increased to 9,280,164, and the average to 460; that is to say in the half century, with a decrease of 6,233 in the number of vessels, the tonnage had increased by 5,715,331, and the average by 323 tons. These figures demonstrate what has been going on to increase the size and efficiency of water carriers and, of course, increase the economy of operation.

The Metropolitan Street Railway.

SO far as can be seen the leasing of the Metropolitan Street Railway system to a new security company is merely a device to raise new capital in a manner profitable to the stockholders. Of course such a security company provides an excellent corporate machinery for taking over the other street railroads of New York and Brooklyn, in case it becomes possible or desirable to do so; but that this consummation will ever be actually reached is only guess-work. True, it is guess-work based upon the universal tendency toward the consolidation of street railway companies; and it is guess-work, part of which derives some plausibility from the bill now before the Legislature permitting the subway contractor to assign the lease of the tunnel; but for the present it is not a matter of serious discussion. All that need be said is, that at least some traffic arrangement between the Subway Company and the Metropolitan Street Railway Company is indispensable to the full public usefulness of the underground road. The subway, consisting as it does of only one line of railways, except north of 106th st., where the city is wider, is peculiarly in need of crosstown transfers, so that its passengers can be collected and distributed without the payment of two fares. A system of transfers with the important crosstown lines would probably increase its short distance traffic by fully 25 per cent., and would do much to relieve the present over-crowding on some of the longitudinal surface lines. But obviously the Metropolitan Railway would scarcely grant them to an independent company, except upon the payment of an extra fare of three cents. For this and many similar reasons consolidation of all the surface, underground and overhead lines of Manhattan, Brooklyn, Queens and the Bronx, would be the best thing both for the patrons and the owners of these roads, but a detailed discussion of its advantages may be left to the time when one can do something more illuminating than guess at its probable occurrence.

What is certain is that the Metropolitan Street Railway Company proposes to raise sufficient new capital to convert the ninety odd miles of horse car lines, which it still owns, into properly equipped and electrically operated roads. This, in itself, will be an enormous gain to a large portion of the New York public. The only important longitudinal road upon which horses are still used is the Ninth ave., and the introduction of electricity upon this route will both relieve the Eighth ave. cars of much traffic, and will be a great convenience to the population living between Ninth avenue and the river. The other routes which have not yet discarded horses are chiefly crosstown lines, many of them situated in the lower part of the city, and the substitution of electric power will be most beneficial, and may have a certain limited tendency to distribute population in the congested district of the East Side. In any event the substitution will introduce life and movement into many comparatively dead parts of the city, and will increase very much the serviceability to the public of the whole street railway system.

The most important question of all is, however, what chance is there for the street railways of Manhattan to reach a still higher degree of serviceability? In what respect is their service lacking at present, and how can the defect best be remedied? These are, or soon will be, critical problems, because it is evident that with the increase of traffic, the street railway machinery is not working as smoothly and as efficiently as it formerly did. We believe that any man accustomed to use the cars of the Metropolitan Company, particularly during the rush hours, must have noticed that these cars are more crowded, that delays are more frequent, and that communication is consequently slower and more uncomfortable than ever before. Indeed, at times it is almost intolerably slow and uncomfortable, and hence it is that of late a certain share of the traffic, of which the Metropolitan formerly deprived the elevated roads, has been recovered by the Manhattan Company. So far as we can observe this comparative inadequacy of the service of the surface roads is not due to any decrease of efficiency in the management, whose chief fault is a stubborn refusal to run sufficient cars to prevent overcrowding at other than rush hours. The real trouble seems to be that the increase of street traffic, both on and off the surface cars, is such that congestion is unavoidable, and that the present system of the Metropolitan Company is approaching the limit beyond which any further increase of traffic, except during easy hours, will be handled with difficulty, and to a certain extent at the expense of existing traffic.

But how this pressure can be relieved and the system improved, except by renovation of the horse car lines, it is difficult to see. The great obstacle is the utter inconvenience of the street lay-out of Manhattan. South of 14th street there are practically only three straight and wide thoroughfares, and the consequence that the cars, in order to get south have to pursue devious or crowded routes. The 2d, 3d and 4th avenue lines all reach the City Hall, either partly or wholly by way of the Bowery; the Lexington avenue, Columbus avenue and Broadway lines by way of Broadway; and the Sixth and Seventh avenue lines by means of a complicated and narrow route. Eventually a new and broader street will have to be cut down as far as Canal street, which will give direct southern outlet for the Sixth and Seventh avenue cars. Another helpful improvement would be the construction of more crosstown lines. At present one of the chief causes of congestion is the heavy traffic generated at the crowded corners of the important crosstown routes, and this could be much relieved by an increase in the number of such lines, which wherever possible should not be more than four or five blocks apart. Any changes in the street lay-out, also, which would give the street traffic more room to move about would be of the utmost assistance to the Metropolitan Company in the enormously complicated and difficult problem which lies before it. Questions of this kind cannot be long postponed, and it would be an excellent thing to have a commission appointed, at the present time, which could consider the whole question of surface transit, and the best means of providing for its expansion. It must be remembered that the passenger traffic on the New York streets increases regularly just three times as fast as the population of the city, and that the many improvements in interborough communication now underway will augment rather than diminish the number of surface passengers. Within the next fifteen years there promises to be a congestion of traffic of all kinds on the important New York streets, which will become as intolerable and dangerous as is the present congestion on the Brooklyn Bridge; and a wise municipal administration will not wait for this time to come, but will anticipate the need of improvement.

IT seems to us that the gentlemen who have undertaken to get a bill through the Legislature to reduce the legal rate of interest from 6 to 5 per cent., do not understand the purpose of such legislation, which is simply to prevent usury, a thing that can only be partially prevented at best, and that in its extremest form. When the Legislature has fixed a reasonable rate and created means of relief where borrowers find themselves oppressed by attempts of loaners to go beyond that rate, they have done all that they can do. Now, no one claims that 6 per cent. is an usurious rate, nor is it the rate at which anything like all the business is done. As a matter of fact the cost of money is determined like that of all other things, by supply and demand, and its use is obtained under varying conditions and at different times at from less than 2 per cent. to considerably beyond the legal rate, the excess being represented by premiums or commissions, and these methods of doing business will prevail whatever the Legislature may do. No one need pay 6 per cent. or 5 per cent. for that matter who can offer collateral justifying a lower rate. A scale running from the low to the high rates enables business to be done under differing degrees of risk, and such an arrangement is absolutely necessary. The law providing, as it already does, against extortion and for the protection of the innocent against the unprincipled, it is not only unnecessary that any change should be made, but to be hoped, to the end that business may not be disturbed, that none will be made.

IF, as has been supposed by good authority, the United States are returning to Europe capital borrowed in previous times, that would not only explain why the large shipments of gold made this week excite no anxiety, but would also be one of the most gratifying phenomena of the present financial conditions. It would argue a more surprising and sudden development of wealth in our midst than was previously dreamt of, if we, in a time of great business activity, common to the whole country, can displace foreign by domestic capital at a rate that the gold exports of the past six months would suggest. In considering this matter it must be borne in mind that gold is only an occasional and momentary form in which capital is shifted from one place to another, the usual medium being commodities. Because of this fact British economists are asking, whether the growing excesss of imports into, over exports from the British Isles—last year £175,000,000 as compared with £145,000,000 for the decennial average—does not disclose that a return of capital from the United States is in progress? It is also suggested that another process has begun, which directly touches London's position as the banking centre of the world, and that is the process of sending American money across the Atlantic for investment. It is pretty certain that with wealth growing as rapidly as it is here, we are paying off some of our indebtedness to foreign nations; and we have to pay in gold, not because suspicion of our credit causes that form of remittance to be demanded or because Europe's necessities require it, but simply because for the moment there is nothing else in which adjustments of balances can be made, owing to the fact that while selling all we can abroad we are also paying off our indebtedness as fast as we can. As to New York's prospect for supplanting London as the banking centre, that is yet distant enough to tickle our pride rather than our reason. But we are, as Mr. Whistler said of nature's relation to his pictures, "creeping up," and it is sufficiently flattering to think that we need not now go abroad as suppliants for capital with which to develop our resources, but that conditions have so changed, within a comparatively short period, that we even have a surplus to employ away from home.

THE limit of ten stories, which Chicago has of late imposed even upon office buildings erected in that city, has been at least temporarily suspended, and the City Council has authorized the building of some twenty sky-scrapers, 16 stories or less high, and aggregating $16,000,000 in cost. The municipal regulation limiting the height of buildings had been based upon the obvious fact that, whereas very tall buildings are good things for particular property-owners, a low limit to buildings is better for the whole city. For a low limit distributes business, whereas a high limit concentrates it on especially favored localities. In New York, for instance, if office buildings had been restricted by law to a height of eight stories, the enormous business which is now transacted within four or five hundred yards of the Stock Exchange would necessarily have been distributed over almost twice that area; and the trades occupying this large area would have been forced further up-town. If the same rule had been applied all over the city, a similar redistribution would have been necessary everywhere, and it is conceivable that the dry-goods district would have been pushed up north of Houston street, and would have extended as far north as 42d street. In the aggregate the value of real estate would not have been lowered, for the value of all property worth less than $3,000 a front foot would have been raised, while the value of most property worth more than that figure would have been lowered. It is curious that the smaller property-owner has never appreciated this fact, and has allowed the regulation of the height of buildings to be dictated by the owner of the most expensive land. It is too late for New York to impose restrictions now, but it is always a matter of surprise that the practice of not restricting the height of office buildings on the narrow streets down-town has met with so little opposition. Every consideration of health and appearance, and even every consideration of interest, except that of exceptional property-owners, would have seemed to counsel restriction, yet no restriction came.

JOHN D. CRIMMINS has proposed a practicable method for trying his plan of widening Fifth avenue. This plan, which has come up for discussion under previous administrations, is to withdraw the consent under which property owners have been using eight feet on each side of the street, to throw that space into the sidewalks, and to add the sixteen feet so gained to the roadway of the avenue. No one who has watched the growth of traffic on the avenue can doubt that eventually some such means of relief will have to be taken; but the natural opposition of property owners has hitherto prevented any action. Mr. Crimmins proposes that a beginning be made by adding to the roadway eight feet from the sidewalks of the Public Library property, on the west side of the avenue, between Fortieth and Forty-second streets, and by cutting off the corner at Forty-second street with a curve of fifteen feet radius. This beginning could be made without harming any property owner, and it would have the double advantage of providing an object lesson of the advantages of the widening and of improving traffic conditions at one very critical point. The intersection of Forty-second street and Fifth avenue is between four and five o'clock in the afternoon one of the most congested places in the whole course of that thoroughfare. If the widening should be pushed further, however, it is only fair that, considering the length of time property owners have been using the strip, they should receive some compensation for the expense to which they will be put. The amount of the compensation thus necessitated is tending to diminish because of the change in the character of the avenue from business to residence. It generally happens that when such a change is made the high stoops which are built out upon the strip disappear and the building does not project beyond the line of the privately owned property.

The Real Estate Situation

As the weeks of the new year gather, it becomes more and more apparent that so far as real estate is concerned, it will be a repetition of the year preceding—only more so. The leading factors in the market, wholesome and unwholesome, remain substantially the same. The most wholesome factor is the imperative demand for more space on the part of business enterprises. This demand takes the most varied forms, and will lead to the erection of sky-scrapers in the lower parts of the city, and in all districts lofts, factories and warehouses. During the past week announcements have been made of four new mercantile improvements, the most important of which is the erection of an eleven-story building, on the southeast corner of Broadway and Great Jones street, and the filings for this class of buildings are already very heavy, particularly in outlying sections. A factor only second in importance is the continued demand for private dwellings, which has been more than ever in evidence during the past week. This demand has big speculative alloy; but behind the speculation are a large body of buyers, who want private dwellings, and are somewhat at a loss where to find them—that is, of the kind they want. Builders are extremely active in acquiring old brownstone residences east of the Park, for the sake of converting them into American basement houses. A third factor, of almost equal importance, is the continued speculative demand for properties in the central part of the city, which will be affected by proposed transit improvements. A good example of this demand is the purchase by Mandelbaum & Lewine, of the northwest corner of 6th avenue and 31st street, at a price which a few years ago would have been impossible. In 1880, one-half of this property was transferred for $100,000; to-day the same half is said to be worth two-and-a-half times as much. There can be little doubt about the increasing speculative value of the whole of Sixth avenue, from 23d street to Greeley square, for the expansion of the retail trade. South of 23d street there is little or no room for expansion; and large shops are not likely to go north of 35th street. But in between is a district made for the purpose—partially by the Pennsylvania and Long Island terminus. There continues to be increasing indications of greater building activity on the west side. Plans have been filed during the week for several seven-story apartment houses on 95th street, and the Atlantic Realty Co. proposes to build a twelve-story apartment hotel on the site recently purchased on the south side of 75th street, between Broadway and Amsterdam avenue. This is another example of the fact that the reconstruction of the west side has begun, before its first improvement is over, for the plot in question now contains low buildings erected early in the west side movement. Their life has been short, and it is to be hoped profitable. The neighborhood of 72d street and Broadway will soon contain a larger porportion of large apartment houses and hotels than any neighborhood of the same size in the city.

Speculation and Building.

By far the most important news of the week has been the announcement that the Jersey City and New York Railway Company had bought two blocks for a terminal in Greenwich Village. The precise location of these blocks has been variously reported, but there can be no doubt that the old North River tunnel will be finished, that it will be used in connection with the trolley railroad system of Hudson and Essex counties, and that the New York terminus will be situated on Hudson street, not far from the Appraiser's stores. It would be difficult to exaggerate the importance of this announcement. Its effect in putting a little life into Greenwich Village is obvious, for the Metropolitan Railway Company will have to establish complete connections with the terminus, and traffic in the vicinity will be enormously increased. In the beginning the class of people who will use the tunnel will be for the most part retail buyers, and its effect will be, as has already been pointed out, to strengthen values in the lower end of the retail shopping section, and the increase of local business which will result will cause an enlarged demand in the neighborhood for tenements and flats. But these local effects, important as they are, will be overshadowed by the more important indirect and general effects. It must be remembered that, while the Pennsylvania road only gathers traffic from a fraction of the New Jersey suburban district, the electric trolleys tap every town and collect and distribute passengers through the whole of Hudson and Essex counties. At the same time their service is constantly improving, and it is entirely possible that the tunnel which they build will carry more local passengers than that of the Pennsylvania R. R. As the business of Manhattan pushes further north, a constantly increasing number of commuters will go to and from their homes by means of the trolley roads, which will, of course, be obliged to establish express services to the chief centers of Jersey population. Moreover, this tunnel for the use of the trolley roads, will, even more than the Pennsylvania tunnel, eventually force the other roads terminating in New Jersey to build into Manhattan. Ferries cannot compete with bridges and tunnels, and in the long run roads which depend upon ferries alone would have as little proportionally of the New Jersey traffic as the East River ferries get of the Brooklyn traffic. The total effect of the improvement in transit communication now seriously under way in every direction, will be simply incalculable. Ten years from now Manhattan will no longer be an island, in the same sense that it is now. It will expand freely in every direction except south—with results that will astonish even the editors of the newspapers.

SPECIALIZED CONTRACTS ON PUBLIC WORK—INSURANCE LAW, PROOF OF LOSS—DOCK IMPROVEMENT AND LEASES.

The event of the week at Albany, from New York City's point of view, was the appearance of the Chief Engineer of the Rapid Transit R. R. Commission as Mayor Low's representative to urge the passage of the Wainwright bill to secure the substitution of electricity for steam power in the Park av tunnel. Outside of this no question was discussed which may be said to be of first importance to real property owners and business interests. The absence of the Governor's tax measures from the contending lists increases the doubts that have already been expressed on their chances of passage. It is understood that the Mortgage Tax bill will come up for discussion on Monday, when possibly some clearer view of its chances for success will be obtained.

This or the other trade association has always been desirous of securing separate specifications and contracts for public work in their particular line. Now a bill has been introduced into the Assembly by Mr. Ross (Introductory No. 569) which would, if passed, gratify this desire and doubtless at the same time prove troublesome to the administrative authorities, who are showing a desire to return to the practice of making general rather than particular contracts. This bill provides that in all State, county and municipal work separate specifications shall be drawn and contracts let for the stone and masonry, the carpentry, painting and decorating, plumbing, heating, electrical plant, structural iron and roofing. Moreover, persons to whom such contracts are let are to be forbidden to assign, transfer or sublet them under penalty of forfeiture and loss of any moneys due under same. The contractor is to be a citizen of the United States and to have served an apprenticeship of at least three years in the line of work specified in his bid, or a contractor of five years' practical experience in that line.

The Dock Department has a bill introduced into the Assembly by Mr. Kelsey (Introductory No. 560) to relieve them of the necessity of first making an attempt to agree with the owners of property to be taken before commencing proceedings to condemn the land required for the continuation of the improvement of the North River water front from Bloomfield st to 23d st; and also providing that title to the land required shall vest in the city four months after the filing of the oaths of the Commissioners of Estimate and Assessment, awards to draw interest from the time of title vesting in the city. The Department has another bill (Introductory No. 561) to provide that they may make leases of wharves and other property for one year, but that leases for a longer term must be sold at public auction unless authorized by the Sinking Fund Commission.

Mr. Plank has a couple of bills (Assembly Introductory Nos. 489 and 490) intended to modify the proof of loss provision of the insurance law—Chap. 689 of the Laws of 1892—by accepting one or the other proposition contained in those bills. The first seeks to amend section 121 by adding the following words: "Notwithstanding any provision contained in any such standard fire insurance policy proof of loss may be made by the insured within one year from the time when the fire occurred, and all such standard fire insurance policies shall hereafter contain a provision that such proof of loss may be made within such period of one year." The second bill proposes to add a new section to the act mentioned, to be known as 121a, and to read as follows: "Proof of loss.—In an action brought upon a policy of fire insurance, evidence shall not be received as a defense upon the ground that the insured failed to make proof of loss within the time prescribed in the policy, but the insured shall have a reasonable time to make such proof, and what shall constitute such reasonable time shall be a question of fact."

The latest labor bill to hand is Assembly bill Introductory No. 463, introduced by Mr. McQuade, which proposes that the Bureau of Mediation and Arbitration shall be under the special charge of the Commissioner of Labor, who, with the first and deputy commissioner, shall constitute such board.

Other bills of interest are:

Senator Elsberg's, providing that judgments having the name of the judgment debtor fictitious or partly fictitious shall not bind or be a charge upon real property or chattels of said judgment debtor.

Senator Marshall's, providing that in each borough of the City of New York $10,000 shall be provided for the establishment of municipal club-houses for boys.

Mr. Remsen's, placing President st, from Albany av, and Douglass st, from New York av, easterly to former city line, within the jurisdiction of the Park Department.

Building Statistics.

FOR MANHATTAN AND THE BRONX.

The Department of Buildings have issued a report of the plans filed for new buildings under certain classified heads for the year 1901, which for the whole city shows a total of 5,071 plans calling for 7,657 buildings at an estimated cost of $136,051,697, to compare with 4,294 plans filed in the year 1900 embracing 6,278 buildings to cost $78,291,544. By the courtesy of the Manhattan Building Bureau officials the Record and Guide is able to publish the separate figures for Manhattan and the Bronx and those for Brooklyn. The first are given below and the second on another page in the column devoted to Brooklyn news and statistics. The large increase in the number of plans and the expenditure they called for last year over those of the previous year is almost wholly explained by the items: Flats and apartments, hotels and office buildings. The passage of the Tenement House Law last spring caused the increase in the flats and apartments, though it was by no means so inciting to plan filing as was the Building Code in December of 1899. It is worth noting that the new law had only a small effect on cheap brick and frame tenements, the increase in the first being moderate and there being actually a decrease in the second. Nor do the figures relating to frame dwellings suggest a way of discovering compensation. The causes that produced the office and hotel building of last year have already been treated in these columns.

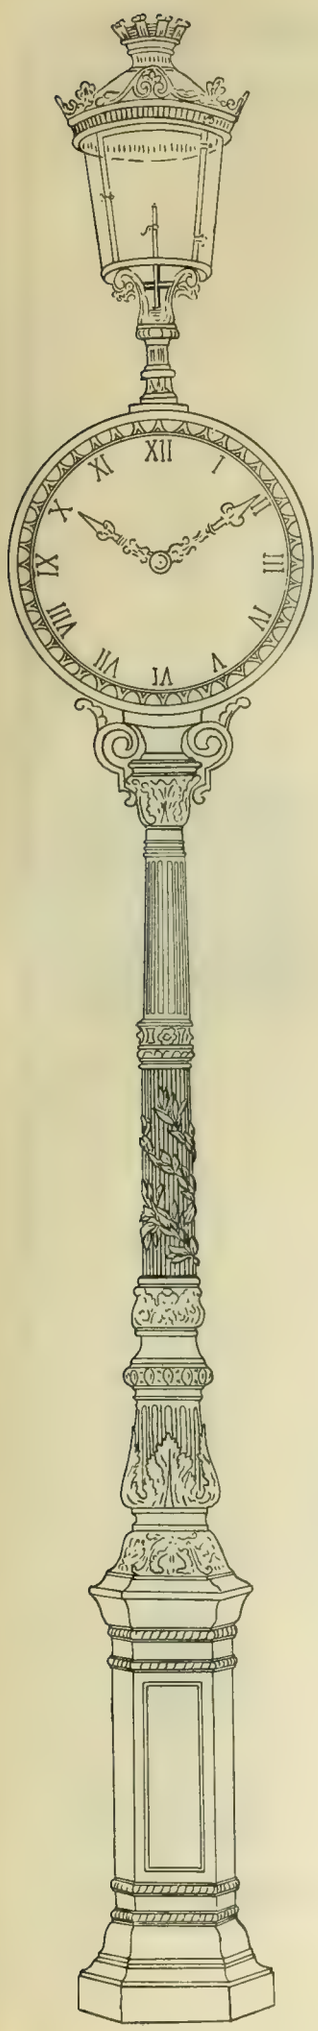
West End Affairs.

At Monday's meeting of the West End Association President Cyrus Clark stated that the 125th st viaduct would soon be completed and opened to traffic, and the Committee on Grievances reported that the Commissioner of Public Works had ordered the fencing of the vacant lots on West End av, southeast corner 82d st and southwest corner 98th st; police captains had issued orders to have use of sidewalks by handcarts stopped; Metropolitan St, Ry. Co. stated that the inadequate service on "Boulevard" line was due to shortage of cars and inability to get cars through 42d st; that the 96th st viaduct had been finished.

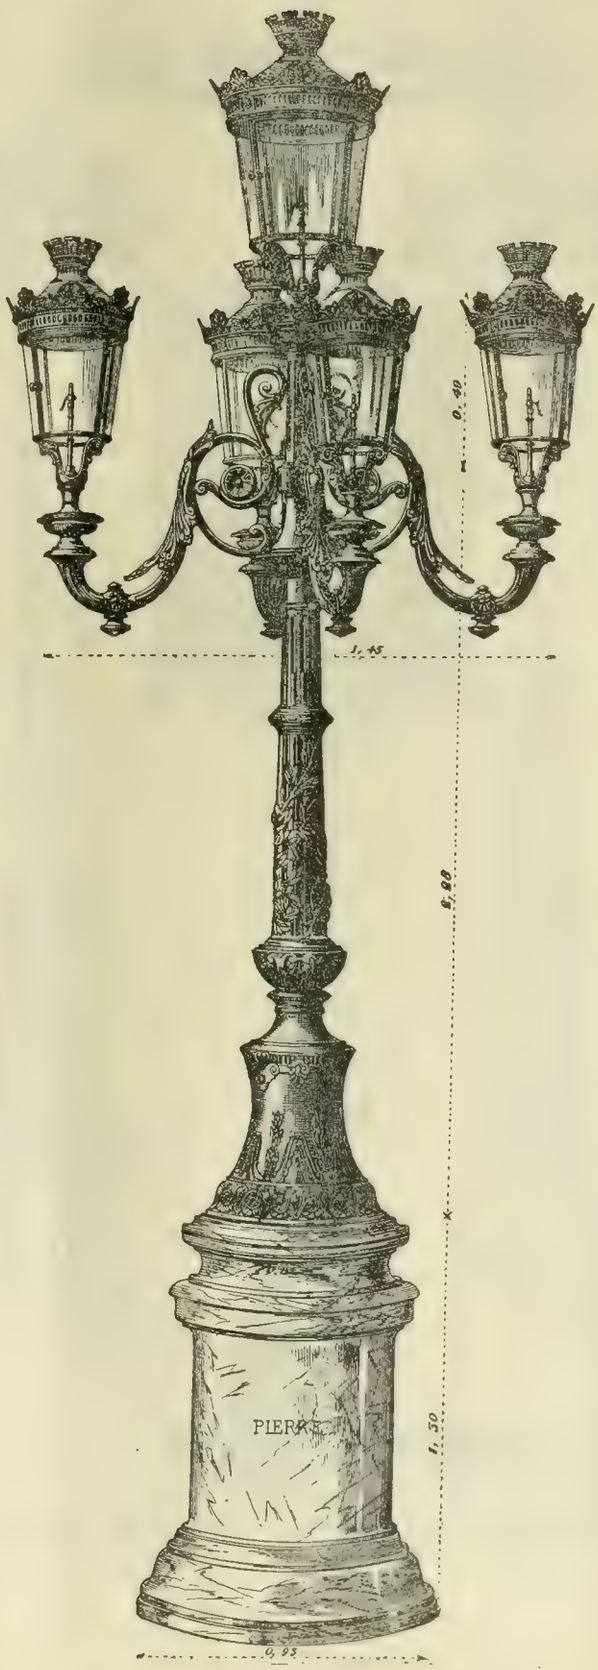
The Committee on Legislation, Law and Schools reported that Senator Plunkitt's bill for the extension of city property on the Hudson River north and south of 79th st would probably not pass; that the 96th st dump had been completed, but the contractor had not yet begun to use it, and that the matter of $37,500 asked for in present budget for a dump at foot 79th st was being looked after.

The following resolutions were adopted: That the President be authorized to appoint a special committee of 25 to co-operate with Membership Committee in an endeavor to increase the membership of the association; that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of seven to urge on the Elevated R. R. Co. a demand for adequate service, and failing in that, to appear before the State Railroad Commissioners and urge them to compel the company to comply with such demand; that the matter of the inadequate car service on the Boulevard line be referred back to the Grievance Committee for action; that the matter of the status of bachelor apartment houses under Tenement House Law and Building Code be referred to the Committee on Legislation, Law, and Schools for consideration; that the Grievance Committee be instructed to demand from the Metropolitan St. Ry. Co. increased service on West Side lines during rush hours and more through cars on Lenox av crosstown line from Columbus av.

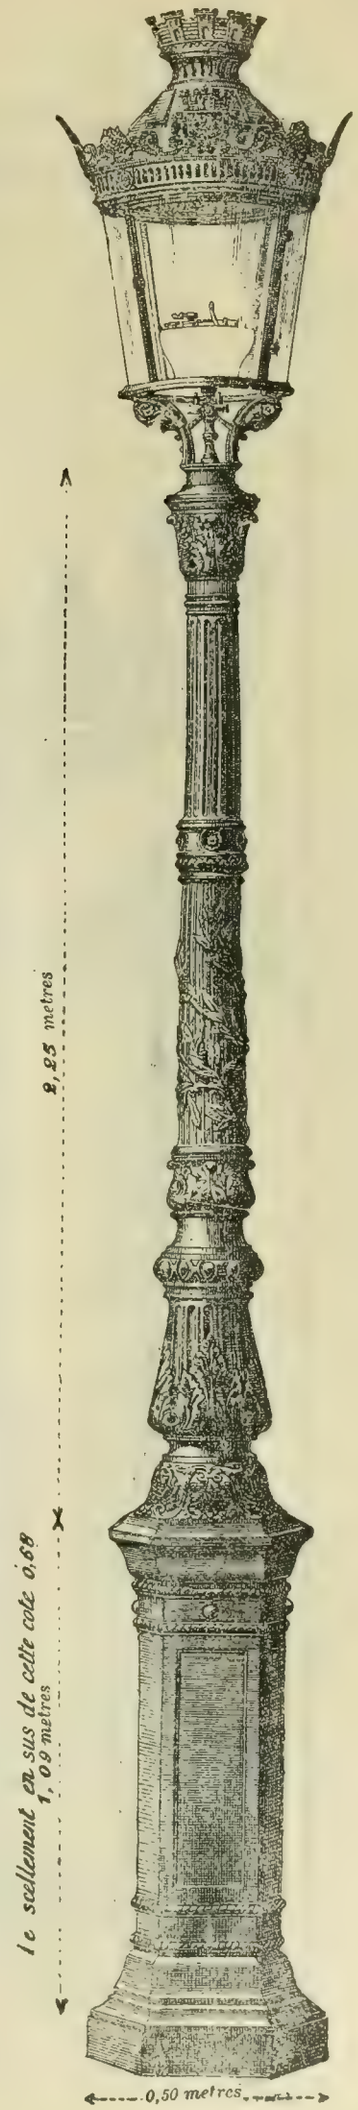
James Rufus Amidon, 29 West 58th st; Wm. L. Brown, 41 Park row; James Dunne, 31 Nassau st; John F. Cockerill, 309 West 90th st, George S. Weaver, Jr., 48 West 73d st, were elected members.



Some Examples of Municipal Signs and Lamp Posts in Paris.



The Record and Guide publishes herewith some typical examples of street lamp posts and signs in Paris. These illustrations have been supplied by Mr. George S. Lespinasse, and in view of the increasing attention now being attracted to the good appearance of our public streets will be found interesting by our readers. It will be seen that they include all kinds of street signs and posts—both those used for lighting and those used for advertisements—and that they are both serviceable and ornamental. There is no aspect of municipal development in which New York is so backward as this important business of street signs and furniture. At the present time the city lacks even those absolutely necessary to the convenience of the public. In the posts that have been erected either by the municipality or by citizens for purposes of display, there has been no realization that the appearance of the sign or post made any difference to anybody, and in the future it will be necessary to take care not only that the posts erected by the city are handsome and well-designed, but that those which private individuals are allowed to put up conform to certain standard of propriety and good taste.



The new charter specifically places the supervision of all street signs in the hands of the Borough President, and Mr. Cantor has had the good sense to consult with the Municipal Art Society upon the design and general character of the street signs to be erected in Manhattan. During the past week the Board of Aldermen has agreed to appropriate $40,000 for the purpose of providing these signs, and presumably those provided will be designed according to the plans proposed by the Municipal Art Society. These plans by no means disregarded the utilitarian aspect of the matter. On the contrary, the most painstaking investigation was made to discover the kind of sign which would be most useful to the public. As a result of this investigation certain conditions were laid down to which the signs must conform. It was decided that they must be visible both by people on the cross streets and by people on the avenues, and both by people who were walking and people who were riding on the cars. Illuminated signs must be provided for night use, and any posts or boards used must be decorated and appropriate. In order to meet these conditions they decided upon a variety of specific recommendations. They want the signs indicating streets and avenues to be placed as often as possible upon the corners of the houses, the sign on each side displaying both the street and the avenue; they want another set of illuminated signs for use by night, and they also provide for temporary posts to be erected on corners as yet unimproved. These commendations are admirable and will doubtless be equally well carried out.

It must be remembered, however, that this is only the beginning. As soon as proper and useful street signs have been erected an attempt should be made to substitute really beautiful lamp posts all over the city for the present ugly ones, and in so doing the city need not be afraid to make a little money out of it by using the fact of illumination for advertising purposes, as they do in Paris. Advertising is a bad thing only when it is badly done, and the expense of these necessary substitutions could doubtless be fully met by a legitimate use of the advertising opportunities.

Administrative Methods in Condemnation Proceedings.

BY BENNO LEWINSON.

The provision of the amended charter which requires these proceedings to be completed within six months is wise beyond the results reached within recent years. The experience of the writer as chairman in numerous proceedings of varying size, character and difficulty warrants the statement that seldom indeed does a proceeding arise in which, if prosecuted with the intent to finish it within the time prescribed by law, that result cannot be actually accomplished. To do so would mean, in the first place, the avoidance of delays beyond endurance to property owners, working to them incalculable harm in many directions; and, secondly, the saving of enormous sums in direct expenditure, besides the consequential pecuniary advantage of speedy adjustments. It shall be the purpose of the following statement to suggest such changes in the administrative methods now in vogue as will, in the opinion of the writer, tend to bring within the term of the statutory six months the duration of each proceeding and result in substantial economies. These suggestions will affect the following five subjects: (1) The Commissioners, (2) the Clerk, (3) methods of proof, (4) maps, and (5) the expense of stenographers and witnesses, and they will be taken up in that order.

1. Commissioners.—Under the Amended Charter these will be selected wholly by the Court, a vast improvement on the present system. But if the best results are to be obtained, then at least the chairmen of the various commissions should be men of firmness, sound knowledge of law and practical experience. The judges should be solicited to reach some understanding to the end that in making appointments for commissions, while distributing the second and third commissionerships generally among the junior members of the bar or laymen, they assign the chairmanships among a few specially selected lawyers of sufficient standing. The idea is that these chairmen should have, each of them, a certain number of these proceedings assigned to them at a time, in order to make it worth the while for men of that calibre to be willing to accept these appointments and make for them that sacrifice of time and devotion which alone will assure satisfactory results. A lawyer of sufficient ability and experience can hardly afford to leave his office and go to the Bureau of Street Openings and there conduct a single proceeding for a fee of ten dollars per day; whereas an arrangement which will afford him an opportunity of conducting, say, three of these commissions consecutively on one day at such office may induce a willingness to serve in that capacity.

2. The Clerk.—The writer is very strongly of the opinion that the law representative of the Corporation Counsel should not act as clerk to these commissions. Thus in the numerous proceedings for the acquirement of dock sites, where Mr. J. J. Prince has made a most excellent official, it has worked extremely well to have had a bookkeeper as clerk to the various commissioners. The clerk in the Street Opening Department should be one of the clerical force employed, either the head accountant or the head bookkeeper, or the clerk charged with making up the daily calendars and keeping the records of the various commissions. or else some one specially appointed. Many instances of conflict have arisen to the writer's knowledge where it has proven unfair to the property owners to have had the clerk, or quasi servant of the commission, be the same individual who represented antagonistic interests.

3. Methods of Proof.—The merely technical and formal proof of ownership involved in these proceedings has been both dilatory and so expensive as to constitute the chief grievance in the present methods of conducting them. The methods employed are both clumsy and antiquated, and can be readily replaced by others which will enable commissions to dispose of this branch of these proceedings within two or three sessions, instead of sessions of almost as many in number (in each of which three commissioners, the clerk, the legal staff and the stenographer have to be paid) as there are parcels involved.

The suggestion is that as soon as an application for the appointment of commissioners in any proceeding is granted, the Department issue a requisition to one of the title companies for a certificate of search going back twenty years, which shall give as to each separate parcel the last record owner and all record liens against the parcel (excepting tax liens, which the Comptroller looks out for). The expense of such a set of searches will be a mere trifle compared to the expense involved in the present method in making proof.

The Department should prepare a blank form of "proof of claim" to contain all material allegations, which could be furnished without expense to claimants and attorneys with a notice that in all cases in which a claimant furnishes the data called for by such blank and in which such data correspond with the returns of the above mentioned searches, the city will admit the allegations of the claimant. It will be found that in not five per cent. of the cases will it become necessary to take any additional "proof."

Where then a verified claim agrees with the returns on the search those parcels are disposed of; where no claim is filed at all the award will, as heretofore, be made to "unknown owner"; and where the verified claim differs from the return on the search the commissioners will take proof and make formal findings.

4. Maps.—The greatest element of inordinate delay has been the obtaining of the two maps required in all these proceedings: the so-called "Damage" map and the so-called "Assessment" map. Excepting in the proceedings which the writer has conducted as chairman it has been the custom to order the first of these after the proofs of title were all in, and to adjourn over until this map was thereafter received (which meant sometimes three or four months), and to order the latter of these maps after the entire evidence was in, and then again adjourn until the latter map was received (which has been known to be as much as seven or eight months). The writer has violated the traditions of the Bureau by insisting, in his cases, upon ordering these maps at prior stages of the proceedings, and has thus been able to avoid these inordinate adjournments. But he has been hampered, nevertheless, because his demands were unprecedented and were not supported either by the Street Opening Bureau or by the Department of Highways.

The "Damage" map can and should be ordered by the Street Opening Bureau as soon as the order appointing commissioners is signed. It is better that the Topographical Bureau should furnish as good a map as its resources and actual surveys will supply, even if such map fails to disclose in each instance the name of the actual owner of each parcel, than that the proceedings should wait until the draughtsman is furnished the proofs of title taken by the commissions. Since the map thus furnished will in any event be complete and accurate as to the physical designation of the land actually taken, it will serve every purpose. The writer has been obliged even with the maps as now furnished to change subdivisions on it in the course of the proceedings, in order to facilitate reference to proof. Nothing worse than this can happen if a map is ordered at the outset of the proceedings.

Upon qualifying the commissioners should be advised to inspect not only the property sought to be taken, but also the neighboring property, in order to judge of the extent of the area beneficially affected by the proceedings. And since the question as to the extent of which an area is benefited by any particular improvement is wholly independent of the amount to be distributed by assessment, the commissioners should at their first session after organizing consider, and as soon thereafter as possible determine, the "area" of assessment. As soon as they have done so, the so-called "Assessment" map should be ordered. If that is done there is some likelihood of such a map being furnished by the time the commission has taken the last of the proof of the value of the property affected; the consequence of which would be that they may then proceed at once to make awards and impose assessments. In that way alone the proceedings can possibly be determined within six months after their beginning.

5. The Expense of Stenographers and Witnesses.—One of the most expensive burdens of these proceedings is the charges for stenographers' fees. The writer is informed (but disclaims personal knowledge) that some one has a contract to furnish these in the Street Opening Department for sixty-five cents a folio for five copies, and that he employs men to whom he pays fifteen cents for taking testimony, and then some copyists for transcribing it. It is quite certain that very competent stenographers can be had at $2,000 a year; and the suggestion is that there be as many of these employed at that salary as there are assistants of the Corporation Counsel, so that for each assistant who represents the city on these commissions a stenographer be assigned (in addition to those now employed in the general work of the office).

As to the expense of witnesses. I have known of instances where the expense of witnesses seem to me to have been very extravagant. I have in mind a case in which the testimony referred to 35 parcels of like character situated contiguously within one city block, in which the Corporation Counsel retained two experts and permitted a charge of $1,750 ($50 for each house) to each of them. I am quite certain these gentlemen would have been equally willing (rather than lose the retainer) to testify for $10 per house, plus $10 for each day's attendance at hearings. That would have been less than $500 per witness. But I am not sufficiently advised to be able to make any personal suggestion; I simply desire to call attention to this item, so that those who have knowledge of the facts may furnish the information.

Concluding Suggestion.—The printed notice which is sent by the Bureau to the commissioners announcing their appointment and asking them to meet should contain, as a foot-note, a copy of § 991 of the Charter. They will thus be cautioned at the outset that a failure to complete the proceedings within six months may work a forfeiture of all compensation.

Bronx Taxpayers' Alliance.

The Taxpayers' Alliance of the Bronx at their usual monthly meeting on Wednesday evening, held under the chairmanship of Col. J. A. Goulden at 3d av and 175th st, declined to approve the mortgage tax bill now before the Assembly. The question was brought up by a report from the Committee on Legislation recommending the approval of the bill, but a motion to adopt the report was defeated by a very large majority of the sixty members present. The chief argument against the motion was that the bill, if passed, would take away a valuable source of revenue from the city for the benefit of the State, and that that would necessitate additional taxation on real estate. In support of this argument the results following the taxation of bank and trust company capital by the State were quoted.

The Alliance adopted a resolution authorizing the appointment of a committee to wait upon the Mayor to urge the establishment of a branch of the Water Department in the Bronx in charge of a deputy commissioner specially selected for the borough.

The meeting also unanimously urged the building of a courthouse at 161st st and 3d av.

The Conditions Which Create Real Estate Values.

Under the auspices of the School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance of New York University, Washington square, a course of four lectures has been delivered by Mr. R. M. Hurd, Assistant Secretary of the United States Mortgage & Trust Company.

In this course the lecturer started with the concept of value in American city land as a shifting quality not inherent in the land itself, but dependent on the growth and movement of the city. The city was viewed as a living organism, whose growth does not consist of accretions from the outside, such as the inorganic growth of crystals, but unfolds from within, as does a tree or a flower; hence the movement within a city's area partakes of a true evolution in consisting of a continuous redistribution of matter and motion.

Starting from the first beginning of cities, these were shown to originate at the most convenient point of contact with the outer world, this being, in the case of the water-front cities, the first wharves where deep water and a high bank meet; in the case of inland cities at the intersection of two or more turnpikes, and, in the case of a railroad city, opposite the railroad depot. From these beginnings the first line of growth is noted, this, in water-front cities, being usually along the shore, as in the case of Pearl street and Greenwich street in New York; in the case of turnpike cities along these turnpikes in proportion to the travel upon them, and, in the case of the railroad cities, being either parallel to the railroad or at right angles to it, depending on the location of the productive territory upon which the settlement depends, the growth in all cases being in the line of least resistance or of greatest attraction, or their resultant.

The influence of external factors in locating buildings within a city was next taken up, buildings to handle the commerce coming from without clustering near the railroad depots and wharves, while within the city the first retail stores to supply the wants of the inhabitants being located where there is the greatest amount of travel passing.

The influence of topography as a resisting force, either in the way of water surfaces, harbors, rivers, lakes, swamps, etc., or of land surfaces, in the way of high hills, rough hollows or ravines, was next shown as distorting the shape of cities. All growth within a city was shown to be, in conformity with the laws of biology, either central or axial; in other words, clustering around a centre or extending along an axis of movement, and the normal shape of cities, where not distorted by topography, was shown to be that of a star, the axial growth projecting itself along the lines of transportation, such as railroads, water-fronts, street railroads or turnpikes, while central growth followed after filling in the interstices and continually overtaking the axial projections.

The laying out of cities was taken up, plats of a large number of cities being shown, illustrating the chief variations between the cities having formal plats laid down prior to their growth and those cities which grew up without any regular platting. The lower end of New York was cited as an example of erratic laying out of land, dependent on individual factors, such as a swamp, a hillock, a clump of trees, etc., while the territory north of Houston, 8th and 13th streets illustrates a regular plat adopted in advance. The influence of internal topography of a city's area, most compelling in the early days of a city, was shown to be largely overcome by man's labor, as for example, in New York, the Collect Pond, Beekman Swamp and Lispenard Swamp have been filled in, and the high hill on Broadway cut down. Among the plats exhibited were those of Washington, illustrating the system of diagonal avenues, superimposed upon a rectangular plat, and those having unusual features, such as Savannah, with its small parks, New Orleans, where the plat follows the convex line of the river, Baltimore, where the platting starts in half a dozen directions parallel to the irregular water-front, etc.

The development of axial growth out turnpikes and along water-fronts and railroads was shown, together with the movement of central growth in early days around public and semi-public buildings, such as the Post Office, City Hall, County Court House and the various exchanges, institutions and hotels. Street railroad transportation was shown to increase the value of land at either end of its line at the expense of the intermediate zone, increasing the area of supply for residences and competing with the old residence districts, while at the centre of the city the massing of daily travel greatly intensified the pressure of demand for land and hence values. Following this came the effect of the daily currents of foot travel, the large movements of which are the trips of business men from their residences to their places of business and back, and the visits of women to shops, together with the evening travel to places of amusement.

The added function of a street in serving not only as a means of communication between two points, but in supplying frontage to buildings, came next, with the general statement that the value of land devoted to retail stores depends upon the number of people passing, qualified by their purchasing power and the causes which bring them past the property, including their method of conveyance, and that the chief difference between business streets and residence streets is in the quantity of traffic, a continual increase of traffic being certain to trasform in time any residence street into a business street.

Under the head of the influence of buildings, the questions of planning and management were taken up, together with modern inventions, such as express elevators and skeleton steel construction, all of which combining with improvements in transportation tend to a continual increase of demand, and hence value at strategic points in a city's area.

The effect of nuisances in detracting from values was gone over, these increasing in intensity and damage with the concentration of population and with the increase in the height of buildings, so that the largest modern office buildings control either the adjoining low buildings or a part of the block on which they stand, or even, in some cases, property across the street, to prevent having their light and air cut off by other high buildings.

The questions of the convertibility of various classes of property, the effects of taxation and the restrictions of building laws were touched on, and a scale indicated of normal values of property devoted to various utilizations in cities of different sizes, from the smallest villages up to New York.

In summarizing the relative strength of the various influences entering into the complex problem of determining the value of any piece of property, it was shown that there was no easy way to judge the value of city land, this being a question of close and constant study of a large number of varied factors, combined with an estimate of future movements.

The organic growth of cities was very strongly brought out, with many examples of conformity to type, together with some exceptions in cities all over the United States.

Real Estate Men's Dinner.

The sixth annual dinner of the Real Estate Board of Brokers will take place at the Hotel Savoy on March 15th. The committee in charge, of which A. W. McLaughlin is chairman, will make this dinner worthy of the occasion, and desires the hearty co-operation of the members, believing they will find this an excellent opportunity to invite their guests, with the assurance of a wholesome evening's entertainment. At the last dinner there were one hundred and thirty-five in attendance. It is expected that this number will be largely exceeded this year. Prominent speakers are being invited, and the committee will be pleased to receive suggestions from the members as to any additional speakers of prominence.

Two New Law Flats.

We publish herewith two more plans for flats now being erected under the new law, the analysis accompanying the plans being from the pen of Mr. Lawrence Veiller. The first is for a one-family house on a 20-foot lot, now being built at 118 East 17th st from plans by Alfred E. Badt, No. 1 Union sq.

The building is to be 5 stories and cellar in height, the cellar to be used for store purposes, the other floors being arranged for one family on each floor. Each flat consists of six rooms and bath, with pantry and servants' water-closet. The parlor extends across the entire front of the house, and is 12 ft. 4 ins. long by 18 ft. wide, being of a very unusual size; back of it is a bedroom 8 ft. 8 ins. by 10 ft., with a window opening on an outer court, and adjoining this is an alcove room or recess off the parlor, 7 ft. 6 ins. by 8 ft. 4 ins., with practically one entire side open to the parlor; adjoining these two rooms is the bath room, and at the rear behind the stairs is a bedroom 8 ft. 8 ins. square; adjoining the bedroom is the dining-room 11 ft. by 11 ft. 8 ins., while back of the dining-room is the kitchen 7 ft. by 12 ft., and a pantry 4 ft. 4 ins. wide by 9 ft. 4 ins. long, and adjoining the pantry is a servants' water-closet. The parlor is the only room opening on the street, the other rooms opening on an outer court 6 ft. wide and 45 ft. long, with one entire side open to the yard; the kitchen and servants' water-closet open on the yard, which is 12 ft. deep, and extends across the full width of the lot. All rooms are of a good size and are well lighted and ventilated; the bedrooms are provided with wardrobes an also individual wash basins. A private hall gives access to nearly all of the rooms. Although the lot is only 20 ft. wide and 81 ft. deep, the architect has been able to get very good results for the particular type of flat desired by his client.

An interesting treatment of a corner lot of an irregular size is shown in Fig. 2—a plan for a 5-story building now in course of construction at the southwest corner of 156th street and St. Ann's avenue, designed by John H. Friend, architect, of 148 Alexander avenue. The lot is 48 ft. wide by 54 ft. deep, and the house is arranged for two families on a floor. Each flat consists of five rooms and bath, a parlor 11½ ft. by 15 ft., a dining-room 11½ ft. by 12 ft., two bedrooms, one 8 ft. wide by 16½ ft. long, the other 9½ ft. by 12 ft., and a kitchen 10½ ft. by 15 ft.; in one flat every room opens on the street, and in the other, two rooms are on the street, one is on the yard, and two are on an outer court 6 ft. wide. Each apartment runs through from the street to the yard, and has a private hall giving access to all the rooms; the two bath rooms adjoin each other, and secure their light and ventilation from a separate inner vent-shaft 4 ft. wide by 7 ft. long, which is open at the roof; no other rooms except the bathrooms secure their light and ventilation from this shaft.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society.

On another page of this issue will be found the annual statement of that long-established, admirably managed and successful institution, the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States. Not only is this statement a gratifying evidence of the growth of insurance in this country, but it shows the favor with which the terms offered to insurers by the Equitable are received. New business amounted to nearly a quarter of a billion of dollars—an almost incredible figure—and the resources of the Society over and above all liabilities now amount to more than $71,000,000. An examination of the investments of the Society shows that their business is founded on sound principles, while its volume shows that it is acquired by enterprise and good methods.

A Big Broadway Lease

We hear that the premises Nos. 200 and 202 Broadway, on the easterly block front between Fulton anl John streets, have been leased to the corporation of Hegeman & Co., now located at 196 Broadway. The term is 21 years, and the rental from $40,000 to $42,500 per year gross. The lessees will alter the old buildings at an expense of $100,000, by connecting them, strengthening the walls, adding a story and modernizing generally. Both are five-story stone front structures. No. 202 is 24.9x160x25x160, and No. 200 is 23.6x160x22.9x161.9. The store in the latter has been occupied by Orcutt's restaurant for twenty-one years. Oscar F. Zollikofer owns the property. The lease was negotiated by the John B. Streeton Co.

THE PEYTON ESTATE SALE.

There is a good demand for the book maps of the sale announced by the executors and trustees of the estate of Josephine L. Peyton for the 18th inst., which is the most important auction announcement of the year so far, and as the sale is to be absolute should show whether there is a demand for investment properties offered in the auction room. There will undoubtedly be a large gathering and in the present demand for investment the sale ought to be a success. The properties are well located, and, as they are nearly all avenue parcels, they are the very best kind for investment purposes. One, No. 363 5th av, just north of 34th st, is in a neighborhood that has been advancing very rapidly for the past year, and is a particularly desirable speculative parcel. The other parcels, including as they do Nos. 130-132 Duane st, No. 2185 3d av, Nos. 155 and 881 6th av, Nos. 11, 149, 151 and 153 8th av, No. 342 9th av, Nos. 670 and 672 9th av, and other properties on the Boulevard, West 13th, 14th, 19th, 20th and East 59th sts, Barrow st, Bleecker st, Greenwich st, Horatio, Hudson, Renwick and Thompson sts, are all in live business neighborhoods and investors will do well to examine those in which they are interested. In addition to the Manhattan offerings there are a number of parcels to be sold in choice locations in the Bronx. James L. Wells will be the auctioneer. Book maps, terms of sale, etc., may be had of Sylvester Pope and William L. Condit, executors and trustees, No. 56 Pine st; Abram I. Elkus, attorney for executors, No. 56 Pine st, and James L. Wells, auctioneer, No. 141 Broadway.

Richard V. Harnett & Co., Incorporated, will sell the stores and tenements No. 883 10th av, between 57th and 58th sts, on Tuesday next, and will supply maps, etc., at No. 73 Liberty st.

Attention is directed to the announcement on another page that a large piece of water front property, corner of 1st av and 36th st, with all wharfage and cranage rights, is for lease for a term of years at moderate rental, and will be improved to suit tenant. Applications should be addressed to Henry Keale, of No. 25 Broad st, for further particulars.

A downtown parcel is advertised for sale in our business pages, particulars of which are to be had between 3 and 4 p. m. of each day in the coming week in Room 704, No. 66 Beaver st.

The agitation begun in this borough for the amendment of the Tenement House Law because it is embarrassing the building business has taken shape and ought to result in good work being done. Building in the line of tenements, which ordinarily forms the great bulk of work here, is at a standstill, to prove which it is only necessary to refer to the current statistics of the Department of Buildings, which show, practically, a stop to filing of tenement plans since the new law took effect and very little of other kinds to take their place. It is a fact, however, that the amount of building for which plans were filed in 1901 was greater than in 1900 by about $1,600,000, and this increase and more is all explained by the increase in dwelling and tenement plans. But it must be borne in mind that 1900 was an "off" year for tenement plans though an "on" one for tenement construction. The large amount of work filed in advance of the Building Code which went into effect in December, 1899, was all included in the figures for 1899, though of course the work was not done until the year following. In view of this fact, and also of the fact that last year a much more radical measure affecting tenement construction went into effect, the increase in tenement plans for 1901 over 1900 is surprisingly small. The figures referred to will be found below. In the main, it must be borne in mind, they refer to work done or about to be completed, and what the building trades are anxious about is to have something to continue to occupy them.

Without accepting all the reports current regarding the purposes attached to the big purchase on the water front it is gratifying to know that Brooklyn is not to be left out of all the wonderful developments that are changing or about to change the face of the city. It is also gratifying to note, and this is something that Manhattan should give particular attention to, that water fronts can be as effectively improved under private as under public enterprise, though probably not quite so systematically. The purchase to which these remarks have reference is that of the eight blocks on the water front from 42d to 50th st, forming part of the Hunt estate, for development for freight terminal and wharfage purposes. The purchasers were represented in the negotiations by Irving T. Bush, of the Bush Company, which conducts a large warehouse business at the foot of 42d st. The property is said to have been bought for $1,500,000. Of course such a purchase could not be made just now without the Pennsylvania R. R. Co. being credited as the buyer, but Mr. Bush, when spoken to with regard to the matter, said that the property had been purchased in the interests of the Bush Company. It was intended, he said, for a big extension of that company's plant and to accommodate large ocean-going vessels.

Real Estate Notes.

The U. S. Senate on Thursday passed the bill appropriating $2,500,000 for a new post office building in this city.

The Real Estate Security Co. is the buyer of No. 123 East 64th st and No. 133 East 61st st. S. Osgood Pell & Co. were the brokers.

John P. Kirwan was the broker in the sale of Nos. 219 and 221 West 46th st to Fanny E. Hoertel. The property was sold in January for $52,000.

Jacob Wolf is the buyer of Nos. 120 and 122 West 45th st. He is the treasurer of the Municipal Realty Corporation, to whom a resale will probably be announced.

The Alliance Realty Co. paid $560,000 for the Chickering Hall property at the northwest corner of 5th av and 18th st, not $575,000 as was stated when the sale was reported.

Sydney Fisher, of No. 58 Lexington av, negotiated the sale of the Fish leasehold, No. 203 3d av, corner 18th st, the transfer of which at $16,000 to Wm. J. Burke was made on Wednesday last.

Heil & Stern (Max Heil and Emanuel Stern), the former for years with M. & L. Hess and the latter for six years with Julius Friend, have opened offices at No. 647 Broadway for the sale and rental of property in the mercantile district.

C. H. Van Hise, manager of the bureau of investment of the Lawyers' Title Insurance Company of New York, who has been absent from duty for several months, owing to sickness, has returned to his post at the office of the company, No. 37 Liberty st.

The $400,000 mortgage on the Hotel Vendome property, southeast corner of Broadway and 41st st, recorded last week, was placed by John Armstrong & Co., brokers, of No. 141 Broadway, who have excellent connections for securing large amounts of money.

The high price paid for the northeast corner of Broadway and 12th st, $625,000, is explained by referring to the other end of the trade The northwest corner of Alexander av and 132d st, a plot 200x200, extending to the Southern Boulevard, figured in the deal at $180,000.

The Realty Company of New York was incorporated at Albany last Saturday with a capital of $1,000,000. Their offices are at No. 35 Nassau st. They have advertised stock and bonds of the company for sale. A report crediting this company with extensive purchases at City Island is erroneous.

Simon Stern & Son, real estate agents and brokers, have opened new offices in the St. James Building, 1135 Broadway, corner 26th st, suite 516. The sale and exchange of real estate, the charge of estates and the negotiation of mortgage loans carefully attended to. Telephone 3165 Madison square calls Messrs. Stern.

A deed dated May 28th, 1799, and re-recorded Nov. 3d, 1899, shows that the consideration for No. 5 State st, size 24x104.6x24 x102.9, in 1799 was £6,000. The pound at that time was worth fifteen shillings, which would have made the price $22,500. It was transferred in 1899, together with No. 18½ Pearl st, a lot 19.11x108.8, for $78,000.

The Rapid Transit Commission having applied to the Board of Aldermen for permission to continue the underground road from 143d st and Lenox av to 150th st and Lenox av, with a terminal station between 148th and 150th sts, the matter has been referred to the Joint Committees on Railroads and Bridges and Tunnels to give a public hearing on the matter and report to the Board.

The Ford estate plot at the northwest corner of Lenox av and 112th st, extending to 113th st, was transferred this week to Isaac M. Berinstein for $108,000. He bought it in March, 1901, but owing to a dispute as to the dimensions, which involved only a few inches on one side and that for only a small part of the 113th st lot, title did not pass until now.

Henry E. Loney, of the real estate firm of S. Osgood Pell & Company, No. 542 5th av, has gone for a Southern trip and expects to be away about a month, visiting Havana, Cuba, Nassau, Palm Beach, Miami, St. Augustine and Jacksonville, and stopping on the way home at Charleston, South Carolina, for the Exposition. Mr. Loney will combine business with pleasure while he is away.

The Battery Place Realty Co. took title this week to Nos. 3 West st extending to No 4 Washington st for $78,775. The size is 24.4x179.8. For the Battery place front, extending from West to Washington st, a plot 44.7x180, they paid $375,000, very nearly five times the price that they paid for the inside parcel, or, allowing for the latter being nearly double the size, they paid about two and a half times more for the Battery place front.

The Harlem Property Owners' Association for the purpose of opposing an assessment of nearly $1,000,000 to pay for the construction of the Park av viaduct has been formally organized with the following officers: John Mitchell, President; David Scully, First Vice-President; J. J. O'Brien, Second Vice-President; Christopher Schildwachter, Treasurer; Jacob A. Weil, Financial Secretary, and Arthur C. Bostwick, Secretary.

The committee appointed by the property holders of 59th st and its vicinity having for its purpose the widening of the street and the establishment of a railroad station on Park av, consists of Joseph B. Bloomingdale, John D. Crimmins, Joseph P. Day, Justice P. Henry Dugro, and Alexander Crawford Chencweth. The proposal is to have a street 60 ft. and sidewalks of 15 ft. each. If the contemplated improvements are carried out it is urged that it is almost imperative that the New York Central Railroad should locate a station at 59th st. The committee intend to press the matter before the Railroad Commissioners.

It transpires that the Seaboard Realty Co. paid $221,000 for the plot of four lots on the northwest corner of Amsterdam av and 70th st, reported sold on January 25th. For the corner lot, owned by Alexander Walker, although in the name of the City Real Estate Co., $71,000 was paid. The next two lots were sold for a total of $90,000 by the Rhoades estate, and for the fourth lot $60,000 was paid to A. H. Creagh, of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. The latter company, by the way, will make a building loan of $600,000 for a 12-sty apartment hotel to be erected on the plot. Broker Frank E. Smith negotiated the sales and loan.

The longest established real estate agency and brokerage office west of Central Park is located at No. 1929 Broadway, close to 65th st. The well-known and successful negotiator and manager of estates, P. S. Treacy, is the proprietor, and an increasing clientele testifies to the satisfactory manner in which he manages business placed in his care. Mr. Treacy with James L. Wells negotiated the sale for St. John's College to the Manhattan Railway Co. of a strip about 50 ft. in width x 2,200 in length, extending along the west side of the college grounds at Fordham from Pelham av to Bronx Park. The "L" road will now be extended to the Park. The consideration was $100,000.

We are in receipt of a handsome brochure in colors from the Lawyers' Mortgage Insurance Co., of this city, which in concise form gives a statement of the advantages to be derived by investors in the purchase of the guaranteed mortgages for sale by this company. It is a very readable and useful little publication and commends itself strongly to those looking for safe investments of funds. The capital and surplus paid in is $1,250,000. The guaranteed mortgages offered for sale by the company are all on New York City real estate, of which, in the eyes of the most far-seeing of investors, there is no better form of security in the world. Mr. Edwin W. Coggeshall is the President of the company. The booklet will be mailed free on application, or can be obtained in person at the offices of the company, No. 37 Liberty st, New York.

Lovejoy & Noyes, of No. 62 Cedar st, have opened a branch office at Arverne, L. I. They are now moving into their Arverne quarters designed for them in the business block on Gaston av, opposite the station, and erected by the Arverne Realty Company. Associated with this firm in their Arverne venture is Mr. Lewis H. May, for many years a summer resident of Arverne, and one thoroughly familiar with the field. Mr. May will have charge of the Arverne business. The firm already has on their renting books most of the cottages that are for rent in Arverne, and also are doing a general brokerage business in Rockaway and Edgemere. The New York offices of this firm are among the busiest in the city at the present time, being in the midst of the spring renting season. Probably no firm in the city is doing a larger renting business. Their success is due to perseverance and energy, combined with a businesslike method of doing business.

Plans for the proposed tunnel of the Union Terminal Company, which was incorporated in Albany last week with a capital of $100,000, were filed with the County Clerk on Thursday, Appleton D. Palmer, of No. 100 Broadway, is attorney for the company, Francis H. Leggett, the wholesale grocer, being the President. Beginning at the intersection of Montrose and Varick avs, Brooklyn, the tunnel will run in a diagonal line under private property to the East River, under the river in steel tubes, then across the Island of Manhattan on the line of 14th st, and after that under the North River to Hoboken. There are to be two branches, one beginning at 14th and Hudson sts and extending down the latter to College place, thence to Greenwich st, and thence down to Battery place and around Bowling Green; the other beginning at 14th st and Broadway, going up the latter to Madison sq, diagonally across that, up Madison av to 42d st, and under private property to the Grand Central Station. Mr. Palmer said that the next step of the company would be to secure consents from property owners along the route, the law requiring that one-half of these owners must agree to the plan before a franchise could be obtained. In case the one-half does not agree the company will appeal to the courts to allow the construction of the tunnel on the ground that it is a public necessity.

The World of Building

Material Market.

The market in building material has not been especially brisk during the past week. New orders for lime, cement and brick have been unusually scarce, but agents are not complaining, because they believe the outlook in the near future to be most promising.

The iron and steel trades are overwhelmed with orders, so much so that in some cases orders are declined. This was the case a few days ago with an order for 50,000 tons of steel rails for Mexico, which went to England. The American Bridge Company is crowded with orders for structural steel, as are all other large manufacturers of this product, which is some evidence of the building construction in progress.

Lumber.—The prices of lumber remain as quoted last week. The general demand is fair, but it is said that the demand would have been much greater had it not been for the spell of unusually cold weather, which has temporarily retarded building operations in many directions. In the general demand hardwoods bear the palm and have a strong tendency to advance. This is especially true of maple. Hemlock is in fair demand, as is also yellow pine and North Carolina pine, while spruce is in considerable demand with fair prices.

Brick, Lime and Cement.—These products have not been in great demand during the past few days and prices are exactly as quoted in our columns last week. There are many extensive orders in hand, however, for future delivery, and with the disappearance of the extremely cold weather a great demand for the general grades of brick and cement is counted upon as a sine qua non. The prices for common building brick vary from $5.25@$6.25. For Rosendale cement the prices range from 75c.@95c., whilst domestic Portland finds buyers at $1.60@$1.90.

Iron and Steel.—The rumored scarcity of pig iron is a confirmed reality in the face of the recent report from Terre Haute, Ind., which declares that the South Rolling Mills of the Republic Iron and Steel Co. is closed down because they cannot get pig iron. The demand is enormous and it is quite natural that the tendency of prices should be upwards. Merchants are revising their price lists for pig iron generally. Rogers, Brown & Co. quote the following:

1X Northern	$17.65 to $17.90	2 Foundry Southern	$15.75 to $16.25
2X "	17.15 " 17.40	1 Soft Southern	16.25 " 16.75
G F "	16.15 " 16.40	2 " "	15.75 " 16.25
1 Fdry Southern	16.25 " 16.75

There is continued steady demand for plate and sheet iron, but owing to large stocks jobbers are revising prices. On numbers 14 to 16 Bruct & Cook quoted a reduction of 10c. per hundred from last week's prices.

Structural steel is quoted for prompt delivery in New York $2.00@$2.50 for beams and channels 15 inch and under, and the same price is quoted for angles, tees and zees. It is mooted that German manufacturers have raised their prices so high that it will be impossible for them to find buyers in this country.

Paints, Lead, etc.—The leading houses are revising their price lists somewhat. Harrison Bros. & Co. and the F. W. Devoe and C T. Raynolds Co. quote as follows: American white lead in oil, 6@6½c.; English lead in oil, 9¼@9½c.; American red lead in kegs, 6@6½c.; American litharge in kegs, 6@6½c.; French dry ochre, 1¾@1⅞c.; American Venetian red, $1.00@1.75; English Venetian red, per 100 lbs., $1.50@$2.00; Tuscan red, 7@10c. Putty, in tubs, is quoted at 1½@1¾c.; in bladders, 1½@2c.; in tin cans, 1½@2c. The National Lead Co. confirm thir price list issued December 20th last.

Linseed Oil.—Business is not specially lively in this commodity at present, and what demand there is, is for unimportant quantities. Nevertheless prices remain firm.

Glass.—The Pittsburg Plate Glass Co., Holbrook Bros. and other large jobbers maintain the prices we quoted in our columns last week. There is no change in prospect and the market is still in an unsettled condition owing to the ruptures among window glass manufacturers over prices. It is expected, however, that an amicable adjustment will be made very shortly. Then we may look for revised prices.

The Index to Volume LXVIII of the Record and Guide, covering the period between July 1 and December 31, 1901, is now ready for delivery. Price, $1. This Index in its enlarged form is now recognized as indispensable to everyone engaged or interested in real estate and building operations. It covers all transactions—deeds, mortgages, leases, auction sales, building plans filed, etc. Orders for the Index should be sent at once to the office of publication, 14 and 16 Vesey St.

Names for new New York bridges have been tentatively given by Bridge Commissioner Lindenthal, the names selected having been recommended among others by the American Scenic and Historic Preservation Society. These names must be approved by the Board of Aldermen before adoption. The new suspension bridge will be called the "Navy Yard Bridge." The bridge crossing Blackwell's Island will be the "Ravenswood Bridge." The proposed crossing of the East River at 125th st will be the "Astoria Bridge."

Superior resistance that metal ceilings gave to the effects of the recent explosion in the subway tunnel at 42d st compared with plaster ceilings calls attention to the merits of the former. In this connection attention is called to the change in the name of the Lyles & Mills Stamping Works, No. 231 William st, which has been recently incorporated under the name of the Lyles & Mills Metal Ceiling Co. This concern is one of the oldest and most reliable in this line of business, having been located at the address given for the past 15 years. Those anticipating using metal ceilings should communicate with them on the subject.

Architects, owners and builders should make themselves acquainted with this valuable appliance, and can do so by communicating with the home office of the Brunswick Refrigerating Co., No. 100 William st; telephone 1711 John.

Questions and Answers

We must remind our correspondents that we cannot answer anonymous communications. Readers must also remember that communications to us cannot invariably be answered the week they are received.

MECHANIC'S LIEN.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A files plans in his name in Building Department for improvement on some property, and he represents himself as owner of the property, contracts the work with B to do the same. Would a mechanics's lien make C the real owner of the property, liable for the bill of B, if B is not able to collect it from A, who is only the lessee?

Answer.—Section 3 of the Mechanic's Lien Law reads: "A contractor, sub-contractor, laborer or material-man, who performs labor or furnishes materials for the improvement of real property, with the consent or at the request of the owner thereof or his agent, contractor or sub-contractor, shall have a lien, etc." If A cannot prove the consent or request of C or his agent, etc., either express or implied, he cannot enforce a lien against C's interest in the property. If you will look over the files of the Record and Guide for the past few months, you will find several answers on this subject.—Law Editor.

MASON'S BILL.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A mason contractor entered into a contract with a property-owner for the mason work of a building. The owner supplied the material. The contract read as follows: "The sum to be paid by the owner to the contractor for said work shall be $——— per 1,000 for brick work." The contractor claims that the door and window openings should be estimated as solid brick work. Is he right in his claim? If not, is he entitled to have any part of such openings figured as brick work? The contractor also agreed "to set plaster partition blocks for the sum of $——— per superficial foot." Is he entitled to any allowance for the door openings?"

Answer.—The mason is right in his claim. Such is the "custom of the trade."—Law Editor.

WIRES CROSSING ROOF.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Kindly let me know what rights I have and what steps I can take in regard to telegraph wires which cross my roofs; some of which are attached to my wash roof and others cross the roof at a distance of about 6 feet from it? These wires were strung recently and without obtaining my consent.

Answer.—You have the right to remove the wires.—Law Editor.

POOLROOM—ALIEN.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Please answer the following questions: (1) A landlord has leased a house to some one for a number of years for hotel purpcses. Tenant has sublet part of the premises to a well-known politician, who is running a pool-room in same. The landlord is aware of the character of the place and has objected by letter, as well as by conversation with tenant, but tenant has paid no attention, and the pool-room is doing a big business. The question arises: Is the landlord liable to punishment, and if so, what is the penalty for tolerating a pool-room on his premises? (2) Can a person who is not a naturalized citizen of the United States hold real estate, and can he or she dispose of same as a bona fide citizen?

Answer.—(1) The landlord is guilty of a misdemeanor, penalty not more than $500 fine or one year imprisonment, or both. Section 343 of the Penal Code. (2) An alien may hold real estate and devise or sell it, but he runs the risk of its escheating to the State if he does not declare his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States, and file the required deposition in the office of the Secretary of State. See Secs. 4 and 5 of the Real Property Law.—Law Editor.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A party has leased a store, to be used for the furniture business, from May 1, 1901, for one year. The lease states for that business and not otherwise. Also, that the tenant shall not assign the agreement or underlet the premises or any part thereof without my consent in writing. He now wishes me to cancel his lease, and upon my refusal, has sublet the place to a butcher, whose business I object to. As I have refused, has he any right to sublet? If not, what steps can I take?

Answer.—He has no right to sub-let. But your remedy is very inadequate, as you cannot institute summary proceedings. You can bring an action for the breach of the covenant, but May 1, 1902, will be here before you can accomplish anything.—Law Editor.

Legal Decisions.

Covenant of tenant to make repairs—untenantability and surrender of premises. A covenant in a lease requiring the tenant to make "all inside and outside repairs" does not include extraordinary repairs occasioned by the falling in of the roof of a part of the premises caused by a heavy body of snow. Such words in a lease import simply a general covenant to make ordinary repairs, and they do not take the holding out of the operation of the Real Property Law (Sec. 197, Ch. 547, Laws of 1896), authorizing the tenant to surrender premises rendered untenantable by the elements when there is no written agreement to the contrary. (May v. Gillis, N. Y. Court of Appeals, N. Y. Law Journal, January 17, 1902.)

Specific performance—Encroachment of building on adjoining land. Where there was an encroachment upon adjoining land of 2½ inches by the building on a lot contracted to be conveyed, and the vendor tendered a deed for the land covered by the contract, to which he had good title, together with an indenture duly executed by the owner of the adjoining land, and his wife, granting and releasing to said vendor, his heirs and assigns forever the right to the use and occupation of so much of the premises encroached upon, "as may be now occupied and covered by the building, fence and wall aforesaid, not exceeding 2½ inches at any point, if such encroachment there be, for and during the period of the existence of said structures as they now stand."

Held, that the vendor had tendered a marketable title, although there was a mortgage upon the land encroached upon, and the mortgage had not executed said indenture. (Volz v. Steiner, N. Y. Law Journal, January 16, 1902, Supreme Court, Appellate Division, first department.)

Principal and agent—right of a woman to compel a reconveyance of property sold by her agent to himself for an inadequate consideration—effect of her receiving payment of a mortgage given back by the agent to her. Where a woman advanced in years, physically weak, and of inferior mental capacity, and without business ability and experience, places a parcel of real estate in the hands of a shrewd and able real estate agent, with instructions to find a purchaser, and such real estate agent induces her to sell the property for a grossly inadequate consideration, without disclosing to her the fact that he intended to become the purchaser, she is entitled to maintain an action to compel the real estate agent to reconvey the property to her. The fact that after she learned that the agent was the purchaser, and had requested him to reconvey, she accepted payment of a mortgage executed to her by the agent in part payment for the property, does not estop her from subsequently assailing the transaction where it appears that at the time she accepted such payment she informed the agent that she intended to insist upon a reconveyance of the property. (Clark v. Bird, 66 App. Div., 284.)

Partnership—parol evidence as to firm real estate—when it is not firm property. Where a dispute has arisen between the two partners of a going concern sought to be dissolved as to whether the real estate occupied by it is partnership property parol evidence is admissible to show the character and object of the ownership of the said real estate. Where it has been paid for by the funds of the individual partners, and the partnership agreement states that one of them "is the owner of the undivided one-half part of the premises" and it also stipulates for payment of rent to each as a lessee, and the real estate is entered in the firm books under a lease account, the real estate cannot be deemed partnership property; and the facts, that the firm paid for certain improvements upon it as well as taxes, assessments, water rates and insurance, are not controlling. (Bernheimer v. Schmid, 36 Misc., 456.)

Deed—description reserving the bed of a street—ambiguity. A deed, describing a parcel of land, in part, as "running thence southeasterly along the northeasterly side of Hamilton street, about 535 feet to Phineas street, thence northeasterly, along the northwest side of said Phineas street, about 246 feet to Blackberry alley," does not convey one-half of the bed of Phineas street, in front of the lands of the grantors abutting on that street, nor does a further recital of said lots as "on Phineas street" convey one-half of its bed. Where the language of a deed plainly excludes the bed of a street, facts dehors the deed are inadmissible to show that the grantors intended to convey the bed. (Potter v. Boyce, 36 Misc., 467.)

Easement of preparation—effect of lack of knowwledge that it exists. Where a party wall, visible to any one, encroaches upon the land of one of the abutting owners, the fact that he does not know or does not ascertain by a survey that the wall encroaches upon his land, cannot prevent the other owner from obtaining by a lapse of time an easement by prescription to maintain the wall as it stands. (Browning v. Goldenberg, 36 Misc., 438.)

THREE CENTS A DAY FOR A COMPLETE SYSTEM OF REAL ESTATE RECORDS!

Ten dollars for a complete system and set of real estate records alphabetically arranged, printed and ready for as easy reference as a word in the dictionary, is an interesting proposition for everyone who has anything to do with real estate operations.

It is possible for every real estate man to equip his office with the most perfect and handiest system of real estate records at a nominal cost.

This service is supplied to all subscribers of "The Record and Guide Quarterly"—a publication issued every three months. The fourth number annually is an issue containing all the records for the entire year arranged alphabetically. The subscription price is ten dollars a year.

Those who are not subscribers should investigate the advantages of this publication. All other systems of records are needlessly cumbersome and unnecessarily expensive. Start the new year with "The Record and Guide Quarterly." The annual number for 1901 is about to be issued, and we will send you this number with the following three quarterly numbers for ten dollars—less than three cents a day for a complete set of real estate records.

Drop a postal card to the offices of publication, Nos. 14 and 16 Vesey Street, or Telephone 3157 Cortlandt, and we will gladly show you the publication and explain to you its uses as a time saver and money maker.

CONVEYANCES.

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to their having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

5th.—The figures in each conveyance, thus, 2:482, denote that the property is in section 2 block 482.

6th.—It should also be noted in section and block numbers, the instrument as filed is strictly followed.

7th.—The letters R. S. mean Revenue Stamp, as R. S. $8.00 means Revenue Stamp $8.00.

Tax on Conveyances executed prior to July 1st, 1901, on $100 to $500, 50c., and for each additional $500 or fraction thereof, 50c.; on Conveyances executed on and after July 1st, 1901, 25c., where consideration exceeds $2,500 and is not more than $3,000, and 25c. for each additional $50 0or fraction thereof.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

The first date is the date the mortgage is drawn, the second the date of filing; when both dates are the same, only one is given.

Subscribers will find Mortgages in this list with the wrong block number attached. The block number we give is taken from the instrument as filed.

Mortgages against Bronx property will be found altogether at the foot of this list.

Jan. 31, Feb. 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the correspoding date.

The Attention of Architects, Builders, Owners and Managers of Hotels and Apartment Houses is called to the New York Telephone Company's

Private Branch Exchange System.

By means of a Private Branch Exchange city and long distance telephone service, as well as an interior service, are available to every apartment, at very moderate cost. Most people depend so much now-a-days on the telephone service that a Private Branch Exchange, connecting with the New York Telephone System, is practically a necessity in the Modern Apartment House or Hotel.

Vol. LXIX. FEBRUARY 15, 1902. No. 1770

ONE of the daily papers reports President Greatsinger as asking an interviewer who wanted to know the prospects for dividends under the bond issue plan announced this week "Did you ever hear of a Brooklyn Rapid Transit dividend? I never did." This is what it is to be a newcomer like President Greatsinger! Why Wall Street has heard of dividends on Brooklyn Rapid Transit for years; not cash ones, but still dividends, the same kind that are being declared daily on a number of securities whose finances are in about as good a shape as those of B. R. T. Was it this thought striking home to the minds of the sanguine that helped to break the market at the close of the week? The main cause was, of course, the decision regarding the taxation of securities in loans. In the early part of the week the market was surprisingly strong considering the nature of current news. The conflagration at Paterson is but little short of a local calamity, and the disclosures at Detroit answer a thought that has been in the minds of the recollecting of some things that always lie under the surface of a boom and a period of unusual enterprise. Of course, the buying lacked real spirit. There was some commission house business, but it was small and suspicious, and the pools with a tailing of professionals really made all the activity seen. The pools seem of late to put the market up on their own buying and down on their own selling, which must be cheerless and expensive business. When the only support to the bull side comes from pools we have surely reached a bear opportunity. That has been shown to be the case after every boom, for seemingly pools are made up of people who cannot see that the time has gone by for operations in any given direction; people who have been drawn into speculation by some great movement in which they have made money, but do not know how to get out of it again until by some sharp experience they receive enlightenment or their money is all paid away in repeated small losses, interest and commissions. Current reports of railroad earnings show a good many declines, but as these cover a week of storm they are not significant of much, and railroad men say they are not only doing a good business but are making good money at it. Wall Street remains the one dull and doubtful spot; elsewhere there is the utmost activity and cheerfulness.

SOME steps are being taken to educate the public up to the value of trade consolidations as cheapeners of production and, inferentially, as profit makers for their owners. The result should eventually modify the attitude of the public towards industrial securities, which is one of rather more uncompromising suspicion than is probably warranted by the real facts. The Industrials offer room for discrimination as well as other securities. It cannot be denied that, without any exception that we can call to mind, their capital represents much water. Even accepting, for the sake of argument, the theory that the capitalization of prospective profits is justifiable, this theory has been invariably put in practice in the most profuse way. The investing public cannot always hold the Industrials at arm's length, but their confidence is only likely to be a reciprocation of confidence on the part of the Industrial managers. For instance, the strength seen in the steel stocks this week is probably due to the evidence that is being given by the technical press of the increased efficiency and economy in working of the plants of the United States Steel Co. under the consolidation. These appear to arise from two causes: competition among the managers in their individual efforts to produce the best results from the several plants and departments in their charge and their co-operation through specialized committees, so that the processes by which the best results are obtained in one plant or department may be available to all. "The Iron Age," which has had an opportunity of examining the details of management and working of the Steel Co., says: "The changes in method which have been initiated have already borne fruit to an astonishing degree and promises for the future really astonishing results. * * * Few have realized until the present era of consolidation how considerably even the best records of economy in manufacture can be beaten by co-operative effort."

Reform in Condemnation Proceedings.

IT will be good news to owners of property, especially in the yet undeveloped sections, to learn that measures are being taken to honestly carry out those provisions of the charter intended to expedite and to reduce the cost of proceedings for taking property by condemnation. For many years the duration of such proceedings and the cost thereof constituted something in the nature of a public scandal, and yet it was difficult to find out where the blame lay precisely.

Naturally the cost of a proceeding was in proportion to its duration, and the equally natural inference was that it was prolonged by those who profited most by it. Neither the property owner directly interested, nor the taxpayer, less directly but as the final payer just as acutely interested, got satisfaction from the explanations that were made. It was clear that the system was bad, and some of the more public spirited of the property owners' representatives attacked the system and succeeded in amending it when our present charter was before the Legislature in the spring of last year.

Some of the most important of these amendments are: The requirements that the Corporation Counsel in street opening proceedings, and the Comptroller in others, shall certify to each item of expense as having been necessarily incurred in the proceeding; the provision by which agreements can be reached between the city and the property owner as to values, and the requirement that a commission must make a report within six months under penalty of losing all their fees, unless the court grants an extension of time. In the latter case the power of the court is subject to quite reasonable conditions to show the reasonableness and necessity for the extension and is accompanied by a further power to remove any commissioner whose neglect may have caused the delay. In making up the commission's accounts, the dates and hours of service of each commissioner have to be noted, so that when they are passed upon by the Supreme Court, that authority will have full information upon which to base a decision as to whether any or all the items shall be allowed or disallowed. Knowing that not only his attendance but its duration will be noted, no commissioner will feel at liberty to go away, perhaps to repeat the operation in another proceeding, as soon as the stenographer has noted his presence as has happened before this, but each will feel the necessity he is under of sitting out the session. Moreover, the commissioners in each case will, in their own interests, knowing that extensions of time cannot be lightly granted even by the most indulgent court, endeavor to close up the proceeding within the specified time, so that the provision of the Charter which sets this limit will be of itself one of the greatest time savers.

We understand that the Corporation Counsel has issued instructions, under which, so far as his office is concerned, the spirit as well as the letter of the charter provisions shall be observed. Strict account is to be kept of the attendance of commissioners and of the work of clerks, stenographers, etc.; work is to be prepared for each session in advance so that there shall be no merely formal meetings and adjournments to specific dates, with indefinite knowledge of whether there will be any work for the commission to do on those dates are to be discouraged, so that an excellent beginning has been made. But there are still reforms that can be made in the forms of procedure. Outside of the fact that the old system practically enabled the commissioners to name their own compensation by putting no bar to the length of time a proceeding might endure, there has probably been nothing that has delayed matters more than the taking of proof as to title. We have heard complaints of this from gentlemen who were members of commissions for something more worthy than the mere fees attached to the office. These took the position in order to hasten needed and important improvements and were chagrined to find themselves compelled to sit through weekly, or more frequent sessions extended over months, to attend to the formal and technical work of receiving proof of title, in which they felt that their time was wasted and the improvement they desired to obtain unnecessarily delayed. A change in the system that would relieve the commissions from the details of this work would be of great help in reaching conclusions quickly and that in turn would be in the interest of economy.

The Real Estate Situation.

The center of speculative activity shifts rapidly from one part of the city to another. For a long time Long Acre Square attracted most attention, and speculators were as busy as bees in securing all the property in the vicinity which its owners would consent to sell. But finally the willing sellers were bought out, and the district lost its value for speculative exploitation. In the meantime, however, a level of values was established which seriously interfered with the actual improvement of the neighborhood. It still remains, and is more than ever becoming the favorite location for theatres, but the builders of apartment hotels have found it more profitable to seek their lots in other almost equally advantageous, but less expensive, localities. The case is much the same with the Greeley Square region, which has been somewhat neglected of late. There is, of course, no central point in the city which promises to be of quite the importance of this square, but for the time being there is not much doing. Property owners are looking for higher prices than speculators or builders can afford to give. Just for the present the center of speculative interest has shifted further north and is situated in a region which may be said to include the whole district west of 8th avenue, between 57th and 75th streets. Six important sales have been announced for this region, which with the improvements that will follow will fix the character of the locality for many years to come. These sales include the northeast corner of Broadway and 62d street, three parcels, consisting of twenty lots on the other side of the avenue; the block front between 73d and 74th streets and Central Park West, and not long ago the south corner of Central Park West and 66th street. We have grouped all these sales together because it is evident that the whole of the West Side, south of about 76th street is assuming very much the same character. It is to be improved with big apartment houses and hotels, varied by some few places of amusement, and will become a continuation of the streets on either side of Broadway, north of Madison Square.

From the Grand Circle up to 75th St.

We have grouped the whole of the district between 75th street and 59th street together in spite of the fact that different parts of it have in the past fared very differently. The part in the neighborhood of 72d street was the choicest neighborhood on the West Side and was improved with expensive residences, varied by one or two big apartment houses. Recently, however, in spite of two very handsome dwellings erected on 72d street and the row which the Clark Estate will build on 74th street, the tendency has been settling more strongly in the direction of big apartment houses and hotels. Four of them have recently been erected and at least three more already projected. Of those already erected the two that have been opened for business have had no difficulty in securing tenants. South of 69th street, however, the district we have marked out, has been in bad odor. and on the side streets reproduced some of the least favorable characteristics of the vicinity of middle Broadway. But the meaning of the recent sales obviously is that a systematic attempt will be made to give this part of the district a popular and more respectable character. The syndicate who have been making the purchases in the vicinity is not a body of men who allow real estate to lie idle on their hands, and it may be confidently expected that within a year or two the same class of buildings will be going up as those recently erected near 72d street and Broadway. It should be noticed that plans have been filed this week for a 12-story apartment hotel at Broadway and 67th street.

The intersection of 59th street, Broadway and 8th avenue will undoubtedly be one of the most important centers of New York activity for it will draw upon the best part of th region west of the Park, as well as upon the lower part of the region east of the Park. Moreover, the Blackwell's Island Bridge, although at present somewhat remote, will in the end have an important influence on 59tn street from end to end. That street east of 5th avenue has already become selected for local banking and business purposes, and in the course of time the traffic in the street will produce a similar result further west. Moreover, the Grand Circle has one advantage over Long Acre and Greeley Squares; it has been conveniently and intelligently laid out for the interchange of traffic. It is a real square, which will look well, when surrounded by handsome buildings, and which lends itself to the kind of ornamentation and arrangement recently suggested by the Municipal Art Society. As time goes on, as the traffic increases, and as a greater value is placed upon propriety, comeliness and convenience in the disposition of the streets and open spaces, these advantages will have an important effect in increasing the popularity of the Grand Circle.

A PUBLIC official who stands for a policy of economy at any cost, does almost as much damage to the public interests as a public official who stands for expenditure on any pretext. Governor Odell has made the success of his administration depend upon a reduction of the state expenditures and an increase of state income from special taxes, and these two administrative reforms are both admirable and necessary within certain limits. But it now appears as if his insistance upon economy had him made afraid of liberal appropriations for any purpose however good. There is no other explanation of his attitude in reference to the subject of improving the Erie canal. The deepening of the canal so that it will accommodate 1,000-ton barges is of vital importance, both to the interests of the port of New York and the manufacturing interests of the State; and the change ought to be begun immediately, because the longer it is postponed the greater the injury to the transportation and manufacturing interests involved. But Governor Odell refuses to sanction a twelve-foot canal, which is the kind of waterway really needed, and confines himself to the recommendation of a nine-foot canal. It is evident that he is afraid of the expense involved in the larger project, afraid that it will rob his administration of the reputation for frugality, which he has been so sedulously cultivating; and the consequence is that the State will probably spend $29,000,000 for a waterway which, as experts are agreed, does not meet its commercial needs, only to find after the money is spent that it will have to do the work all over again at an expense much greater than the initial cost of a twelve-foot canal.

THE statement that President Cantor is entertaining favorably the request of the Navy Department for the cession to it of part of Blackwell's Island for Navy Yard purposes, is satisfactory, if it is also understood that the present proposition is accompanied by the undertaking offered with that made to the last city administration, i. e., that the land not actually required for official purposes will be laid out as a park for the benefit of the people of this city. When this matter came up first we heartily endorsed the park part of it, knowing that Blackwell's Island was an ideal site for a park and that the projected bridge across it offered the way of giving communication with the Island that had been absent before. The present request is urged on the ground of the needs of the navy, but if it is granted we trust the needs of New York City will not be lost sight of, and not merely the needs of to-day, but those of a future time when the already thick population on each bank of the East River co-extending Blackwell's Island will be still more dense, and the rise in land values will have made parks in the built-up sections more expensive and in other ways harder to get.

THE frequency of the complaints that are being received by the President of the Borough of the injury done to buildings on the line of the route of the Rapid Transit railroad as a consequence of the blasting that is carried on in the tunnel, seem to indicate that all the care necessary is not being taken by those having charge of that work. It is assuring to learn that the authorities are alive to the seriousness of the matter and are making a thorough investigation. If, as is alleged, the force of the explosions is sufficient to crack walls, destroy plaster and glass, there is a prospect of a heavy bill for damages against someone.

Harlem Property Owners at Work.

A delegation from the Harlem Property Owners' Association, which number 300 members and have their headquarters at No. 57 East 128th st, waited upon Corporation Counsel Rives yesterday to present to him the case of the property owners in the matter of the proposed assessment, amounting to about $1,000,000, for raising the railroad tracks on Park av. Mr. Rives suggested that the Association draft a bill providing for the payment of the work by the city at large or the Railroad Co. and submit it to him for consideration, and this they promised to do.

The delegation then waited upon Comptroller Grout to enlist his support for the Hennessy bill now in the Legislature, to reduce the interest on unpaid assessments from 7% to 6%. The Comptroller, however, declared himself to be unalterably opposed to the bill.

As a final work the delegation called on Borough President Cantor to secure his endorsement of the Hennessy bill. He asked that a copy of the bill might be sent to him and promised to give it his attention. Regarding the assessment for raising the tracks on Park av, President Cantor, who was in the State Senate when the enabling act was passed, said it was his impression that the idea at the time was that the cost of the work was to be a charge on the whole city.

Thus the delegation put in a very active day's work. Those who spoke on their behalf were: Counsellor Bushby, President John Mitchell, M. A. Ball, Jos. L. O'Brien, Ed. J. Murray, N. F. Walsh, David H. Scully and Geo. F. O'Shaughnessy.

The Prospects for the Middle West Side.

By the Middle West Side we mean, roughly speaking, the neighborhoods of the old villages of Greenwich and Chelsea and the streets lying about a mile and a-half further north, or to define it more sharply the section may be said to be bounded by Houston St., the North River, 7th Ave., and 50th St. This whole region possesses very much the same character. It was originally improved except on the streets nearest the river with private dwellings, intended for the occupation of middle class people; and in some parts, notably between 20th and 34th sts., 8th and 10th avs, it has in some measure kept its residential character—a little seedy, but still respectable. For the most part, however, the residences have been succeeded by tenements, varied by a few factories, and this process is going on all the time, but it is not going on very fast. It has been for many years probably the least active section of Manhattan. Tenement-house property does not bring anything like as good rents and prices, as it does on the East Side, and the increase in local business enterprises proceeds very slowly. Certain parts of it are held back, because the houses are occupied chiefly by negro tenants, whose money is uncertain and difficult to collect; other parts seem to be occupied largely by Irish families who have been crowded out of the East Side; and in no part is the pressure of business and population upon space as severe as it is in many other parts of the city. Its chief thoroughfare, 8th Ave. and Hudson St., is reasonably busy and prosperous, but by no means unusually so, and compared to the rest of the city it makes much the same impression upon an observer as the old horse-cars, which meander up and down 9th Ave, compared to the smart, trim and modern electric trolley cars. The test of prospertity in a city is always the extent to which the old buildings are pulled down and are superseded by more modern structures. Measured by such a test both 8th Ave. and Hudson St., although lively compared with the parallel thoroughfares to the east and west, are superannuated. They are still to a large extent lined with the old three-story brick buildings that have been replaced elsewhere.

Of late, however, there have been many signs that during the next decade this region will receive a larger share of the effect of the expansive forces, which are so quickly and so completely transforming Manhattan. The mere fact that it contains a large amount of relatively cheap land makes it probable that in the end it will receive more attention, because the over-crowding on the East Side is such that eventually population must seek an outlet elsewhere, and preferably on some other part of Manhattan Island—of which the only available part is the district we are now considering. But such general considerations, which are not very consoling to property owners who want immediate returns, may be helped out by a number of local causes, which will operate on different parts of this region, and which will in the aggregate produce most important and lasting changes.

By far the most important of these causes are those connected with improved means of communication with New Jersey. The transformation of the Middle West Side will chiefly be the direct and indirect consequence of the construction of North River tunnels. The results which the Pennsylvania tunnel have already had is a sufficient indication of what may be expected. The effect of this improvement on prices has thus far been entirely local, but in the end it will obviously infect the whole of the neighborhood. Several thousand tenement-house residents will be immediately dispossessed, and will have to find new accommodations in the same neighborhood; while several hundred occupiers of private dwellings will also be sent into the market. Furthermore, the increase of business opportunities in the vicinity of the terminus will within the next few years dispossess a much larger number of people, who will want accommodations equally as good in the same neighborhood. The effect in short will be the same as the introduction of a wedge into an elastic medium. There will be an increase of pressure throughout the whole medium, but particularly in the vicinity of the wedge. And the Pennsylvania tunnel is only one of several similar improvements which are sure to take place. One of these, the trolley tunnel, is already assured, and will be treated in the next paragraph, but there will be others. There is a company which is now having plans drawn for a New Jersey subway with a terminus at 14th St. and connecting lines running all over Manhattan with the irresponsible liberality of speculative designers. It is improbable that this tunnel will ever be built, but the fact that it has been proposed is an indication of the obvious necessity that the competitors of the Pennsylvania will be under to follow the example of that railroad and build into Manhattan; and when they do so their terminal stations will have to be situated in the district we are considering, somewhere between 30th and Christopher Sts.

The trolley tunnel, which is already partly built, and which will be finished in a couple of years, will have local consequences just as important as those of the Pennsylvania tunnel. There will be the same displacement of several thousand residents of tenement houses, the same increased value for business purposes bestowed upon property near the terminus, and the same influx of speculators with plans for improvements, and with a continual bidding up of quotations. Moreover, in one respect the trolley tunnel will have a better effect upon the neighborhood of its terminus than will the railroad tunnel of the Pennsylvania upon its terminus. To a certain extent the passengers of the latter subway will not come to the surface at all, but will be distributed by means of its connection with the rapid transit subway at 4th Ave. and 33d St. But in the case of the trolley tunnel all the passengers will have to be collected and distributed in Manhattan by the surface roads, and their presence will be an important influence in raising values in the neighborhood through which the surface roads run. What this influence will amount to it is impossible now to predict, but the general effect in increasing traffic, and introducing business activity and residential demand into the relatively dead region we are now considering, is obvious. Greenwich village, which hitherto has been passed by in the march of improvement of modern New York, is destined to become a lively centre of trade and traffic, with eventual results as astonishing as any of the rapid and bewildering transformations which are now taking place in other parts of New York. Connected with these effects of the trolley tunnel is the modernizing of the horse-car lines of the Metropolitan Railway Co. now operated in that neighborhood. The Record and Guide pointed out some weeks ago the difference which the electric trolley had made to 7th Ave., in increasing the number of people on the street, and in making business livelier. But this is only the first of a number of similar changes which the Metropolitan Street Railway Co. proposes to make. With the exception of lines on 7th and 8th Aves., 23d, 34th and 42d Sts., all the surface cars in this Middle West Side are now operated by horsepower, and within a few years electric power will be substituted, which will make the whole district much more accessible. The improvement will be felt particularly on the Ninth Ave., 14th St. and Christopher St. lines and their neighborhood.

Another transit improvement, which cannot come for a good many years, but which will eventually be necessary and will have important consequences on this region is a west side rapid transit longitudinal subway. The traffic developed in the 12th Ward and in the Bronx will undoubtedly in the end necessitate the construction of another southern outlet, which will naturally find its way down town on some avenue west of Sixth avenue and which will be connected with the termini of any tunnels that penetrate Manhattan from New Jersey.

Finally, quite apart from these more or less remote transit improvements, there are other causes which will have a beneficial influence upon property values on the Middle West Side. One of these is the radical changes, which the Dock Department will make during the next few years in the docking facilities of almost the whole of the water front in this region. These dock improvements will emphasize a tendency which the current business prosperity has already made very apparent. It will make the section much more available for factories and warehouses. At the present time there are being many plans filed for new business buildings of this kind to be erected throughout the different parts of the Middle West Side, for the cheapness of the land is a great advantage; and hereafter on the streets near the river, there is destined to be an ever-increasing amount of this kind of business. The location of factories and warehouses and the improvement of the docks will have the effect of increasing the demand for tenement house accommodation. In short, no matter in what direction one turns to examine the prospects, one finds encouraging signs of a larger demand both for business and residential purposes, so that it is safe to predict that during the next decade the whole of the region we have been considering will be the scene of lively building and speculative activity.

The Chicago and Bloomington Stone Co. Expanding in the New York Field.

The Chicago and Bloomington Stone Co., whose extensive quarries are located at Bloomington, Indiana, have recently opened an eastern office in the St. James Building, 26th st and Broadway, this city, for the sale of their buff, light blue and dark blue Indiana limestone. The equipment and capacity of the quarries of this company are up-to-date in every respect, and they are prepared to fill orders of almost any amount without delay.

Mr. Michael Cohen, who, for the past fourteen years, was associated with the firm of G. P. Sherwood & Co., has been appointed their eastern representative. Mr. Cohen announces further that he has entered the field for the purpose of selling building stone in this city and vicinity, as well as in other places, whence the demand for his goods may come. He will deal in Indiana limestone, Longmeadow sandstones, Wyoming and other bluestones, foreign and domestic stone, granite and marble.

Architects and builders are invited to call on Mr. Cohen at his office before making their selections of stone for building operations of any magnitude. His telephone call is 3175 Madison square.

THE APARTMENT HOUSE WORK OF CENTRAL PARK.

One of the successful builders of apartment houses whose field of operations is the section north of Central Park is Leon A. Liebeskind, who has now been in the building business in New York City for some fifteen or sixteen years, during which he has erected many apartments for which he has found a ready market.

A few of his buildings that have already gone into the hands of investors are the Oxford and Cambridge apartments on 124th Street and Madison Avenue, the five-story modern flats at Nos. 115 and 117 East 119th Street, Nos. 13, 15, 17 and 19 East 119th Street, and Nos. 15, 17 and 19 East 118th Street. He has recently completed and placed on the market the De Leon at Nos. 50, 52 and 54 West 112th Street, and is now building a six-story elevator apartment house on the north side of 129th Street, near Eighth Avenue and a similar house on the south side of 113th Street, east of Lenox Avenue. The idea in all this work is to meet a very popular demand for apartments comprising all the facilities and accompanying privilege that can go with that class of housing at moderate rents, that in the aggregate make a gratifying showing on the investment.

The De Leon may be taken as a typical example of this work. First it must be stated that it was built under the provisions of the old law which allowed more of the site area to be occupied than does the present one, and the building has, therefore, a higher renting capacity and consequently larger income than would have a similar building built under the present law. It is intelligently and conveniently planned. It is seven stories high and meets all the requirements for safety against fire, light and ventilation called for by the law. It has a long middle-front court, through which the tradesmen and others reach the freight elevators and by which most of the rooms are lighted, and rear and side courts to furnish supplementary light. There are forty-one five and six room apartments in the building above the basement—five on the ground, and six each on the upper floors, three each side of the front court, rents running from $35 to $50 a month.

THE DE LEON

50, 52 and 54 West 112th Street. Leon A. Liebeskind, Owner and Builder.

Other attractive features are the fine entrance hall, fire-proof stairways, and halls laid with mosaic and finished in burlap; private storerooms in the basement; steam heating, sanitary plumbing, clothes drying facilities, electric light and gas lighting, telephone, liveried attendant and electric passenger and freight elevator. The apartments themselves are self-inclosed, trimmed in hardwoods and in all ways bright and cheerful in appearance. Ornamental grills separate parlor and library, and the dining-room is furnished with china closets, etc. In the bath-room the eye is attracted by nickel-plated plumbing, porcelain lined bath tubs, mosaic floors and wainscoted walls. The kitchens are furnished with gas ranges, porcelain sinks, earthenware wash tubs and glass-lined refrigerators, besides a dumb-waiter available to but one tenant on a floor. All the rooms open into exterior light or open court and have, therefore, direct access to the air.

As to location, the De Leon is in that part of the city that has been so successfully exploited along the same lines that it follows in the past few years. This is the region just north of Central Park, which has a large apartment house population and is amply provided with markets, schools and places of worship of all denominations. Its proximity to Central Park is also one of its attractive features. This fact must have a good deal to do with not only bringing, but holding good class tenants to this section of the city, as the park affords so many attractions to both young and old.

The section is also abundantly served with means of transit. The De Leon itself is only one block from the Madison Avenue surface line, half a block from the 110th Street crosstown line, and the 116th Street cars give connection by transfer with all parts of the city. East and west lines of the Manhattan Elevated are fairly near, and a station of the new Rapid Transit Railroad has been located at Lenox Avenue and 110th Street. It is interesting to note that Mr. Liebeskind has secured a permanent loan from the Bank for Savings of $100,000 upon the De Leon.

The owner or his representative may be found on the premises at all times.

The Postal Telegraph & Cable Co. have purchased No. 359 Fulton st and will use it for a business headquarters and central station. A new building will be erected on the site.

It is announced that the contract for constructing the extension of the Rapid Transit R. R. to this borough will be ready for advertising in a few weeks. Of course it is impossible not to associate this announcement with that of the management of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Co. of their intention to seek authority from their stockholders to increase their bonded indebtedness by the large sum of $89,000,000. Whatever the company intends, what this borough can content itself with in any case is that the enterprise of the company is based upon their faith in the growth of the borough, and the improvement of real estate, and particular attention may be drawn to the lines on which they seem prepared to extend their railway system, leaving the future to reveal the bigger object the management must entertain. On this head President Greatsinger says: "We want to extend our lines in Greenpoint, from which section we receive constant demands for more service. We want to put in the Saratoga Avenue line, the Sixteenth Street line, to extend the Union Street line, and to make several other extensions into rapidly-growing territory that must have accommodation for its passenger traffic. As for new power houses, we are building one now on 3d av. It takes about three years to build a power house, and we expect that the demands of travel will make it necessary, as soon as we finish a power house to begin a new one."

Mr. Langhorst has introduced a bill into the Assembly transferring jurisdiction over lands in the 13th Ward from the commissioners of the New York and Brooklyn Bridge to the Park Commission of the City of New York. The Park Commission is to lay out the land and maintain the same as a part of the general park system of the city. The land transferred is described as follows: Westerly of Bedford av, easterly of Kent av, southerly of South 5th st, and northerly of South 6th st.

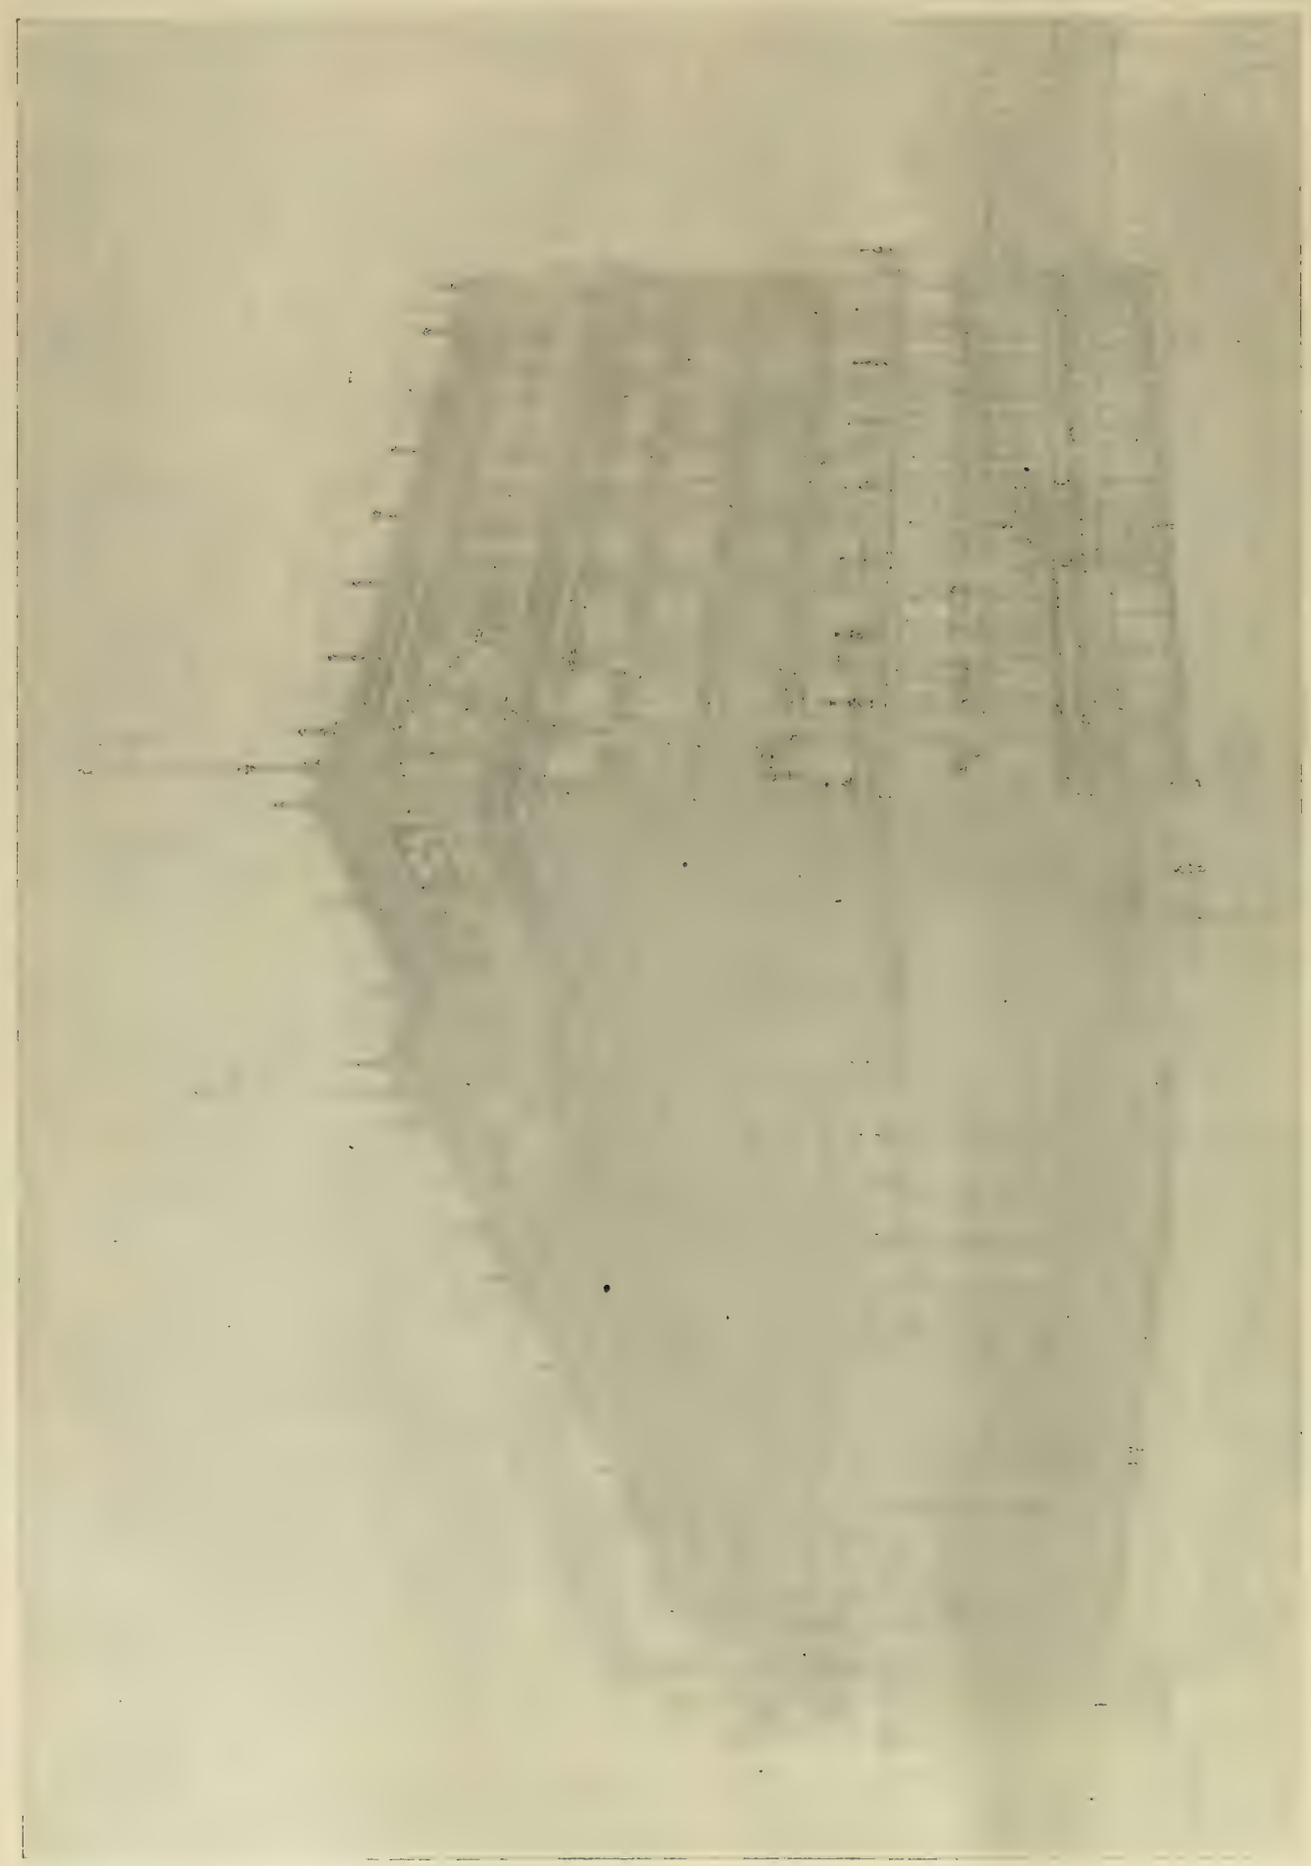
In the Legislature.

The delay in bringing the Stranahan Mortgage Tax bill up for discussion is simply due to the difficulty the friends of the bill have in keeping their following in line, and it is now confidently predicted that the bill will not pass. The rock upon which the bill is wrecked is the expropriation of city tax assets for State purposes. While this is the position of the Mortgage Tax bill, it does not improve that of the Mortgage Exemption bill. Those members who are refusing to vote for the former because it would, if passed, deprive their communities of income, will not of course vote for a total exemption which would have a similar result, but in greater degree.

The so-called Tunnel bill, the purpose of which is to assist the Pennsylvania R. R. scheme for entering Manhattan Island, and which had previously been making satisfactory progress, met a snag in the Senate on Thursday in the form of an objection from a well-known member that the matter was not receiving proper consideration. The result was a reference of the bill to the Committee on Cities, with instructions to hold a public hearing upon it.

A great to-do is being made over the three or four labor bills introduced apparently to encourage carelessness among workmen, because they seem all to exclude the theory of contributory neglect. At a hearing this week among the opponents of one of these bills was Sydney H. Stewart, of the New York Lumber Trades' Association, who insisted upon the injustice of making employers responsible for the negligence of their employes. The labor men are making a great fight to pass the Slater bill, the first of these measures introduced, but as that measure is opposed by the sponsors of other employers' liability bills, it is not unlikely that there will be no legislation at all on this subject this session.

On the whole, the session is not likely to be a very fruitful one. So far fewer bills have been introduced than is customary, and those of great and general importance are few. Some of the most recent bills introduced are described below:



Another attempt is being made to include within the boundaries of New York City two tracks of land that put southerly along the line of Wakefield, and now belong to Mount Vernon. This is sought to be done by a bill introduced by Senator Hennessy into the Senate (Introductory No. 373), to lay out a new road 120 feet wide, the center of which is to form the boundary line between New York City, Mount Vernon and Pelham. The proposed line of this road is: Beginning at the center line of Bronx River at a point which lies in the western prolongation of the northern line of South st; thence easterly to the center line of South 14th st; thence southeasterly along the centre line of 14th av to the center line of West 4th st; thence northeasterly along the centre line of West 4th st, to the western line of Mundy's lane; thence southerly along said westerly line of Mundy's lane to the centre line of Kingsbridge rd; thence easterly along the center line of the proposed avenue 120 ft in width, which widens the existing Kingsbridge rd about equally on both sides to Johnson av; thence easterly to the intersection of the northern and western boundaries of Pelham Bay Park; thence easterly along said northerly boundary of Pelham Bay Park and its extension easterly to Long Island Sound.

There was lately introduced into the Assembly by Mr. Scanlon a bill (Introductory No. 622), which is now in the hands of the Committee on Affairs of Cities, to take the power of dismissing subordinates at will from the several superintendants of buildings, and to provide for dismissal only on presentation of charges and after a hearing.

Architects are especially interested in a bill which Mr. Gherardi Davis introduced into the Assembly, and which he states was handed to him by H. Rutgers Marshall of the Fine Arts Association of New York City. This bill provides that by May, 1902, the Fine Arts Association shall furnish the Mayor of New York with a list of 100 architects, from which list, by June 1, 1902, the Mayor shall select fifty names to go on an eligible list. From this list architects to supervise public buildings in New York shall be selected. The Mayor is to have the right to reject any or all names presented to him and to remove any architect or firm of architects from the eligible list at his pleasure. He also has the right to call upon the Fine Arts Association to submit the names of architects not residents of New York City whenever he thinks the employment of outside architects would be desirable.

A contribution to the bills for amending the Tenement House Law was made by Senator Hill, who introduced by request, a bill (Senate Introductory No. 382) to allow certain 3-story tenements to have stairs to the basement on the inside and a skylight over the stairwell of 21 sq. ft. This seems to be intended to meet a particular case.

Senator Ahearn has a bill in the Senate (Introductory No. 347) to compel all gas companies to place on all gas meters automatic valves to prevent the escape of gas in case of fire.

Wm. M. Ryan makes final announcement in our advertising pages of the sale, in partition, Wednesday next, of the city block bounded by West, Laight, Washington and Hubert sts, and the brick buildings thereon, formerly used as the Appraiser's Stores. As was previously said in these columns, it seems almost unnecessary to point out the rapidly increasing values of parcels of the size and in such locations as this under the rapidly growing commerce of the country, which, of course, increases the pressure upon its centre in Manhatton Island. West st is destined to be the greatest shipping thoroughfare in the United States, if not in the world. It will certainly be before long the line of an important railway, either built by private or public capital, intended to serve the shipping interests thereon and land fronting upon it must become immensely valuable for either office or warehouse purposes. The advertisement of this sale is, therefore, strongly recommended to the consideration of investors, who are also referred to the auctioneer, at No. 149 Broadway, for maps, terms, etc. A full description of the neighborhood in which this property is situated, with a statement of its advantages for business purposes, and some details as to the recent advance in values, will be found in our issue of December 21st last.

Thomas A. Kerrigan will sell at auction five Brooklyn dwellings, Nos. 112, 114, 116, 118 and 120 Willoughby av, Tuesday week, at No. 189 Montague st. Description is given in our business pages, and at the auctioneer's office, No. 9 Willoughby st, all particulars are to be obtained.

THE PEYTON ESTATE SALE.

On Tuesday next will take place one of the most important sales of Manhattan and Bronx real estate which has been held in a number of years. In all some 46 parcels of Manhattan and Bronx real estate, belonging to the estate of Josephine L. Peyton, will be offered at auction by James L. Wells, and will arouse the interest of everybody who is looking for choice investment and business properties. The full particulars are given in our business pages, but it may be noticed here that they are nearly all avenue parcels and hence are peculiarly desirable. One, No. 363 5th av, just north of 34th st, is in a neighborhood that has been advancing very rapidly for the past year, and is a particularly desirable speculative parcel. The other parcels, including as they do Nos. 130-132 Duane st, No. 2185 3d av, Nos. 155 and 881 6th av, Nos. 11, 149, 151 and 153 8th av, No. 342 9th av, Nos. 670 and 672 9th av, and other properties on the Boulevard, West 13th, 14th, 19th, 20th and East 59th sts, Barrow st, Bleecker st, Greenwich st, Horatio, Hudson, Renwick and Thompson sts, are all in live business neighborhoods and investors will do well to examine those in which they are interested. In addition to the Manhattan offerings there are a number of parcels to be sold in choice locations in the Bronx. Book maps, terms of sale, etc., may be had of Sylvester Pope and William L. Condit, executors and trustees, No. 56 Pine st; Abram I. Elkus, attorney for executors, No. 56 Pine st, and James L. Wells, auctioneer, No. 141 Broadway.

We will pay 10c. per copy for the following numbers delivered at our office in good condition: 1251, 1399, 1402, 1609, 1735.—Record and Guide, 14 Vesey st.

Gossip of the Week.

SOUTH OF 59TH STREET.

The Paran Stevens plot, at the southeast corner of 5th av and 44th st, which was reported to have been sold several times in the past year, and also that an 18-sty hotel would be erected upon the site, has now been sold to the syndicate organized by Richard M. Montgomery. Delmonico's is on the northeast corner, and Sherry's on the southwest corner of the same street.

Potter & Brother have purchased from Bernard Karsch Nos. 215 and 217 West 42d st, two 4-sty dwellings, on plot 40x100.5. The seller bought No. 217 in 1885 for $24,500; No. 215 he bought in 1895 for $33,000, a total of $57,500; his asking price for the whole has been $120,000, and it is reported that very near that price was paid. The buyers already own No. 213, adjoining, and Nos. 218 to 226 West 43d st, abutting the 42d st property. They now have a plot fronting 60 feet on 42d st and 83.4 on 43d st.

Sydney Fisher has sold for C. A. Johnson to Gustav Roemer, for $12,000, No. 232 East 30th st, a 4-sty flat.

Samuel F. Meyers has purchased No. 47 Maiden lane, a 5-sty building, 21.4x136.8x20.6x134.10. He already owns No. 49 which he purchased last year for $104,000. He now has a plot with a frontage of 46.2 and a depth of 139 feet on the easterly side and 134.10 on the westerly line with a rear line of 42.11. He formerly owned Nos. 48 and 50 Maiden lane, extending to Nos. 33 and 35 Liberty st, but sold them last year to F. D. Allen for $500,000.

Mrs. Livermore has sold No. 39 West 48th st, a 4-sty and basement dwelling, 25x60x100, Columbia College leasehold.

Mrs. E. M. Merriam has sold to W. Merrill Smith No. 29 West 54th st, a 4-sty and basement dwelling, on lot 22.6x100.5.

I. Freidus has sold for Adam Geib to Elias Schlomowitz No. 389 2d av, near 23d st, a 4-sty store and tenement, on lot 18x78, for $14,250.

The northeast corner of 62d st and Broadway sold at the Eno auction in 1899 for $175,000, but was a little larger than the northwest corner just sold, its size being 116.2x164.11x100.5x106.7. The asking price has been $800,000 for the block front, $140,000 for 61st st corner, and $195,000 for the 62d st corner. Comptroller Grout has announced that he is emphatically and unalterably opposed to the proposition to have a bill passed in the Legislature to allow city bonds to be issued for improvements demanded by property-owners, and then giving the assessed owners twenty years to meet their assessments in twenty payments. The Comptroller says that he will fight the proposition to the bitter end, and that if it is passed he will appeal to the Governor to veto it. Mr. Grout understands that the Mayor has also been asked to favor the measure, and has refused to do so. The Comptroller argues that the passage of the measure would result in a great loss of credit to the city, as a lot of improvements would be demanded, and the bonds issued for them would exhaust the city's borrowing capacity, and keep it exhausted for the twenty years.

Justice Beach, in the Supreme Court, has granted authority to the society in charge of the West Side Boys' Lodging House, to execute a deed of sale of the property now occupied by the lodging house on the northwest corner of 7th av and 32d st, to Samuel Rea, of Philadelphia, the Fourth Vice-President of the Pennsylvania Railroad, to be used for part of the site of the proposed terminal station of the railroad in connection with its plans for a North River tunnel. Decision against the Manhattan Elevated Railroad has been handed down by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court. The case was an appeal taken by H. B. Auchincloss from a decision of the Special Term of the Supreme Court dismissing an action to recover damages from the owners of the Ninth Avenue elevated line for constructng and operating a third track on that line. The Appellate Division holds that the act of the Rapid Transit Commissioners in giving the New York Elevated Railroad Co. the right to construct and operate tracks in addition to the two originally authorized was unconstitutional, or rather that the section of the act of 1875 under which they granted this permit violates the constitution of the state. Justice Ingraham summarizes the conclusions of the Appellate Division thus: "I can see no escape, therefore, from the position that the construction of this additional track in 9th av opposite the plaintiff's premises was unauthorized, and that the plaintiff was entitled to an injunction restraining the defendants from the maintenance and operation of this track." The third track herein referred to is a middle track used for the operation of express trains from 116th st to Christopher st.

W. G. McAdoo, counsel for the New York and New Jersey R. R. Co., states that the plans of the company have been matured, and as a result the tunnel under the Hudson River will be built. The terminals on both sides of the river have been acquired. The tunnel cars will come to the surface at this station, so that transfers of passengers can be made to both the elevated and Metropolitan line in an easy and convenient manner. On the New Jersey side, connections will be made on the surface with the street railroad lines. The tunnel will be operated by electricity. The incorporators named in the charter are nearly all members or clerks of the law firm of Stetson, Jennings & Russell, of 15 Broad st, which firm had charge of the legal affairs of the old tunnel company.

Fireproofing Consolidation.

After a meeting of the Directors of the National Fireproofing Co. at Pittsburg, Thursday, an official statement regarding the proposed merger of competing plants and an increase in capital stock was made public. A meeting of the stockholders has been called for Feb. 17 to consider an increase in the capital stock from $5,000,000 to $12,500,000. Of this $5,000,000 is to be preferred and $2,500,000 common. The Directors desire to purchase the properties and franchises of fifteen different companies owning eighteen works located in the States of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut and the District of Columbia. The stockholders of record Feb. 15th will be limited in their subscriptions to the sum of $2,500,000, with which they will receive $1,250,000 of common stock, the balance of the preferred and common stock being subscribed for by a large number of the present owners and stockholders of the plants to be acquired, and by several large firms in the underground conduit and building business, who in turn will agree to enter into contracts with the company for nearly fifty percentum of the entire production.

New Building in Paterson, N. J.

SOME OF THE WORK NECESSITATED BY THE RECENT FIRE.

Paterson is rapidly getting out of the chaotic condition in which the fire left it. Owners are making plans to rebuild, and as business was never so good in Paterson, money will not be lacking. Contracts in several instances have already been awarded, while scores of smaller property-owners are negotiating with architects and builders.

New York builders, architects and furnishers of construction material have representatives here to solicit orders. Every local builder and architect is rushed with orders for the reconstruction of buildings. One architect reported that he had received so many applications from property-owners that he thought he might be compelled to send to neighboring towns for draughtsmen and designers. Labor in the building trades will be in great demand.

The board of aldermen have decided that no frame structures would be permitted in the burned district. Although it has not been definitely decided, it is generally believed that the City Hall is not to be torn down. The City of Paterson is in no condition financially to stand the cost of a new structure, and the building will be fixed up and used for a few years at least.

The Paterson "Evening News" will soon have plans drawn for a new building. The new structure will be six stories high, the design Gothic, and the material red brick.

Mr. Bernard Katz, president of the Consolidated Brewing Co., will have plans drawn for a 6-sty office building, which will take in all the land formerly occupied, and also the site of the Garden Theatre.

Meyer Brothers, proprietors of the Boston store, Main st, have announced that they will soon have plans drawn for a new building to cover all the ground owned by them.

The Franklin House will be rebuilt, and will be a 5 or 6-sty structure, with stores on the ground floor and apartments above.

S. Scheuer & Co. intend to rebuild on the site of their old building, and will rush all necessary details through to that end.

Marshall, Ball & Co., the clothiers, have decided to replace their building with an up-to-date 6-sty structure, which will run through from Main st to Hamilton st, taking in the ground owned by the firm, and formerly occupied by the Hopper's stables.

It is certain that the 1st National Bank and Park National Bank will rebuild, and that two elegant office buildings will tower 7 or 8 stories high from the ashes of the burned structures.

Benevolent Lodge, No. 2100 F., having had its fine 4-sty building destroyed, will rebuild. Nothing definite as yet has been decided upon.

The Paterson Safe Deposit and Trust Co. will erect a new building, to cost $250,000. The board of directors are called to meet this week at their new quarters, corner of Broadway and Church st, for the purpose of arranging details, and it is altogether likely the work will be commenced upon the new structure in March.

Mr. Rogowski, Main st, has placed with F. W. Wentworth, architect, 247 Market st, an order for plans for a larger and better building than the one burned. It will be five stories instead of three. As soon as the plans are ready bids will be secured and a contract awarded.

John W. Ferguson, contractor, 90 Washington st, has been awarded the contract for the erection of a 10-sty fireproof building, estimated cost $200,000, at the corner of Market and Hamilton sts. Hamilton Safe Deposit and Trust Co., owners.

The F. W. Woolworth Co., Main st, have awarded a contract to the David Henry Building Co., corner Main and Smith sts, for the erection of a 3-sty brick store and loft building. F. W. Woolworth & Co., owners.

David E. Quackenbush, 14 Knickerbocker av, have secured the general contract for a temporary 1-sty frame structure, to be erected on the corner of Market and Clarke sts, on plot 60x125; estimated cost, $6,000. Meyer Brothers, Boston Store, owners.

Market st.—Charles Edwards, architect, corner Van Houten and Carroll sts, is drawing plans for 4-sty brick store and office building, on plot, 100x60; estimated cost, about $30,000. Katz Brothers, owners.

Main st.—Charles Edwards, architect, corner Van Houten and Carroll sts, is preparing plans for a 6-sty store and dwelling, brick and iron construction, on plot 50x100 on Main st, 25x150 on Van Houten st, 50x25 on Ellison st; estimated cost, $20,000; Quackenbush & Co., owners.

Beach and Morton sts.—M. Houman, architect, Central Building, is drawing plans for 4-sty brick factory, on plot 43x100; estimated cost, $15,000; Alfred Crew, owner.

East 25th st.—M. Houman, architect, Central Building, is drawing plans for a 2-sty frame flat, on plot 66x24.6; estimated cost, $4,500; James H. Johnson, owner.

Market st, opposite Clarke st, Munzer Building.—F. W. Wentworth, architect, 247 Market st, is preparing preliminary plans for 4-sty brick and stone building, on plot 65x80; Hugo Munzer, owner.

The present addresses of some of the Paterson architects are as follows: John H. Post, 18 Hamilton st; James A. Fleming, Morse Building; H. F. Stephens, 144 Broadway; Crosby & Warren, 160 Paterson st.

The World of Building

Material Market.

The past week has developed no particular change in the demand for building materials generally, and with one or two exceptions, prices remain the same.

The almost arctic weather we have been experiencing the past two or three weeks is doubtless accountable for lethargy in the placing of new orders. Much construction work has been almost at a standstill, owing to the weather, and in some instances slowness of deliveries of structural steel.

The manufacturers of window glass have not yet reached a settlement of their complicated disagreements. What effect the action of the Independent Window Glass Co. of Pittsburgh will have in cutting their prices below the prices last fixed by the American and Federation Cos. remains to be seen.

We learn that five acres of land have been secured in Morgantown, W. Va., for the erection of an enormous window glass tank by a co-operative company; while at Tallapoosa, Ga., the Dixie Company is about to triple the capacity of its present plant.

An agreement has been arrived at by manufacturers of plate glass to close their factories during the whole of July next in order to maintain prices.

Mr. Harry Holbrook, the secretary of the New York Window Glass Jobbers' Association, informs us that the members have seriously considered the advisability of advancing their prices, and that this may be done within a very few days. "For some time," said Mr. Holbrook, "we jobbers have been selling window glass at less prices than the manufacturers. We could do this because we had placed huge orders before the manufacturers' dispute commenced."

Iron and Steel.—The prices for pig iron remain as quoted last week, but in view of the enormous demand an advance is looked for. For quick deliveries about one dollar premium is asked. The product of Southern furnaces is already sold to end of June next, whilst for even later deliveries the supply of iron is very limited. The Northern furnaces are about in the same position.

The demand for steel bars is active—while the orders for common iron bars are by no means plentiful. The prices of structural steel remain firm, with an upward tendency, which is not surprising when we consider the enormous demand for building construction.

Pig Tin, Etc.—The market for tin is very strong and prices are uncertain, but the tendency is to advance. Phelps, Dodge, & Co. quote pig tin at 24⅞ in ton lots. Spelter at 4.30@4.35. The recent advances in tin plates will be seen by reference to our quotations.

Brick, Lime and Cement.—There are no changes in the prices from those last quoted. Mr. W. K. Hammond, when seen at the rooms of the Brick Agents' Association, said that the demand continued fair, considering the unusually cold weather. That they were still in a position to fill the requirements of the builders, notwithstanding the fact that transportation was practically at a standstill owing to the frozen state of the river, and would be, he believed, for some time. The demand for lime and cement is very quiet, and prices remain unchanged from last week.

Lumber.—The general demand is good and prices are firm as last quoted, with one or two exceptions. Eastern spruce, special, is quoted for delivery in New York, at 21.00@23.00. Random cargoes, narrow, 18.50@20.00; wide, 19.50@22.00. Yellow pine is quoted for random cargoes, sail deliveries in New York, 20.50@21.50, while ordered cargoes average 21.50@22.50.

Lath.—There is a fair market for Eastern spruce lath at 4.00 on spot and 4.50 asked, to arrive. The receipts have been light for some time, and in all probability will be light for some time to come.

Paints, Oils, Etc.—The demand is not especially brisk and prices have not advanced from our quotations of last week. Prices for white lead are unchanged. The demand for red lead, litharge and orange mineral is fair, but prices are without fluctuation. Zinc is in moderarte demand.

As we go to press there are rumors that there is likely to be special demands for several classes of building material very shortly on account of the rebuilding of Paterson, N. J.; Advances may, therefore, be looked for daily.

The American Smelting and Refining Company advanced their prices for lead on Thursday for 50-ton lots, to 4.00@4.20.

FIREPROOF TRIM AND FLOORING.

Another attempt is being made to expunge from the Building Code the provision making it compulsory to use fireproof materials for floors, trim, etc., in buildings of more than 12 stories and over 150 ft. in height. Alderman Seebeck introduced an ordinance in the Board of Aldermen for this purpose, which was referred to the Committee on Laws and Legislation. The form of the proposed ordinance, omitting preamble, is as follows:

Section 1, Part XX., section 105 of "The Building Code" relating to Fireproof Buildings, is hereby amended by striking therefrom in the first paragraph thereof the words "that when the height of the building does not exceed twelve stories nor more than one hundred and fifty feet."

Sec. 2, Part XX., section 105 of "The Building Code," relating to Fireproof Buildings, is hereby further amended by striking therefrom, in its entirety, the second paragraph thereof beginning with the words "when the height of a fireproof building * * * " and ending with the words "* * * approved by the Tenement House Department to render the same fireproof."

Sec. 3. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

Mr. Champion is the proprietor of the Portland, an apartment hotel, on the opposite side of the street.

He has also arranged for an electric cab service from the building to the L station for the convenience of tenants. The buildings were erected by William Noble & Co., under a loan from Mr. Butler. Joseph Wolf, No. 1125 Broadway, was the architect.

They have purchased twelve lots on each street, and may buy the balance of the lots in the block down to within 100 feet of Columbus av. Francis R. Allen, of Boston, will be the architect for the new hospital, which will probably be a 6-sty building, although the original plans only call for a 5-sty building.

Of Interest to the Building Trades.

President Myers added to this contribution $5,000. Inquiry of Mr. Myers elicited the information that neither a site or architect has been selected and nothing would probably be done for a couple of months.

One of the lastest novelties introduced on the market has considerable merit. This is the Everett steel cover for wash tubs. These covers are made in the most substantial manner, and will not curl up, split or open at the seams, making an asylum for bugs and dirt. They also afford perfect ventilation, and do away with those obnoxious smells so common with wash tubs. Architects, builders and others interested will be furnished with additional information by addressing the owner and patentee, G. W. Everett, 11 East 10th st.

Mietz & Weiss, manufacturers of gas and kerosene engines, have recently issued their annual illustrated catalogues showing the eleven sizes in which their machines are made; also describing the many uses to which they can be applied where power is required. These machines are made in sizes from 1 to 60 horse-power, and were awarded the gold medals at the Pan-American Exposition. They can be seen in running order at the showrooms of the manufacturers, Nos. 128 to 138 Mott st. Catalogues will be supplied on application.

The Gibbons Contracting Co., of Hamilton av and Columbia st, Brooklyn, have completed the work of restoring the "Grotto," on Washington st, recently damaged by fire, and are busy building a factory extension, and with alterations, jobs, for which they have excellent facilities. The manager of the company, Mr. Richard Gibbons, after a hard-fought legal battle lasting 5 years, recently secured from the Court of Appeals a judgment for $150,000, with $30,000 added for interest and costs, against the Bush Co., for building done at 42d st and 2d av by M. Gibbons & Son, and claims of the firm against the city involving over $60,000, held up for years by Comptroller Coler, are now being adjusted. Mr. Gibbons refused to take refuge from his creditors by failing, and is to be congratulated on winning suits that will enable him to pay everybody in full.

THE RECORD AND GUIDE QUARTERLY.

The expense attending the preparation and publication of the Record and Guide Quarterly make it necessary that the price should be advanced. Consequently, hereafter, the charge to annual subscribers will be $10, which sum will pay for three quarterly numbers and one annual number containing all the records of the year. The charge for single quarterly numbers will be $3 each, and that for single annual numbers $10 each. This change is made in confidence that those who have hitherto used this invaluable work will appreciate its justice. There is no other part of the equipment of a real estate office so useful and so handy, or to be obtained at anything like so small a cost.

CONVEYANCES.

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

5th.—The figures in each conveyance, thus, 2:482, denote that the property is in section 2 block 482.

6th.—It should also be noted in section and block numbers, the instrument as filed is strictly followed.

7th.—The letters R. S. mean Revenue Stamp, as R. S. $8.00 means Revenue Stamp $8.00.

Tax on Conveyances executed prior to July 1st, 1901, on $100 to $500, 50c., and for each additional $500 or fraction thereof 50c.; on Conveyances executed on and after July 1st, 1901, 25c., where consideration exceeds $2,500 and is not more than $3,000, and 25c. for each additional $500 or fraction thereof.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

The first date is the date the mortgage is drawn, the second the date of filing; when both dates are the same, only one is given.

Subscribers will find Mortgages in this list with the wrong block number attached. The block number we give is taken from the instrument as filed.

Mortgages against Bronx property will be found altogether at the foot of this list.
